ROUND GROVE. Mr. Chase and Mr. Reinmiller each lost a fine horse last week. Bert Pfefferman is contemplating a trip to the swamp for a duck hunt.

Mrs. Mary Kraker, of Joliet, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steger. The Birke Fieldman case was settled at Pontiac last Monday, which is a blessing to the community.

Zyron Tambling's children have been quite sick the past week, but at this writing are improving rapidly. Mrs. Stephen Patton and daughter Maggie, of Joliet, are spending the week at their old home in Round Grove.

Dan Brown is as happy as a lark this week, all on account of a little daughter which came to town one day last week. The community were greatly shocked at hearing of the sudden death of Mrs. Thomas Feebery which occurred Saturday morning at her home in Campus.

Feebery passed her 44th birthday January 23, and had lived in this vicinity some twenty years, during which time she has made friends by the score, as she has always been ready with kind words and helping hand to assist those that were in need, especially in time of sickness.

It seems sad that one who had but passed the mid-day of life, and a universal favorite should be taken from our midst. It is hard to gild grief with words, but the husband and family have the heartfelt sympathy of friends and neighbors. The funeral took place Monday, and the remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery, just south of town. Rev. Father Lyons, of Pontiac, assisted the resident priest in the funeral services.

Campus. Patrick Devlin is on the sick list this week. A good many people are sowing oats this week. Frank Boule, near Dwight, was on the streets the other day.

Miss Mary Maguire, of Piper City, is visiting her parents this week. John Ross has started a bachelor's hall on his father's place near Dwight. Father Lyons, of Pontiac, was in Campus Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Feebery.

James Beatty's overcoat would not make Dan Brown a vest since that little girl arrived last Thursday morning. The report is that James Eaton has gone to Jackson, Michigan, for a short visit and will bring a bride home with him. The boys are preparing to charivari him.

GOODFARM. The Seegar and Krug case was decided in Krug's favor. Geo. Semantel's children are having the whooping cough. Mary Morrissey has been spending a few days at Mrs. Neville's.

OF INTEREST TO WRITERS. A Labor-Saving Invention Indispensable to all who Write. Of the many valuable improvements which have been made in self-feeding pens a great part are due to the skill and persistence of Mr. L. E. Dunlap, of Boston, who, as a pioneer in this business, has spent the last decade in perfecting the fountain pen that bears his name.

The latest perfected invention is the Dunlap double feed pen, and in this double-feed lies the secret of its success. It carries a sixteen-karat diamond-pointed gold pen, and is a perfect pocket companion that will not only prove indispensable, but a joy and blessing as long as life lasts. It is guaranteed to write instantly, always and under all circumstances.

To introduce it among the readers of this paper, the manufacturers offer for a short time only, to send it by return mail at one-half the regular price. By posting a letter, enclosing a two-cent stamp, to the Dunlap Pen Company, 280 Washington street, Boston, Mass., you will receive a beautifully engraved ticket worth $3, and also an illustrated price list and circular, telling you how to make $5 per day.

Buy Your Furniture at Mrs. Koehnlein's. Mrs. Koehnlein's furniture establishment on Mason avenue, contains a large stock of very fine furniture. During the past few weeks she has received direct from the factories new goods in her line of every variety, which she is offering at very low prices.

This house is also prepared to execute all orders in the undertaking line at short notice at half regular prices. A good bargain in connection with this branch of the business can always be secured there. People in need of anything in her line can save money by getting her a call. Sargent & Son.

A Present for Every Bride. For twenty-three years "The Household" has been a welcome visitor in hundreds of thousands of American homes, and has been, during these years, the companion and help of the American housewife.

In order that the brides of the country may have the benefit of the visits, the oldest household publication in the country, the publishers offer to send "The Household" to all brides of six months or less, who will, themselves, or their friends, send ten two cent stamps with printed notice of their marriage in the same letter. This is a very tempting offer, and they call it their "wedding present," which they offer to every bride in the United States on the above terms.

"The Household" has just made three striking offers to the three subscribers who shall obtain the three largest lists of new subscribers between March first and August first. These presents are nothing less than a $700 horse and Goddard buggy, a Miller upright piano, in either mahogany, oak, walnut or ebony case, and a Columbia bicycle for either lady or gentleman's use.

The March number of "The Household" contains illustrations and descriptions of these elegant presents, and can be found at the news stands, or will be sent by the publishers, on receipt of ten cents by the Household Company, 50 Bromfield St., Boston.

We will furnish "The Household" to our subscribers. A New Club. In these days of suit, watch and other clubs, the young men of a neighboring city have formed a club to assist each other at the time of marriage. Some might call it a "progressive euchre club," or a "match club," and it is safe to say that some of them will do more clubbing afterwards than they do before.

Fifty marriageable young men go in, and the first fellow who gets married, receives from each of the other forty-nine $6, or a total of nearly $500; nearly enough to give him quite a start. He can be released from future assessments by securing a new member to take his place who will be accepted by the society in his stead, and so on through the rounds.

MEMORIAL CARDS. Form for the memory of the departed, and for the living. For Alton, East or Madison. We will send you a card, with appropriate inscription, for $1.00. Special price on quantities. Please mention this paper. Address: J. P. McWilliams, Dwight, Livingston Co., Ill. 307 BOND STREET. Postpaid. All bright. Fresh, always the best collection of songs ever published in place of who will be accepted by the society in his stead, and so on through the rounds.
