There was a children's party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Romberger one afternoon last week. Twenty-eight little ones were entertained and the beautiful lawn was the scene of a general good time for the happy little ones.
Prof. Fisk and family returned home last week from their sojourn in the northern Michigan, and will resume his duties as principal of our schools next Monday. Professor's health, although not as good as we would wish to state, is much improved.
William Lee, a gentleman of long experience as paper hanger, painter and decorator, has come to Dwight to reside and can be found at the Strufe House. Mr. Lee will do jobbing or contracting, and makes a specialty of wall tinting and stenciling.
Franklin street, in Renfrew addition, is now a one hundred foot thoroughfare. Mr. McWilliams having moved the fences back on either side of the street fifteen feet. This makes a fine street and adds much to the beautiful building sites in the addition.
Frank Barnum has returned home from Pittsburgh to stay, provided he can find suitable rooms for an art studio. Mr. Barnum has gained an enviable reputation with his brush, and as a portrait painter he is hard to beat. We welcome him back to Dwight.
Following were the Chicago visitors Sunday. The Sunday "acomme" is getting very popular, and there were so many we couldn't get the names: Gray Staunton, John Dunlop, Lewis, Bob Eldredge, Robt. Mays, Fred Mowbray, Mr. Sullivan, Ed. Payne, Will Ketcham.
If you want to build an addition to your house and haven't the money you get can it from the Equitable Building and Loan Association and pay for it in small monthly payments. You can rent the rooms for four times what they would cost you. Call on W. G. Dustin.
Gov. Fifer, Secretary of State Pearson, State Treasurer Wilson, and Adj. Genl. Reece, of Springfield, passed through Dwight Tuesday morning on their way to Gettysburg, Pa., to attend the dedication of the monument to Illinois troops who fought in the battle of Gettysburg.
Disinterested parties who were in Morris Wednesday to the ball game say that the manner in which the Dwight boys were treated was the most disgraceful that they had ever heard of. They say the stock-yards, Bridgeport or goose island nines in Chicago, could not have acted meaner.
Mr. C. Thomas, a prosperous farmer living three miles north of Campus, made us a pleasant Tuesday. Mr. Thomas is a regular subscriber for five copies of the STAR AND HERALD, sending four of them to three sons and a daughter in the far west. We wish we had few hundred like him.
Mr. Moffat, of Clinton, Ill., arrive here Thursday morning and immediately proceeded to business. He and John Leach and Will Taylor measured the town, or that part necessary to find out the amount of piping needed, and will act accordingly. Mr. Moffat strikes us as a man of business, and we expect to see him push things so that we may have fire protection for the business portion of the town at least, this fall.
The restaurant business of Miller & Orr was sold Thursday night by Ketcham & Smith to S. M. Witt, of Pontiac. Mr. Witt is an old resident of Dwight, having moved to Pontiac when he was elected sheriff, but concluded to return to his first love. He is personally a very popular man and has many friends here who will be glad to learn that he has gone into business here again. We bespeak for him a good patronage and welcome him back to Dwight.
The Momenca Hay Palace this year will be much better than last year. Great preparations are being made by the management, and the palace will be double the size. Everyone in the state is invited to exhibit anything of note they may have. The exposition will be held Sept. 16-28, and Gov. Fifer and other dignitaries will be present on the opening day, the former delivering the opening address. The Schumann Lady Quartette with Master Harry Diamond will be present during the entire time.
Hahn Bros. have sold their extensive meat business, and rented the market for one year to Wm. Rowe and E. E. Horr, of Sabrook, Ill. The business will be conducted under the firm name of Rowe & Horr, and they will take possession next Monday morning. These gentlemen have been over twelve years in the business and come here highly recommended. They will bring one of the best butchers in the west with them. After Monday morning they can be found at Hahn Bros. with everything in the meat line that can be found. Give them a call.

Morris' Barber Shop Burglarized.
Sometime Tuesday night the tonsorial parlors of A. W. Morris were burglarized by cutting the screen door in the rear and breaking the bolt on the inside door. Then the miscreants went through everything in the shop. About $2.60 in change had been left in the drawer, which they appropriated, drawer and all. They took twenty-seven razors, three pair clippers, six pair scissors, one comb and a few little things. They took nearly enough to go into the barber business. Mr. Morris was busy all next day sharpening up new razors for his business. There is no clue, so far, to the perpetrators, but it was undoubtedly the work of tramps.
Build a House.
Nearly one hundred shares were taken out in the Equitable Loan and Investment Association, of Bloomington, last week. When a person takes into consideration that he can borrow $500 on five shares of this association and build a nice cottage and pay for it at the rate of $9.96 a month, it's a pretty good thing for a poor man. It is only necessary to have a lot worth $200 to do this. W. G. Dustin is the agent for the Dwight branch.
Notice Particularly.
Hahn Bros. have sold out and all accounts due them must be settled inside of thirty days. The books will be found at the market of their successors, Rowe & Horr, where all settlements can be made. Remember that all accounts must be settled by cash or note prior to Oct. 5, or they will be left in the hands of a collection agency.
Wonderful Offer.
It's a wonder you wouldn't catch on to the Magic starch. Great offer for a five cent piece at Geo. Kern's, the popular grocer.
Springfield Exposition and Fair, Sept. 7 to 11. The Alton road will sell round trip tickets from the 5th to 11th, good returning until the 13th, for $3.34.
It Was Granted.
A citizen of Brush street was called to his door at 10 o'clock the other evening by a stranger, who inquired:
"Is your name—?"
"Yes, sir."
"You were down in the Buhl Block this forenoon?"
"I was."
"In coming down stairs you ran against a man?"
"I remember now that such a thing happened."
"Well, I am the man."
"Yes."
"You begged my pardon."
"Very likely."
"I was somewhat confused and did not reply. I have now called to say that you were perfectly excusable, and that my pardon is granted."
"You—you—!"
"Perfectly excusable—don't mention it—good-night!"
And he stalked off in the darkness, leaving the householder too mad to even rip and tear.—Free Press.
Soared After the Unsoarable.
"Lorenzo," piped Angelina, as her gold-decked head rested against his three days' unwashed shirt, "do you ever yearn after the unreachables?"
"Verily," answered Lorenzo, "I doth, ever and anon."
"Ah, and for what reacheth thou, and yearneth thou?"
"For a raise in my salary, love."—Texas Siftings.
A Warning to Husbands.
A.—You have got me into a nice scrape. My wife read that note you wrote me yesterday about going to the theater.
B.—But you told me that your wife never opened your letters.
"She doesn't as a general thing, and she would not have opened yours, either, if you had not gone and written 'private' on the corner of the envelope."—Texas Siftings.
Scoring a Center.
Mr. Rubincud—I called, Mr. Oldhead, to ask your advice. I am anxious to get a government position and would like to know where to apply.
Mr. Oldhead (contemplating Mr. R.'s nasal fulgence)—I should say, my dear sir, that you would be quite useful in the Signal Service.
Explanatory.
Johnny—Uncle Horace, why is it so many little boys call you uncle? You ain't anybody's real uncle but mine, you know.
Bachelor Relative (somewhat sadly) The mothers of a good many of them, Johnny, became my—er—sisters many years ago.
PROPOSALS FOR WATER WORKS
SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Dwight, Illinois, until 2 o'clock, the 28th day of September, 1891, for the construction of a system of water works according to plans and specifications now on file in the office of the Village Clerk.
