In the Senate, on the 25th, the following bills were passed: The three-roll tax bill; the House bill providing that tender may be made of unliquidated damages in cases of breach of contract, and that after such tender plaintiff shall pay costs; the bill changing the manner of giving of notices by mutual insurance companies and allowing them to hold their own property on same securities; other companies are provided that Mr. Anderson's bill is allowing that the question of licensing the sale of liquor in cities of less than 10,000 shall be submitted to a direct vote of the people; Mr. Reavell's bill providing for a repeal of the law requiring the payment of a fee by the applicant; Senator Fernal's anti-trust bill; Mr. Chapman's bill, giving married women the right to prosecute for separate maintenance; the bill providing in which both parties formerly lived, as well as in the county in which the husband resides at the time of bringing suit; In the House, on the 25th, the following bills were passed: The three-roll tax bill; the bill authorizing the Chicago West Park to issue $1,000,000 bonds for park improvements was passed. As amended by the House, the bill provides that out of the $1,000,000 shall be expended on streets recently turned over to the Park Board for repair. The bill provides that $100,000 shall be expended on the same.

Our Flag Victorious in the Old World. The only town in the Old World ever captured by the United States is the town of Derne, in Tripoli, on the north coast of Africa. The inhabitants were chiefly Moslems, Turks and Arabs, and the Mohammedan religion. Reports of the Barbary States—Algiers, Morocco, Tunis and Tripoli—were infested with pirates, who darted out upon vessels which sailed up and down the Mediterranean Sea, and, after plundering them, either murdered the crew or sold them into slavery. These pirates became the terror of Europe; and some mercantile countries had to pay a yearly tribute, in order to secure safety for their vessels.

England was the only nation feared by these pirates; and, so long as American vessels sailed under the English flag they were reasonably secure; but when the United States became a separate nation, the pirates demanded tribute. For a time the Government paid the tribute, as the easiest way to secure her commerce; but in 1801 the Dey of Tripoli grew so bold as to declare war against the United States, being dissatisfied with the payment of the tributes.

For four years a series of fights took place, until, in 1804, the American navy having been increased in the Mediterranean Sea, a vigorous attack was made upon the pirates. General Eaton succeeded in taking Derne, one of their ports, and raised the American flag over it. This was the first and last time our flag was unfurled in victory over a foreign town. A treaty of peace was made, prisoners were exchanged, and piracy for a time came to an end.

Atchison Globules. NO WOMAN hates the men, but they all ought to. CHERISH a virtue, and some vice remains uncultivated. ANY MAN can acquire a habit, but few men can relinquish one. It takes a fool to talk learnedly of things he knows nothing about. THE tongue is the instrument with which conversations are opened. THERE are two sides to every story, and some of them have four and a colic. He who depreciates the worth of others is sure to exaggerate his own virtues. IT takes two to gossip. The man who listens can throw no blame on the man who tells. SO MANY who find fault with a woman for humoring a sick child, humor their own sick fancies. THE trouble in lending our ears is that the borrower takes our berries with them before returning them. WE should close our eyes to every temptation that comes before us, we would be asleep all the time.

AFFAIRS IN ILLINOIS.

ITEMS GATHERED FROM VARIOUS SOURCES. What Our Neighbors Are Doing—Matters of General and Local Interest—Marriages and Deaths—Accidents and Crimes—Personal Portraits. L. L. TARBELL, of Boston, Mass., writes: "I think David Blalock, of Decatur, Ill., would make a good claim agent. I wonder if he was in the Standard at Banker Hill. He claims to be the only living son of a revolutionary soldier." Bless his dear soul, we have twenty-one 'own sons' as members of the Massachusetts Society, A. R., and there are two more in the Standard are likely to join us. My father was three years in the service, culminating at the age of 17. He drew a plan of the cantonment at New Windsor, N. Y., which is regarded as authority in the military world. I have the original and a copy is preserved in Washington headquarters at Newburg, N. Y.

