

By Mail—Postage Prepaid.	$1.25
One year.	12.50
Six months.	7.50
Three months.	4.50

LOCAL EVENTS.

Fruit at Kelagher's.
Keep cool by buying your ice of Walter Scott.

Go to Walter Scott's for coal of all grades.

Ketcham & Smith sold six town lots this week.

Contract your hard and soft coal with G. Z. Flagler.

Mayor Thompson did business in Chicago, Thursday.

David McWilliams was in the city on business Monday.

Be sure to attend the social in the park Tuesday evening.

S. T. K. Prime spent Saturday in Chicago on business.

Rowe & Horr pay the highest cash price for live stock.

All kinds of feed always on hand at the Dwight Feed Mill.

Fall and winter samples just received at Schott's, the tailor.

Miss Bell Martin went to Chicago Tuesday to visit friends.

The finest line of samples to pick out clothes from; at Schott's.

Building association agents are as thick as the hair on some dogs.

Will Davis is visiting his sister in Streator for a couple of weeks.

Joe Buffham is now employed in "The Store," by Hunt Cutting.

Go to Baker's for school stationery, school books and supplies.

Sweet potatoes, celery and cauliflower at the Star Grocery House.

Clerk Capen made a flying visit to the city Sunday—for his health.

Cooney Geiger, of Streator, was in town Thursday, on business.

FOR SALE—Two Jersey cows, one cider mill. Apply to C. M. Baker. 4w

A great big bunch of first-class starch for 5 cents at Geo. L. Kern's.

B. A. Buck has some good gasoline stoves he will sell very cheap.

A. L. Leach reunited with his old regiment at Wilmington Thursday.

Davis' sewing machines at Buck's. Don't buy before seeing his stock.

Choice Bartlett pears by the peck or bushel, at the Star Grocery House.

Call and see the fine line of cakes and crackers at the Star Grocery House.

Twenty different varieties of embossed interior finish, sold by G. Z. Flagler.

Granulated meat and Graham flour just received, at the Star Grocery House.

Wanted—A good girl for general house work, at J. Grahams. $3.50 per week.

Buy your flour at Geo. Hart's, he always has the best for the least money.

There is magic in the Magic starch. It cost 5 cents a package at George Kern's.

Miss Myrtle Martin left for Watska, Tuesday morning, to visit her aunt's family.

Call on Wm. Lee at the Strufe House for paper hanging. He knows his business.

It is reported that Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Cornell, are coming back to Dwight to reside.

Mr. Morris has got his street sprinkler in operation, and much good is realized thereby.

Mrs. Henry McLane left Tuesday for a four weeks' visit with her people in Norfolk, Neb.

A nice Sunday roast is a good thing. Call on Rowe & Horr and get any cut you want.

We publish this week the proceedings of the recent meeting of the board of supervisors.

Mrs. Fenn moved her millinery store into the Mickelson store on the corner this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ame Stitt, of Verona, were entertained by Mr. Weldon's family Wednesday.

The best place to get your watch repaired done at reasonable prices is at Guardianer's.

Bolted corn meal on hand at the Dwight Feed Mill, one door east of Losee's poultry house.

FOR SALE—A Colt's 10 gauge double barreled gun almost new, $50. STAR AND HERALD OFFICE.

Adam Dernbach, of Chicago, spent several days here this week, with relatives and friends.

Rev. P. M. France will conduct services at the Congregational Church next Sabbath morning.

Beef, pork, veal, fish and everything the market affords at Rowe & Horr's east side meat market.

Geo. L. Kern has some of that popular starch left. Its name is "Magic" and he sells it for 5 cents.

The celebrated Featherbone summer corset sold by Miss Berger, will be sold to make room for new stock, for sixty cents. This is a reduction from 75 cents and should be taken advantage of.

Advertised Letters—Geo. Butler, Rev. Peter Eckert, Jacob C. Hansen 2, Miss Spear, E. H. Welsh.

Eat peaches and cream with the W. R. C. Ladies next Thursday night, at the Sons of Veterans Hall.

Have you chickens for sale? If so, call on Rowe & Horr and get the highest market price for them.

The well for the water works in the east side park is over one hundred feet deep, and work still going on.

Mr. Evans, the photographer, and his wife, are in Kankakee. The former, we understand, is quite sick.

Miss Taylor, daughter of Geo. Taylor, was quite badly injured last Tuesday, but is getting along nicely.

Miss Burer has a large and fine display of fall and winter goods. All the new shapes. Prices reasonable.

Dr. Abbott and son Frank, visited the Momenue had place, Wednesday evening and returned Thursday.

Elmer Penn and Fred Liggett will be ready for business Monday. Read their advertisement in this paper.

For fine farm lands and city property, read the advertisement of Chas. L. Romberger, and act accordingly.

A fine lot of Percheron and Norman mares and studs for sale. Great bargains. Enquire of Ketcham & Smith.

Miss Burger is making a great reduction in fall straw goods. They must be closed out. Call and see them.

