Campus.
Chas. Slezar, of Cabery, was in Campus this week.
A great many of the farmers are plowing for corn.
The base ball boys played their first game this spring, Sunday.
Jim Wright and family, of Fairbury, moved to Campus this week for his future home.
During the storm Tuesday about 1 o'clock, while Robt. Wood and Nelson Peterson were putting hay in Foltz's barn, a flash of lightning killed Mr. Wood instantly, stunning Nelson so that he remained insensible until evening. It also killed a pony. The funeral took place Thursday at 10 o'clock. Mr. Wood leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. He has worked for Foltz & Son for seven years and his place will be hard to fill.
Mrs. Ricker is still sick with la grippe.
Mr. Haines, of Bloomington, is visiting friends in Campus.
Nearly everybody was out to church Sunday as it was a beautiful day.
Mr. S. Hettelson and Harry Harris, of Cabery, spent Sunday in Campus.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Earl, of Gibson City, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here.
Lost, stolen or strayed—one mustache. Any person finding the same please return to Charley Pleson.
Considerable excitement prevailed at the school election Saturday, Mr. Sheldon being again elected for three years.
ROUND GROVE.
Most of the farmers are done with their oats, and some are plowing for corn.
Maggie Potter, of Joliet, visited with friends in Round Grove this week.
Mary Fox has been quite sick the past few days, but is improving quite rapidly at this writing.
Uncle Cyrus Thomas was quite sick a few days last week, but is able to attend to business again. He expects to go to Joliet in the near future on an extended visit.
About forty friends and neighbors gathered at the home of E. T. Potter Wednesday evening and gave them a grand surprise, it being the fifth anniversary of their wedding. It was a total surprise in every respect, and the good things they brought to eat were appreciated by all. They took complete possession and had a good time in general. The affair was managed by Miss Allie Bennett and Miss Jennie Pfefferman, and they certainly made a decided success of it.
NEVADA.
Mrs. Doran and family are at home again.
James Langon is in the hospital at Chicago.
Farmers indulge in a great deal of profanity.
Jimmie Langon is daddy to another bouncing boy, born Saturday night.
Mrs. Campbell was out to Mrs. Sam Sternes, four days last week. The creek raised and she could not get home.
Mrs. Grant Short and her sons Leslie and Willie, are visiting at Mr. Geo. Short, south of Dwight. Grant being absent most of the time, it is more pleasant for her to visit.
The temperance people of Odell deserve great praise and credit, for the diplomatic manner in which they marshalled their forces last Tuesday. It is a grand thing for that place or any other. Grit is the thing.
GOODFARM.
Pat Leach's little child is improving.
Henry Barnhart was in Odell last Saturday.
Geo. Robinson has purchased a new feed grinder.
Henry Burk has moved on the old McQuirk farm, which he bought some time ago.
The commissioners of this town held their meeting last Tuesday at the town house.
Paul Kime has put up an addition to his house, which adds to its looks as well as to its convenience.
ODELL.
John Riley is still very low.
Nels Anderson was home Tuesday to vote.
John Donohoe went to Chicago Wednesday.
The tennis court is in great demand between snows.