JUDGE GRESHAM pronounces the Chicago Government building not only unhealthful but a positive menace to life and limb. A HORSE bill proposes to take it for granted that any one who has an increased ground in which he has been violating the game law—a conclusion which amateur sportsmen will take as a piece of delicate flattery. Gov. FIFER has pardoned from the State Penitentiary at Joliet, John Bradshaw, who was convicted in May in Rock Island County of the crime of larceny and sentenced to imprisonment for one year. Bradshaw was led by older boys into taking a keg of beer from a saloon. At the time of his conviction he was not a professional criminal.

At Galesburg Dr. John T. Binkley of Tacoma, Wash., and Miss Alice Ledding were married. Gov. McCORMY'S announced intention of cleaning out the "dives" where disreputable characters congregated in public is commendable. These places would be plague-spots in a frontier town, and have long been a disgrace to Chicago.

THE Logan farm at Murphysboro, consisting of 300 acres, has been sold by Mrs. John A. Logan for $25,000 to J. C. Clark and T. M. Logan. LET us all be duly thankful that Illinois clergyman who was recently arrested for making counterfeit coin and who says that his salary was so small that he had to do something to pay his expenses—let us be duly thankful that here is a clergyman who will not be tried for honest right away.—Detroit Free Press. A PARTY of Italian pleasure riders at the Auditorium, Chicago, M. Modena is the only one who can even speak a few words of English, and he couldn't write a book in our language. He was introduced to Mr. Breslin, one of the hotel proprietors, and they fell into conversation. "By the way," said Mr. Breslin, "don't you know Marquis Pullman?" "He not extraordinary prominent," Mr. Breslin said. "You are mistaken. One of America's greatest men is the Marquis." "Oh! He lives here?" "He is the inventor of Pullman's Palace cars and your Government gave him his title in appreciation of his work. You must remember the name Pullman—P-u-l-l-m-a-n—you spell it like that. When you came from New York you rode in his cars." "He own a fine car that ride all over the world," said Mr. Breslin. "Good man, I like him. When I depart from his car I give him $1. Too bad he's black." Mr. Breslin gave one look at his guests, then unceremoniously dashed into the natatorium, where he drowned his sorrows.

A group deal has been said of late about the fact that Chicago has no hospital accommodations for any contagious disease, small-pox alone expected. It seems to be almost impossible to make this condition of things realized. An incident occurred lately which forcibly illustrates the fact. A Pullman Palace car was in this city of affairs. The facts in this particular case were that a young man working at the World's Fair grounds was taken with the measles. At first he was taken to the County Hospital, but the nature of his disease being known he was denied entrance. The next day he was taken to the Harrison Street Police Station, as if he were a criminal who had done something penal. Of course that was no place for him, and as a last resort he was dumped down in one of the cheap lodging houses on Clark street, where anybody can gain admittance for a pittance, and no questions asked.

FORT SHERIDAN will be designated as the place for this year's army competition in rifle firing in a general order prescribing the times and places of all the competitions, shortly to be issued from the War Department. It will be the scene of all future army competitions. Its range was fitted up at considerable expense with this end in view, and is, without doubt, the best public or private range in the country. The two teams that will assemble there will consist of the best marksmen in rifle or carbine competition which takes place earlier in the season in each of the departments. They will consist of ten members each.

THE trustees of the Chicago University find themselves in a straitened financial condition, through they have $1,600,000 in cash on hand. One million five hundred thousand dollars of this amount, they say, is to be used in endowments for the various chairs and professorships, and only $100,000 is left for the erection of the college buildings—a sum which is entirely inadequate for the work. The natural solution of this financial difficulty would be to devote less money to the professorships and chairs and use a larger amount in the construction of the buildings, but Mr. Rockefeller's generosity appears to be almost as inexhaustible as Standard Oil, and he will probably come up with another subscription.

