The finest monument of original design ever built in Livingston county is now on display at the Dwight Marble and Granite Works on East Mazon Avenue, Dwight. It was ordered by Mrs Mary Banks, near Essex.

The Fairbury Blade came out last week with a flaming head on account of the Republican victory in that town for supervisor. It also stated that George Franzen "Palmer's man up from Springfield to lend his assistance.

The teachers' institute in Pontiac last Friday and Saturday was well attended, there being over 200 teachers present, and about 100 who wish to become teachers. It is said by those present to have been a very interesting meeting.

We publish this week the "Treasurer's Report" and the "Road Commissioners' Report" for the township of Round Grove. Myron Tambling is the township treasurer and A. H. Haynes is treasurer of the road commissioners' funds.

Mr. Samuel Lower commenced to tear down the old land mark on Mazon avenue Monday morning preparitory to erecting an elegant residence. The work will be commenced immediately and pushed to a finish as soon as possible.

Mrs. Fenn's millinery parlors present a handsome appearance. Her display of trimmed hats is very fine and attracts much attention. New goods are being received each week. Everyone in need of goods in her line will do well to call on her.

Revs. Lintner, Wagoner and A. Good, of Dwight and vicinity, attended the conference of the Evangelical Association in Chicago last week, and returned Monday, and report a successful meeting. The conference was presided over by Bishop Esher. A missionary collection was taken up, amounting to $2,525. Rev. Lintner was assigned to a charge at Mendota, Ill., and will leave with his family for that place next week. Rev. E. Elfring, of El Paso, will take Mr. Lintner's place here.

The sociable at Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hetzel's last Tuesday night was largely attended and a pleasant evening enjoyed. All the good things in the market were served for supper, and a liberal amount of cash was received for the benefit of the church.

The old eyesores used for coal sheds for the past hundred years—more or less—have finally been razed to the ground. There removal is a great improvement to the town. The freight house will probably follow, and then, of course, we will have a new depot.

An auction advertisement in a Morris paper last week advertised, among other things, "one cutter, one cart, buffalo robe, whip, and good well and cistern." We understand Geo. Flagler and Will Wykes put in a bid for the well and cistern, to be delivered in Dwight.

Alf White's celebrated minstrels will be at the opera house next Wednesday night. Their entertainment is said to be chuck full of fun. All lovers of amusement should see them. Remember the date, Wednesday the 22d. Get your seats at Barr's drug store.

The wife of Representative James A. Smith, of Chatsworth, died Tuesday morning and the funeral took place yesterday. Mrs. Smith leaves a husband, one son and three daughters to mourn her loss. The family have the sympathy of many friends in this part of the county.

During a call at the county clerk's office at Pontiac Monday we found John George, Sr. and Jr. busy at work but ready to extend a welcome to all friends. Deputy Clerk Baker's smiling countenance also looms up with a box of cigars in front of it. It is a pleasant place to call.

Owing to the increased amount of job work in this office, it became necessary to have increased facilities. With this in view we have recently added another job press and several fonts of new type. The STAR AND HERALD is now equipped with three of the best presses made, and an unlimited amount of the finest material.

Rev. F. W. Merrill commenced a series of twenty evening sermons at the M. E. Church last Sunday on the Parables of Christ. The subject of next Sunday evening service is "The Tares, or Good and Evil in the Visible Church." This will undoubtedly be a very interesting series and prove very instructive to those who attend regularly.

Rev. Brose, of the German Evangelical church of Dwight, attended the conference held in Chicago last week, and reported a very profitable meeting. He returned to Dwight the first of the week, where he was assigned by the conference for another year. Rev. Brose has many friends here who are glad to hear of his return to this charge.

The engagement of the Hyer Sisters at the opera house next Tuesday night is an important one in the amusement line. The play they are to put on, "Blackville Twins," is the same one put on by the Hyers at the time of the opening of the opera house. The troupe is an excellent one. Look out for fun. Tickets on sale at Dr. Barr's drug store.

In McLean county the judicial convention balloted 155 times before a choice was made. Lawyer Tipton is the man they will support at Chattsworth next Wednesday. Ford will present Judge Sample for re-election, Kankakee will present Judge Starr's name, and Livingston Geo. W. Patton. Iroquois has no candidate. There is an excellent chance to guess.

Mr. L. J. Trunnell will take complete charge of "The Livingston," and that beautiful hostelry will be open to the public as soon as possible after May 1st. Mr. Trunnell will furnish the house elegantly, and all the appointments will be second to none in this part of the country. His long experience in the hotel business and general adaptability for the same, makes him a most available man for the position. His many friends are pleased to hear that he has secured the lease of this fine hotel.

