Here, There and Everywhere.

Billy Dean, who will be remembered as one of the gentlemanly C. & A. conductors, is in the city today shaking hands and bidding goodbye to his many friends. Billy has been a hard working man for a number of years and has accumulated some money which he has invested in farming lands in Iowa and is now going to his property and will hereafter pose as a model farmer. In losing Mr. Dean the C. & A. loses one of their best men and one that has been a credit to the road. The Monitor wishes you all the good luck, in your new venture, that you can possibly have, Billy.—Streator Monitor.

One of the handsomest little towns in Illinois is the town of Sandwich, and the people there seem to be determined to make the town as beautiful morally as it is naturally and artistically. At the recent election the man who was elected mayor is the superintendent of a Sunday school, and two of the three aldermen elected are active church members. All day, while the election was going on, the ladies of the town held a prayer-meeting, changing the leader every hour, and hourly the tolling church bell reminded the voters that the meeting was being held.

A Streator man who has a number of unmarried daughters recently sent a sofa for repairs and the official count of articles found between the back and cushion was as follows: Forty seven hair pins, three mustache combs, nineteen suspender buttons, thirteen needles, eight cigarets, four photographs, 217 pins, some grains of coffee, a few cloves, twenty seven cuff buttons, six pocket knives, fifteen poker chips, a vial of homeopathic medicine, thirty four lumps of chewing gum, fifty nine tooth picks, twenty eight matches and four button hooks.

Last week there were a couple of sharpers doing the city as agents for the Chicago Enlargement & Portrait Co. They canvassed the city in great shape for two or three days getting photographs and collecting from 25 cents to 75 cents from each person. About 150 pictures were gathered in and they thought it time to "fly" and so they skipped out.—Streator Monitor.

At a recent meeting of the State board of charities a plan for redistricting the state was approved. The apportionment was for 4700 insane. A county is entitled to have in the insane hospital of which it belongs, one patient out of every 814 of its population, according to the 11th census.

The Illinois Watch Tower, a prohibition paper, has just been started at Bloomington. It is published semi-monthly and is the state organ of the W. C. T. U. It is in competent hands, Mrs. A. E. Sanford being the editor.

Mrs. Geo. Essington, who has been visiting with her grandson, Fred Stafford, for some time past returned to her home in Dwight today.—Streator Monitor.

It cost $36.84 to keep each one of the Soldier's Orphan's Home at Normal from January 1 to March 21. This is the lowest of all state institutions.

The prize fight between Billy Myer and Andy Bowen takes place the 19th of this month at New Orleans. Billy will probably leave about the 14th.—Streator Free Press.

THE MAMMOTH ENCYCLOPEDIA, IN FOUR VOLUMES.
A Great and Wonderful Work,
CONTAINING
2,176 Pages
AND
620 Beautiful Illustrations!
THE MAMMOTH ENCYCLOPEDIA has been published to meet the wants of the masses for a universal compendium of knowledge, practical, useful, scientific and general. The work is published complete in four large and handsome volumes, comprising a total of 2,176 pages, and is probably the most complete, valuable and useful work for the masses ever published. It is a work for every one, and its complete and helpful suggestions, that we fully believe it will be regarded as one of the best investments of the year. For want of space we cannot list the contents of this great work, but we will mention a few of the most interesting and valuable features:
HISTORY. The Mammoth Encyclopedia contains a complete and authentic history of the great American Civil War, from its commencement to its final close, with a complete history of America, from its discovery by Columbus to the present time, giving descriptions of famous battles and important events in the history of all nations, chronologically arranged.
BIOGRAPHY. This great work contains the lives of all the Presidents of the United States, from Washington to Grant, with portraits and other illustrations, also lives and portraits of Napoleon Bonaparte, Shakespeare, Byron, William Pitt, Franklin, Frazer, Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, and famous statesmen, authors, poets, generals, clergymen, etc., down to the present day.
AGRICULTURE. Valuable tables and useful suggestions to Farmers, treating of fruit crops, grains and forest, fertilizers, farm implements, livestock raising, including the treatment of diseases of domestic animals, poultry keeping, and how made successful and profitable, beekeeping, dairy farming, etc. The treatment of these subjects is complete and exhaustive, and makes the work of great practical value to farmers and stockmen.
HORTICULTURE. Herein is given the most useful hints to growers of all kinds of vegetables and fruits, as gathered from the experience of the most successful horticulturists.
ARCHITECTURE. Designs and plans for houses, cottages, barns and other outbuildings, with valuable suggestions to those intending to build.
HOUSEHOLD. This work contains full and tested recipes for almost every imaginable dish for breakfast, dinner and tea, this department alone being worth more than nine tenths of the book, and is a most valuable and useful work, and a complete manual for the household.
INVENTION AND DISCOVERY. Remarkable interesting descriptions of great inventions, including the Steam Engine, the Telegraph, the Printing Press, the Electric Light, the Sewing Machine, the Telephone, the Typewriter, the Type Setting Machine, the Cotton Gin, etc.
THE WORLD'S WONDERS. Graphic descriptions, beautifully illustrated, of the Yellowstone Park, Yosemite Valley, Niagara Falls, the Alps, Paris, Venice, Venice, Vienna, the Caesars of Rome, Mammoth Cave, Natural Bridges, Watkins Glen, the White Mountain, etc., etc.
TRAVELS. Descriptions, profusely illustrated, of the life, manners, customs, peculiar forms, and all circumstances of the valuable work of summary of its contents some idea of what a remarkably interesting, instructive and valuable work the MAMMOTH ENCYCLOPEDIA is may be gained, yet but a fractional part of the topics treated in this great work have been named. It is a work of unusual and interesting interest in any land or language. No home should be without it. It is a work to be consulted every day with regard to the various perplexing questions that constantly arise in writing and conversation, by the farmer and homeseeker in their daily duties as farmers, and for continuous reading no work is more entertaining or instructive.