ATTORNEY GENERAL HUNT has accepted an invitation to deliver the Fourth of July address at Freeport. The citizens of the West Division, Chicago, are getting impatient over the slow progress of the bill to authorize the Park Board to issue $1,000,000 in bonds to finish up the parks and boulevards in time for 1893. The residents of that great division of the city wish to make their pleasure resorts and drives as attractive to visitors as those of the North and South Divisions, and do not however take any interest in the cost them to do it. The members of the Legislature from that section should bestir themselves and see to it that a measure which their constituents have so much at heart is not lost in the rush

SEIZED BY BRIGANDS.

TURKISH HIGHWAYMEN DERAIL A TRAIN. Several Well-Known Tourists Carried Off—Their Retreat in the Mountains the Handle Sent Out a Demand for $40,000 Ransom—The German Ambassador Will Advance the Money and the Porte Will Repay It. A party of brigands near Tchereski plighted a train crossing the railroad track and succeeded in derailing the Eastern express, says a telegram from Constantinople. When they had thus brought the train to a standstill they found that there were several German and English tourists among the passengers. One of them was a banker of Berlin. The brigands have demanded $40,000 as ransom for the captives, and Chancellor von Caprivi has telegraphed to Herr von Radowitz, the German Ambassador, asking him to advance this amount. The remaining passengers were despoiled of their belongings and were then left alone. The place where the act of brigandage occurred lies between this city and Adrianople. The band which made the attack in the train numbered thirty men, led by the noted robber Anastasius. The brigands first seized the watchman on duty at the railroad station, and when they had prevented him from giving an alarm they set to work and tore up the rails for some distance. They set no warning signal for the engineer of the train, but allowed the cars to dash on to possible destruction. When the Eastern express reached the spot the engine tumbled over on its side, dragging with it the tender, a baggage car, and all the third-class passenger coaches. The first-class passenger cars luckily did not follow the rest of the train, but remained safely on the road. When the train was thus disabled the brigands rushed forward, uttering loud yells, and brandishing their guns in a most threatening manner and boarded the cars. Several of the passengers resisted the attack, but the brigands replied with a volley from their guns and dangerously wounded one of the men who sought to repulse them. The outlaws finally overcame the occupants of the cars and proceeded to plunder them, stripping the travelers of all their valuables and looting their baggage. When the brigands ended their work of robbery they seized four of the passengers in the first-class cars and also the engineer of the train, and then started with their captives for their rendezvous in the mountains. The men carried away by the outlaws were: Oscar Greger, Herr Israel, a banker of Berlin; Herr Maugel, a landowner of Sigoldsdorf, Bavaria; Oscar Katsch, an engineer of Saxony, and Frounder, the engineer of the eastern express. Upon reaching their retreat the bandits sent Herr Israel to get the ransom of $40,000 which they demanded for the release of the prisoners. Herr von Radowitz says the Porte will refund this money.

UNCLE SAM'S DEBTS. A Net Increase of $632,915 Shown by the Statement for May. The following is a recapitulation of the latest public-debt statement as issued by the Treasury Department:

Table with columns for debt types and amounts. Includes categories like Interest-bearing debt, Aggregate of interest-bearing debt, Aggregate of debt bearing no interest, Aggregate of certificates of deposit, and Total cash reserved for other purposes.

It is said That MONEY talks, but it often goes without saying. FIGURES can't lie, but liars can figure, all the same. IGNORANCE of the law excuses no one, except the lawyer. WHEN you laugh at your own jokes no one else laughs with you. SOME men are too light for heavy work and too heavy for light work. THE honest man pays up, and the other fellow has to go to law. THE stubborn man is the man who will not listen to your reason or follow your advice. THE person who is most contented with his or her lot occupies one in the cemetery. THERE kindness consists in letting a man bore you when you are nearly dying to bore him. ALTHOUGH a man may admit that he is a fool, you will not think of you make the same diagnosis. THE reason so many things go wrong in this world is because the men won't take woman's advice. WHEN you hear a man saying that all men are alike, he is trying to apologize for something he is ashamed of.

Two Kinds of Wives.