There was a very large attendance at the Danish church last Sunday, every seat in the house being taken and a great many were obliged to stand. It was confirmation Sunday and a large number of young people were confirmed and admitted to membership in the church. Rev. Simonson preached a fine sermon and conducted the impressive ceremonies. The Danish Lutheran society is in a very prosperous condition and has a large membership. Rev Simonson conducted services in Gardner in the afternoon.

The date opposite your name on the little slip tells you when your paid-up subscription expires. This month makes half a year since the STAR AND HERALD changed hands. We don't ask any one to pay in advance, although a goodly number have done so, but many more have not. To those who have not we wish to say that if they can do so conveniently it would be thankfully received. We have sent the paper six months without pay and will send it six more if you say so, but we would rather split the difference of course. See!

Mr. F. A. Lakin will load his household effects on the cars next Monday and will leave with Mrs. Lakin Wednesday for their new home in Sandwich, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Lakin has been residents of this vicinity for many years, and are highly respected by every one. Their many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new home. Sandwich is in the southern part of DeKalb county and is a very pleasant little city of about 2,000 inhabitants. The STAR AND HERALD will keep Mr. and Mrs. Lakin informed as to the doings of Dwight.

The Dwight Chapter of O. E. S. at their regular meeting last Friday night initiated one new member and received five applications. At a special meeting Saturday night, six candidates were made acquainted with the secrets of the popular order. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Deeming and Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn, of Lockport. Mr. and Mrs. G. Z. Flagler. Miss Deeming, of Siloam Chapter, No. 119, of Chicago, was present to see her father and mother initiated. The latter spoke very highly of the work done by the Dwight people.

The elocutionary entertainment at the opera house Thursday evening was well attended, considering the weather. Miss Thompson was very highly recommended by the eastern papers, and some parts of her performance were good, but generally speaking it was not up to what was expected. The ladies of the Relief Corps are not in the least to blame, as Miss Thompson furnished excellent references which would have been satisfactory to anyone. We think Miss Thompson did all in her power to please the audience, and we understand she is working in a noble cause—that of the support of a crippled brother.

Judicial Convention.

The Republican judicial convention held in Pontiac Monday, was well attended, especially for this time of year, there being only four delegates absent. Hon. John Virgin, of Fairbury, was chosen chairman, and Messrs. Clark, Du Bois, Dustin, Mathis, Stuck, Stickney and Breen, secretaries. While the committee on credentials was out, speeches were made by Representatives Myer and Straight, and Gen. McCartney, of Kansas. After the report of committee, Geo. W. Patton was unanimously nominated as the choice of the Livingston county Republicans for one of the circuit judges of the Eleventh judicial circuit, and the delegates instructed to cast the full vote for him at the district convention to be held in Chatsworth next Wednesday. Mr. Patton was called for a speech and responded in a happy manner, and said, should he have the good fortune to receive the nomination and be elected, he would endeavor to perform his duties on the bench in such a manner as to merit the respect and confidence of all, regardless of party or creed. The delegates and alternates elected to attend the convention at Chatsworth are as follows;

DELEGATES—C. F. H. Carruthers, Fairbury; O. F. Avery, Pontiac; O. W. Pollard, Dwight; J. A. Hunter, Odell; H. M. Bangs, Chatsworth; F. R. Stewart, Forrest; J. B. Day, Cornell; J. T. Phillips, Pike; A. C Ball, Pontiac; Ira Lish, Saunemin.

ALTERNATES—O. H. Haag, Sullivan; Archer Ross, Saunemin; J. M. Breen, Flanagan; Fred Duckett, Forrest; G. W. Reed, Strawn; Myron Tambling, Round Grove; S. T. Wilson, Chatsworth; D. H. Tuttle, Rooks Creek; B. E. Robinson, Indian Grove.

Blacksmithing Outfit For Sale.

Mr. Samuel Lower offers for sale his complete blacksmithing outfit. He has everything required for all kinds of work and will sell cheap. This is an excellent chance for some blacksmith wishing to start in business. Mr. Lower's health has not been good for the past year and he is unable to do justice to the heavy work connected with the shop and has decided to sell his complete outfit. Enquire of Mr. Lower for farther particulars.

Come and See! Come and See!

I shall have a considerable amount of nursery stock left after filling all my orders, which I will sell cheap, for cash. The goods are all first-class and can be seen at the Dwight Feed Mill. Come and see the goods and make your selections. You may never have such a chance to select trees again at such prices. Come all and come early. GEO. HART.
