During the summer weather there is no article that brings more comfort than a nice fan. Almost everything in that line can be found at McWilliams & Smith's dry goods emporium.

McWilliams & Smith placed in position Thursday morning, a very handsome new sign. The letters are raised and gilded, and present a handsome appearance. A. T. Doherty is the artist.

The STAR and HERALD office is getting serenaded pretty regular nowadays. There is one peculiarity about it, however, there is always a show in Kepplinger's hall the same night.

A dispatch was published in the Chicago News Thursday purporting to be from a former patient of the Keeley company. The whole item was a lie, no such man was ever here.

A few young ladies have organized a club the initials of which are W. N. K. They entertained a few young gentlemen friends at the residence of Miss Cora Eldredge Thursday night.

There is a prospect of a street being opened east and west from Franklin street through the Spencer farm. It is likely that D. McWilliams will donate twenty feet, and the 3-1 twenty.

The young ladies employed in the Keeley Company's office, were treated to ice cream, lemonade, and everything good that Miller & Orr's restaurant afforded, Wednesday night, by the company.

Neighborhood papers think that Dwight people would be a lot of "chumps" if they let the Keeley institute go away on account of the town not making improvements. That's what everybody thinks.

A nice light straw hat often prevents sun stroke. McWilliams & Smith have the latest styles and grades in the market.

Mr. E. H. Dame, the laundryman of Chicago, was in town several days this week on business.

The bill to change the reform school at Pontiac into a reformatory passed the state legislature yesterday and will become a law. This will be quite a boom for our county seat. Even the great Vermillion will rise up in it's wrath and run.

The elements played havoc around the residence of Mrs. Dunlop, in the south part of town Monday. Lightning struck a large cottonwood tree in the back yard and completely riddled it, large pieces and limbs being thrown for some distance.

Should the new legislative appointment bill now before the committee in Springfield pass, Livingston county will be in a district with Grundy and Ford counties. According to previous elections, the district would be strongly republican.

Richard Judge, three miles southwest of town had two horses struck by lightning Wednesday night. Dr. Yates informs us that they were both struck in their hind legs, the bones of which were completely pulverized, and the animals had to be shot.

Barr & Gould, the enterprising laundry men, have purchased the large engine and boiler of Chas. Waters, and will dispose of the one now in use on account of it being too small. The firm is doing a big business, and will add some more new machinery shortly.

"It does beat all!" we overheard a man say "that men will go around sweating in the heat, and swearing about the weather, when all they have to do is to call at McWilliams & Smith's store and procure one of those comfortable summer coats and vests, and be as cool as a cucumber." Try it.

Last Friday night, J. W. Cool, assisted by Misses Lizzie Simms, Susie Snyder and Battle Hill, all of Pontiac, gave an elocutionary and musical entertainment in Kepplinger's hall. It was quite well attended and quite a pleasant evening was spent. They visited several towns around this county.

The proposed congressional redistricting puts Livingston county in the tenth, instead of the ninth district. Should the bill pass the new district will be composed of the following counties: Livingston, Grundy, Kendall, LaSalle and Ford. It is said by old politicians to be good fighting ground for both parties.

Mr. M. Bell, who for the past three years has been employed at Miller Bros., store, left yesterday for his old home in Petersburg, Ill., where he has accepted a lucrative position in a large dry goods store. Mr. and Mrs. Bell have made many friends during their stay in this community, who wish them success.

Certain parties have circulated a malicious falsehood to the effect that Mr. S. Edenheim, the well-known Chicago piano tuner, would not visit this locality any more. Mr. Edenheim is here now and will remain next week, and informs us that he will make regular visits hereafter. He can be found at the McPherson House.

The judicial election here passed off very quietly, only 100 votes being cast, and those all straight for the republican candidates—Thos. F. Tipton, Alfred Sample and Chas. R. Starr. These gentlemen are elected judges, the condition of things being about the same all over the district—practically no opposition.

Last Saturday as the procession was on its way to the cemeteries and near the Alton road south of town, a train came along and frightened several teams. Mr. Cook's horse became unmanageable and kicked the dashboard of a new carriage and broke the thills to splinters. The occupants of the vehicle were quite badly frightened, but not injured.

A gentleman met Manning Smith on the street the other morning and inquired for the state of his health, remarking that he had only one week longer. The stranger thought Manning was a new man, and extended his sympathy and told him he would be all right in a few days. Manning says he never drinks anything, but he believes he will swear off anyway.

The following dispatch appeared in the Chicago News yesterday: "Dr. Owen P. Hanson, of Lexington, and Miss Edith Kneeland, of Dwight, were married last evening at Lexington." The bride is a daughter of E. H. Kneeland and a young lady of many virtues, and has been teaching in Lexington for some time. Her many friends here with the young couple much joy and prosperity.

Mr. J. L. Capen, formerly of the Atlantic hotel of Chicago, has been employed as chief clerk at Hotel Livingston. He is a gentleman of long experience in the business, affable and pleasant, and has the qualifications desirable for such a position. Mr. Stanton's long experience in the business, aids him in selecting the best assistants, and the patrons of the house are sure of courteous treatment and pleasant accommodations.

The city council should call a meeting immediately and do something about improvements. The people are in favor of waterworks, macadamizing, drainage, and an election should be called soon.

It would be a good plan to get Mr. Morgan of the Morgan Waterworks company, of Chicago, to come here and look over the ground and make known the amount of money necessary to be raised and then call an election immediately. There should be no delay.

