

Come One, Come All.

Come one, come all, new life obtain, Tho' it be time and time again Ye have fallen from manhood's plane, Ye can have life bearing no shame.

With manly pride, conscious of right, Seek to regain true manhood's height; It can be yours, and with eyes bright, You'll bless the day you came to Dwight.

Think of the home, the dear ones there; Think of the wife, the children so fair; Think of the grief, almost despair; Of those around that vacant chair.

Think of the happy tear to start, The joy you'll bring to each dear heart, When reunited, ne'er to part, They all shall see the man thou art.

Cast away the devil's strong hold; Check his glee, in manner so bold; The treatment "Bi-Chloride of Gold" Is sure to cure, both young and old.

Off times doth drink end with the rope, Then for the future, there is no hope, Cleansed, thou canst be—not with soap—

'Tis with the "shot," combined with "dope."

Beautiful Present.

The following speeches and letter delivered and read before the Club Thursday morning explain themselves. Dr. Weld made the following presentation speech and president St. Clair responded for the Club.

Upon me to-day falls one of the most pleasant as well as one of the hardest duties of my life. One of the most pleasant because I have been selected to present to the brothers here assembled a banner (fitting emblem) made by the wife of one of our brothers now in his happy home. I refer to Mr. Burris, of Liberty, Mo., whom you will remember with love and esteem. One of the hardest because I know I cannot do the subject justice. I can not describe to you my feelings and emotions, as I hold in my hand this beautiful emblem. My fingers are now encircling what they have never grasped before; the expression of a loving wife's gratitude and love. I imagine I see a grateful and loving wife sitting day by day, weaving with tear dimmed eyes and trembling fingers, the beautiful letters that adorn its fair surface. I imagine I see a noble boy trying to clamber upon his mother's knee, and baby fingers unconsciously sanctifying this beautiful emblem of a father's reformation, and adding an additional lustre to its shining folds. What hand could desecrate by falling back into old life, this banner made beautiful and holy by that child's pure fingers, and that wife's tears of thankfulness and joy. Think of how many thankful prayers must have ascended to high heaven as she completes this labor of love and gratitude. I imagine I see the wife, as she bends over the package lovingly caressing the last knot that ties the package that holds what is dearer to her than life itself; her love, her hope, her gratitude and her faith in an Almighty God. Was a more precious burden ever sent on a mission of love. What feelings could have prompted this wife to spend so many weary hours of labor for entire strangers? No, not strangers, for she knows that we have met and loved the husband she loves, have taken the same strong hand she has grasped, have looked into the same kindly eyes, and our hearts are filled with the same love, hope, and confidence that fills her own. Surely we are not strangers.

Baby fingers love entwining, Loving hands hope designing, Fond hearts care resigning, Hail happy day. She, good wife has ceased repining, And on hope and joy reclining, Turns to God, her love outshining, Hail, happy day.

Not alone have we received a banner, but also one of the truest and most beautiful letters it has ever been my good fortune to read. May it ever be treasured in the archives of our Club as one of our most hallowed possessions:

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder. Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard.

LIBERTY, CLAY Co., Mo., AUG. 30, 1891.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE BI-CHLORIDE OF GOLD CLUB, OF DWIGHT, ILL. Kind Friends:—As the wife of one whom you so highly honored, and whose great privilege it was to preside over your club, I ask you to accept this banner—as a token of good will and esteem—with the assurance that your club shall always find a warm place in my heart, and my prayer shall always be for the continued prosperity of an institution so laudible in its undertaking, and so purifying in its influence.

It is the wish of the donor that every member of the Bi-Chloride of Gold Club may continue his usefulness, and the purity of thought and purpose engendered from having been in Dwight, may yield a rich harvest.

With the world so full of sorrow and distress, caused by the demon, drink, every member of your club will have extended opportunities, as they go forth in renewed manhood to cause sunshine and happiness where darkness and despair now dwells.

With a heart full of gratitude to your club, as an instrument of good in connection with the Bi-Chloride of Gold treatment, I beg from each one a personal recognition of the rulings of an all wise God, "Who is not willing that any should perish, but that all shall come to eternal life."

Trusting that no member of this club will ever bring reproach upon its name, and hoping that the happiness of our home, is but the counterpart of each one represented in your midst, I ask to be always considered your well-wisher and True friend, Mrs. W. M. BURRIS.

