The third annual tennis tournament given by the Odell Tennis Club, was a grand success. The weather was perfect and the courts were in first-class shape. The following clubs entered: Doubles—Plumb and Mighell, Lukins and Sawyer, Streator and Aurora; Sexton and Curry, Streator; Fiesel and Hunter, Muzzy and Johnson, McGrath and Johnston, Odell, Singles—Mighell, of Aurora; Sexton and Plumb, of Streator; Fiesel, of Odell. Play commenced at 10:30 Tuesday morning. The first match was played between Lukins and Sawyer, Streator, and Fiesel and Hunter, of Odell. The match was won by the latter club by a score of 6-2, 6-2. The second match was played between McGrath and Johnston, of Odell, and Curry and Sexton, of Streator. This match was won by the former by a score of 9-7, 6-2. The third contest was played by Mighell, of Aurora, and Plumb, of Streator, and Muzzy and Johnston, of Odell. The latter won by a score of 6-1, 2-4, 6-4. Third contest in singles was played between Sexton, of Streator and Fiesel, of Odell. This proved to be the hardest fight of the day, but was finally won by Fiesel by a score of 6-4, 10-8.

The second game of singles was played by Mighell, of Aurora, and Plumb, of Streator, and was won by the latter by a score of 6-3, 7-5. This match ended the day's sport, the Streator boys having to leave on the 4:30 train. The final doubles between Fiesel and Hunter and McGrath and Johnston will be finished sometime during the week. Mr. Plumb, of Streator, states his intention of coming to Odell in the near future to play off the final single match with Fiesel. The court was surrounded by a large number of people during the day who enjoyed the sport unmarred by the usual disputes and wrangles generally seen at a base ball game. The club will hold their next tournament the last week in August of next year, and will make a bigger success of it by offering prizes to the winning club.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

"Doc" worked his deadly with great effect after he got over his nervousness.

What was the matter with Doc Muzzy's new and effective stroke?