THE ABOVE AND THE STAR AND HERALD ONE YEAR FOR $1.75

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER! A SET OF THE WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

In Twelve Large Volumes, Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made a special arrangement for the purpose of giving to our subscribers a set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers ceases any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest, and most popular of ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No homes should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, uncut, and absolutely unaltered:
DAVID COPPERFIELD, MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT, NICHOLAS NICKLEBY, DOMBEY AND SON, BLEAK HOUSE, LITTLE DORRIT, OUR MUTUAL FRIEND, PICKWICK PAPERS, BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES, OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS, THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER, A TALE OF TWO CITIES, THE PICKWICK TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the next highest cost of the books preventing people in many circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

CHICKAMAUGA CHIEF.

Bay stallion; foaled April 18, 1886, owned by A. H. HAYNES. By AMBER 768.—(Son of Belmont 33, and 35 in 2,30 list.) 1st dam Polly—(dam of Danzig), by Chickamauga 4776—(sire of Luella, 2:21; Danube, 2:21; Charlie B., 2:29; and Bell Chick, 2:40); 2d dam, Patricia, by Amber 768.—By Belmont 33, sire of Westmont, 2:13; Piedmont, 2:17, and 39 sons and 19 daughters are producers of 2:30 trotters. 1st dam Patti, by Mambrino Chief 11.—(Sire Lady Thorne, 2:18; Woodford Mambrino, 2:24, and 23 sons and 16 daughters producers.) 2d dam, by Parks Hildner, 3d dam, by Grey Eagle, (Grand sire dam of Grafton, 2:22), and Edgewater, sire of Harry W., 2:27; and dam of Edgemark, 4 years, 2:16). 4th dam, by Bertrand, CHICKAMAUGA 4776, by Vermont Boy son of Green Mountain Morgan, by Gifford Morgan, (sire of Luella, 2:21; Danube, 2:21; Charley B., 2:29, and Bell Chick, 2:40). 1st dam untraced.

Note.—Chickamauga Chief was sired by one of the best individual sons of the great producer Belmont 33, and Chickamauga, the sire of his dam, got but forty-eight colts and two of these have records better than 2:22, one of 2:20, and one of 2:40, a percentage of speed shown by few of the best trotting sires. Here is a promising young horse certain to sire roadsters, and being from prolific speed sources he ought also to sire trotters. His breeding comprises Hambletonian, Mambrino Chief, Pilot, Jr., and Morgan, lines that have produced our most enduring roadsters and fastest trotters. Chickamauga Chief has never been developed for speed, but is open gaited, rapid and promising, and will be trained after the season.

TERMS—Fifteen Dollars to insure with foal, payable when mare is known to be with foal. Persons parting with mares before they are known to be with foal, or failing to return them regularly, will forfeit the amount of the insurance. While all possible care will be taken to prevent accidents I will not be responsible should any occur.

Horse will be found at barn of his owner during the season. Mares from a distance will be kept at reasonable rates.

A. H. HAYNES, Dwight, Ill.
