

Table with subscription rates: One year $1.25, Six months .75, Three months .35.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Celebrate. Oil wagon. Hurrah for the Fourth! Look out for the oil wagon. The new freight house is "in it."

Calumet baking powder only 25 cents per pound, five pounds for one dollar at Baker Bros. Mrs. E.A. Clarkson left Wednesday for Denver, Colorado to visit her daughter Miss Emma.

Those figured wash silks at Miller Bros. attract lots of attention. They are handsome, and they are selling them for 45 cents per yard, former price 65 cents. See them.

store room at the hardware store of Flagler & Potter. It will pay anyone having anything in his line to do to call on him. Dwight has one of the most historical points of interest in the United States.

CONDENSED HISTORY. Noah's Ark is supposed to have rested upon Mount Ararat about 2349 B. C. The most ancient known coins are of the fifth century B. C., and are Macedonian.

J. C. Lewis was about the hottest man in town recently. The shade trees around his handsome residence on Chippewa street were too close together to suit J. C.'s artistic taste, and he hired a man to cut every other one down.

"Oil Wanted." Flagler & Potter have adopted a metropolitan scheme. They will furnish anyone who desires with cards with "Oil Wanted" on them to hang out in front of their residence when in need of oil.

HOTEL LIVINGSTON Tonsorial Parlors. Entrance South end of Hotel Livingston. Finest appointed room in Dwight. Anton Diefenbach, PROPRIETOR.

LEACH & REEB HAVE IN STOCK Ladies', Gents' and Children's Wigwams and Oxfords. Only place in Dwight where you can get them. Lawn Tennis Shoes. Boot and Shoe Repairing. BASE BALL! Saturday, July 4, SUPERIORS, OF CHICAGO, VS. BLACKSTOCKINGS, OF DWIGHT, WILL PLAY TWO GAMES. First Game at 10:30 a. m. second game at 1:30 p. m., The best games of the season may be looked for. Admission, - - - 25 Cents. Ladies' - - - 15 Cents.