NOT A BAD NIHILIST.

SERGIUS STEPNIAK TELLS OF RUSSIAN ATROCITIES.

Men Who Have Committed No Crime Sentenced to the Mines Without Trial—Even Little Children Are Now Banished to Siberia.

Russia is not a nihilist in the United States, as now lecturing in this country and is recently spoken in Chicago, St. Paul and Milwaukee.

The great question in Russia to-day, he says, is to throw overboard the autocracy and substitute a constitutional monarchy, the same as that found in Italy, England and all European countries except Turkey.

The speaker, in a recent lecture, gave in detail the manner of organizing nihilist societies among the workmen. Nothing was done that was considered violent at first.