Look at the methodical walk of the married mass of clerks and others in a position more or less dependent. They are slaves to the clock, and to the routine to which their daily hours are devoted. Do they not walk oddly alike? And when they meet, for they are alike—at least in so far as they are integrals to help forward the routine business work of the world. Their very steps seem to say: "I am one of those who have to be here at such a time, I must not delay. I must be on my work." It is the same with soldiers. They, too, are like so many spokes in a great wheel. In sweet contrast there is the self-made man. He has been a clerk like others in his younger days. If so there is a touch of it still in his gait. But there is much more. It has developed into a strut of the first water. He holds his head high so that all may look at him, and if they will follow an example, he will make himself upon him. "Behold me!" he seems to say: "I am what I have made myself! Did you ever see anything so remarkable?"—All the Year Round.

Wool Wool! Unutterable Wo. Why endure it daily, night, we had well sigh hourly. They do who are tortured by chronic rheumatism. The remedy, betwixt, pure sawdust ground in at hand. Were the evidence in behalf of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters would be found to team with well authenticated proofs that the medicine is both a preventive and a remedy in this malady of varying ages and ever present danger. To forestall its chronic stages a diet of frugality. Renounce dangerous medication, try more effective, more certain, more permanent in the beneficent consequences is the use of the Bitters. Experience indorses, the recommendation of physicians sanctions its use. Begin early, use with persistence, and expect relief. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters relieves constipation, biliousness, kidney ailments, dyspepsia and malarial trouble.

A Word. "Sack." A bag—to plunder. It is one of the most ancient of words, and, curiously enough, has taken on no changes that interfere materially with its Egyptian pronunciation. "Sack of the Hebrews" grew out of Egyptian speech and wrote it "sag," and the Ethiopic form is "sakk." Passing into Greek it became "sakis," and in Latin it is "saccus," in Spanish "saco," in Gaelic "sac," and in German "sack." In every language it follows a similar derivation from the Egyptian word appears. The term to sack a city has reference to removing plunder in sacks. Few other words have undergone such little change in so long a time.—Davenport Democrat-Gazette.

How to Make Money. DEAR SIR—Having read Mr. Sarzent's experience in dealing with gold, silver and nickel, I am tempted to write of my success. I sent to H. K. Delno & Co. of Columbus, Ohio, for a $5 parcel. I have had more success and jewelry than I could have ever since. I cleared $27 the first week and in three weeks $97. Any one can do this and make money in any locality the year around. Write me and I will send you the above story. WILLIAM GRAY.

A WASHINGTON, Kan., couple, who were married in two weeks after they were separated just two weeks after they were married.

When a man gets the best of a bargain he considers himself a financier; if he gets the worst of it he calls the other fellow a rascal.

A LEADING actress remarked to a reporter, "The last time I played here I was worn out and jewelry than I could have ever since. I cleared $27 the first week and in three weeks $97. Any one can do this and make money in any locality the year around. Write me and I will send you the above story. WILLIAM GRAY."

A SPIRITUALIST asks: "Did you ever go into a dark room where you could see nothing but a foot that felt that there was something there?" Yes, frequently, and the something unfortunately chanced to be a rocking chair.

"One-to-day is worth ten to-morrow." A splendid rule for house-peters to by, especially if they use SAPOLIO. Postpone anything before cleanliness.

"German Syrup"

Martinsville, N. J., Methodist Parsonage. "My acquaintance with your remedy, Boschee's German Syrup, was made about fourteen years ago, when I contracted a Cold which resulted in a Hoarseness and a Cough which disabled me from filling my pulpit for a number of Sabbaths. After trying a Physician, without obtaining relief—I cannot say now what remedy he prescribed—I saw the advertisement of your remedy and obtained a bottle. I received such quick and permanent help from it that whenever we have had Throat or Bronchial troubles since in our family, Boschee's German Syrup has been our favorite remedy and always with favorable results. I have never hesitated to report my experience of its use to others when I have found them troubled in like manner." REV. W. H. HAGGARTY, of the Newark, New Jersey, M. E. Conference, April 25, '90.