The following is clipped from yesterday's Chicago News: "Looking for a cure for drunkenness.—The Woman's Christian Temperance union held its regular monthly meeting at 161 LaSalle street yesterday. The executive committee has become interested in the work of Dr. Keeley, of Dwight, Ill. They had appointed a committee to investigate Dr. Keeley's method of curing drunkenness, and gave the committee authority to visit the doctor's sanitarium at Dwight."

Williams' bus, containing thirteen Sons of Veterans, turned over just as they were leaving McDowell cemetery decoration day. One of the rear wheels seemed to be rotten and gave away very easily. Myron Tambling and Lou Pefferman were on the drivers seat and their quick action in getting to the horses' heads prevented what might have been a serious accident. No one was badly injured. The Sons marched to Commander Buffham's house, where they were provided with another conveyance.

Miss Kate Steichen, of Dwight, and Mr. N. L. Mamer, of Emington, were married at the residence of the bride's parents Wednesday. The ceremony was witnessed by quite a number of relatives and immediate friends, and was a very enjoyable occasion. The young lady is well known as a pleasant and sensible young lady. The groom is in the hardware business at Emington, and is an honorable and popular business man. The happy young couple will reside in Emington, and the STAR and HERALD join their many friends in wishing them success and happiness.

Mr. Baker, of Streator, has accepted a position with Miller Bros. as clerk, commencing his duties yesterday. Mr. Baker has been employed in the C. W. & V. Coal Co's store, and comes to Dwight highly recommended. For the information of the young ladies we will state that he is a young man and unmarried.

The citizen's committee met General Manager T. P. Shouts, of the Indiana, Illinois & Iowa railroad, at the depot Wednesday, in regard to furnishing stone for macadamizing purposes. The 3-1 will haul the stone for paving Franklin street to the intersection of Mazon avenue, free of charge, and will furnish the balance for the business square very reasonable. It is estimated by Alderman Taylor that the loading of the cars will cost about $3 each, and that the total cost to do an excellent job on Franklin street and around the business portion of the town will be from $4,500 to $5,000, which is certainly a very reasonable figure. The sooner the council get at themselves and do something in regard to the matter the better. This is no time to dally. There is too much at stake.

The New York World of last Sunday contained a three column illustrated article written by John F. Mines, setting forth the virtues of the bi-chloride of gold cure as received by himself and others. It is a glowing and just tribute to our grand institution. One illustration represents "the noon shot," and the profiles of Drs. Leslie E. and Milton Keeley and Burdick are very good. Another one represents Dr. Keeley in his office in the act of dictating to a typewriter, Miss Sadie Clarkson. The latter picture is not so good. A very fine editorial was published in the New York Sunday Mercury of the same date and appeared in three issues of that paper. Also a long article in the New York Sun. The Chicago Tribune publishes articles nearly every day regarding the wonderful cures being made here. Our readers should bear in mind that these articles are published, as the manager of the Mercury tersely says in a private letter to Dr. Keeley, for humanity's sake. The New York papers mentioned have circulations ranging from 100,000 to 500,000, and no institution on earth ever before received such notices without pay, and we don't believe ever will. Our people can form some slight idea from the above of the magnitude the Keeley institute will assume in the future, and which they came very near losing, and may yet, if they don't "get a move on" themselves, as the base ballist says, and keep it on to the finish.

Dwight vs. Lake View. Two games of base ball were played here last Saturday between the above named clubs. The Lake View is one of the best amateur clubs in the world's fair city, and as one of them expressed it, "came out in the country to get a little practice." Most of the practice they got was chasing the ball up near the 3-1. The forenoon game resulted in a score of 11 to 8 in favor of Dwight.

Ame Orr was suffering with a sore neck and after trying to pitch for a little while found that he was in too much pain, and Thompson took his place. Thompson is an excellent pitcher and under proper discipline, would be in the front rank. The Dwight boys all played their positions well and won an easy victory.

In the afternoon the Lake Views and their umpire got a little the advantage of our boys, and when they began to catch up with them, jumped the game, and refused to play any more, and the game was given to the Blackstockings by a score of 9 to 0. The Chicago umpire had more nerve than the man who refused to give anything for a 4th of July celebration, and allowed the Views to run all over the field when running bases. Frank Smith was the Dwight umpire and was very fair in his decisions. The Views had thirteen runs and our boys three, and three men on bases, and Ed. Reeb went to bat and hit a ball up near Gardner somewhere, and brought in four runs and the Views got sick and quit. Next time they go out for practice they will steer clear of Dwight.

Mass Meeting. A mass meeting of the citizens of Dwight will be held at Kepplinger's hall, Monday night, June 8, 1891, to hear the full report of the citizens committee with reference to the Leslie E. Keeley company. The committee informs the reporter of the STAR and HERALD that the prospects are encouraging, providing the town does what they have practically agreed to do. Every citizen of Dwight should be present and listen to the report in which they have an interest. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock.

Fourth of July. At a meeting held at the town house Thursday night, the following committees were appointed: General Committee—Messrs. Jas. Kelagher, W. G. Dustin, W. H. Taylor, John Thompson, H. L. Hagerty. Merchants Display—Messrs. A. Bovik, Ed. Hahn, John Baker. Fireworks—Dr. Abbott, Doc Hause, John W. Ketcham.

The general committee are prepared to receive bids for stands, privileges, etc. Enquire of Jas. Kelagher.

Forepaugh's Circus. Forepaugh's circus will be in Chicago, from June 15 to 20. On June 17 the Chicago & Alton will sell excursion tickets to Chicago and return for one fare for the round trip, good going on day of sale and good returning until June 18, giving parties an opportunity to attend this large exhibition.
