

CORRESPONDENCE.

GOODFARM.

Geo. Gantzer visited Clark City Monday. D. B. Stevens sold his farm in the west part of the town to C. E. Fosslering.

ROUND GROVE.

Geo. Thomas, of Joliet, spent Saturday and Sunday here. A number of our young people went to Joliet this week to see Barnum's show.

The House of Harry Kimball caught fire one day this week but fortunately the men at work on Seymour's new house were near at hand and by hard work, succeeded in saving the building.

A club was organized this week to build a race track at Wilson, they expect to have it ready for use in the near future.

James Maguire, one of the most prosperous and highly respected young men of Round Grove, and Miss Kinney, of Broughton, were married last Tuesday.

Miss Grace Kealey commenced her school in Dist. No. 2, last Monday.

The Farmers and The Chicago & Alton Railroad. The Farmers Alliance have officially and public expressed their appreciation of the assistance which the Chicago & Alton gave in forcing all western lines to recognize the Alliance.

Grand Steamboat Excursion to Michigan, Sunday, Sept. 6th. The Chicago & Alton Railroad, in connection with the Graham & Morton Steamship Company, will run, upon Sunday, September 6th, a grand combination rail and boat excursion to Michigan's charming summer resort, the twin cities, St. Joseph and Benton Harbor.