I now, as the representative of Mrs. Burris, present to you Mr. President, the official representative of the Bi-Chloride of Gold Club, this beautiful emblem. May its image be engraven upon the hearts of all members present, and to all of us, those now here and those who will follow, may it ever be a guiding star to all that is good, manly and holy.

President St. Clair responded as follows:

Members of the club and friends. The presentation of this beautiful emblem to us this morning, is of more significance; yes, much more than has ever been attained in the presentation of any emblem whatsoever, hitherto presented to any organization on earth. For all other banners simply represent patriotism, or some idea of progress, while the banner here presented represents the closing of hell to a multitude of families throughout the land, and the making alive thousands of the best men and women who have been mentally dead. If the resurrection of the body is of importance, of how much more significance is the resurrection of the mind. The idea of giving us an emblem could only originate in the heart of a woman blessed by the reception of husband rehabilitated in the mental garb worn in the days of courtship, when the lover was the ideal of the maiden and the young and hopeful wife. May God in his mercy bless and preserve the donor of this beautiful ensign, and grant to her and hers length of days to enjoy the reunion of her choice of all men. May continued happiness be the portion of her and hers. Knowing that the members of this club, gladly accepting this most eligible gift, will in some form acknowledge our acceptance and gladness, closing, I wait for such acknowledgement.

Resolutions were passed by the club thanking Mrs. Burris for the handsome banner.

The following communication was received Tuesday from John W. Stone, a member of the Club in Chicago and also at Dwight. It speaks for itself:

CHICAGO, ILL., Aug. 1, 1891. The remains of Mr. Thomas Kennedy, who died at the Ketchum House, Aug. 29, were interred in Calvary cemetery to-day. The funeral service held at the Cathedral of the Holy Name.

In behalf of his bereaved family and friends I desire to tender their heartfelt thanks to those who assisted in administering to the wants of Mr. Kennedy during his late illness and the interest manifested by those having charge of the transfer of his remains to this city.

JNO. W. STONE.

C. N. Van Pelt returned from Dwight, Ill., on Saturday evening. He has been engaged to assist in the publication of the Avalanche. He is well and favorably known in Atchison county. His skillful pen will again be used in interest of all classes of the people.—Turkio Avalanche. The above gentleman was employed by the Leslie E. Keeley company for some time, and is also a popular member of the Bi-Chloride of Gold Club.

Mr. Albert E. Hyde, of Chicago, the author of "A Marvelous Experience," visited here over Sunday, and made the acquaintance of the new members of the Club. He is warmly received whenever he appears.

Mr. Kennedy, of Chicago, died Saturday. His constitution was so far wrecked that he could not take treatment. Messrs. Voris, Dulin and Cherry escorted the remains to Chicago where he had a wife and family.

The gentlemen who escorted the remains of Mr. Kennedy to Chicago, did so at their own expense and from pure sympathy. It showed that big hearts beat within their bosoms.

The Chicago Club came out Tuesday in a call for funds to assist them in sending unfortunates to Dwight for treatment. The call dwells on the certainty and permanency of the cure. It is signed by O. P. Read, president, and C. E. Banks, secretary. Oscar DeWolf, formerly health officer of the city, also recommends the cure and advises the people to contribute to the worthy cause. The Chicago Club is doing a noble work.

P. P. Peck, one of last week's graduates, came out from Chicago Saturday on his way to Topeka, Kansas, and stopped over Sunday with the boys. Mr. Peck is one of the best geologists in the country, and while here presented several friends with fine specimen minerals. We join the Club in wishing Mr. Peck the best of success.

Clarence Marsh, a former graduate and Club member, was a visitor Saturday. He brought a friend with him for treatment.

Jolly Mr. Ross left last week for his home in Chicago. His musical abilities and entertaining ways are greatly missed.

Mr. Osmun, one of the popular members of the Club, and withal a very agreeable young man, left Saturday for his home in Chicago. He leaves many friends behind him, both ladies and gentlemen.

W. R. Hitt left for his home in Urbana, Ohio, Monday. The STAR AND HERALD will keep him posted as to Dwight doings.

A letter from D. C. Osmun states that he has seen many of the club boys in the city this week, and that they are well pleased, and that the Chicago Club is doing good work for the cause. Mr. Osmun states that he will probably be in Dwight to-night on the accommodation and spend Sunday with friends here.