Rev. P. M. France and family will leave Dwight next Tuesday afternoon for their new home at Lynden, Ill.

Loose & Brown have moved into their new quarters opposite their old stand. Their new building is away up in G.

McCaulley, the watchmaker and jeweler, has moved his establishment into the handsome store at Mickelson's corner.

Arrangements are being made to have an ice cream social in the West side park next Tuesday evening. All are invited.

Dr. Abbott has his dental rooms in the Kern building newly papered and decorated. They present a handsome appearance.

Prof. C. E. Schlaubaugh, of Clinton, Iowa, has been engaged as principal of Dwight public schools. He arrived yesterday.

Ketcham & Smith offer great inducements to buyers or sellers of real estate. Look at their ad on the fifth page of this paper.

OLD GOLD AND SILVER. Cash paid for it (no goods) at highest prices by McCaulley, watch maker and jeweler, Dwight, Illinois.

You can keep cool by buying ice, or keep warm by buying coal, of Walter Scott. Call on him at J. D. Ketcham's old stand.

The largest and finest assortment of fine stationery, pocket books and school supplies ever brought to Dwight, at C. M. Baker's.

A very desirable spot, 75 feet frontage on Chippewa street, close to business center; $800, cheap. Inquire of Chas. L. Romberger.

Miss Mary Weaver, of Hinckley, Ill., is the guest of Miss Jennie Payne this week. They were classmates at Jennings' seminary at Aurora.

The following people will build fine residences in Renfrew addition: D. B. Stevens, Myers T. Smith, Mrs. Dan Morris, and more to hear from.

Miss Burger has the exclusive agency for the celebrated Butterick patterns which can always be supplied at her millinery parlors. No waiting.

Are you thinking of buying a new suit of clothes? If so call on Schott, the tailor. He has just received an excellent line of fall and winter samples.

Miss Ara Gimlin is at her home in Chicago this week, on account of the death of her grandmother. She is employed as typewriter in the office of Chas. L. Romberger.

Rowe & Horr, successors to Hahn Bros., has constantly on hand a large supply of the best fresh and salt meats that can be procured in the market. Give them a call.

IF YOU HAVE A CLOCK too large or heavy to bring to the shop, McCaulley the watch maker, will call for it, repair it, and return it in good order, and keep it so for one year.

Mrs. Fenn is moving her extensive stock of millinery goods, to the handsome store vacated by Nels Mickelson, on the corner. New goods and an elegant display next week.

Kelagher's bargain store is being improved this week. New shelving has been put in which gives a better chance to display the large stock of goods. Great bargains next week.

Walter Scott, the coal and ice man, came down town Wednesday morning with a very large smile on his countenance. The cause was the arrival of a bouncing baby girl at his house.

Choice grapes from the Payne vineyard will be in prime condition next week. All orders left with Mr. Crocker will receive prompt attention. These grapes are the finest in the country.

The Livingston now presents its customers with as neat a bill of fare as can be found anywhere. They include breakfast, lunch and dinner, and present a handsome appearance. What Mr. Stanton don't know about running a hotel wouldn't make a very large book. The STAR AND HERALD office prints the bills of fare.

Mr. Stephen Bull, of Racine, Wis., was in town Saturday on business. Mr. Bull is vice president of the J. I. Case manufacturing company, and called on the company's agent here, Henry McLane.

The ladies of the Dwight W. R. C. No. 144, will give a peach festival at Sons of Veterans' hall, Thursday evening, Sept. 24th, 1891. All are cordially invited.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

HAVE YOUR CLOCKS and watches cleaned and oiled with fine oil now. The first cold snap will stop them, then the repairer will be rushed, you will have to wait, and they will not be so well done.—McCaulley.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Bell started Wednesday for their new home in Kansas, after being residents of Dwight for twenty-two years. Their home will be occupied by Mrs. Longe and family who lately purchased the property.

The first trial of the Australian ballot system in Livingston county was last week in Amity township. Perry Hagner, was elected supervisor and Ben Brown town clerk, both republicans. Every thing passed off nicely under the new system.

The well being sunk in the East side park for water supply, is nine inches in diameter, and eight inch pipe will be placed in it. This is the largest well the Eyer Bros. have ever sunk, but they are equal to the occasion. The pipe arrived Monday.

Col. Jas. B. Parsons, our popular postmaster, returned Saturday from his eastern trip. While at his old home in Maine he attended the reunion of his battery and had a jolly time. He enjoyed a pleasant trip and his health is much improved.

Dr. and Mrs. Oakshott went to Chicago Tuesday, to attend the Faculty reception at Hahnemann medical college. The doctor was invited by the Dean, Dr. Masok, to be one of the English lecturers for the college, but could not spare the time from his practice here.

Mrs. J. G. Strong, of Blue Rapids, Kan., is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chester. Mrs. Strong lived in Dwight for a number of years, but she hardly knew the place when she arrived this time, so great was the improvement.

Frank Barnum, whose reputation as a crayon and pastel artist is thoroughly established in Dwight, has taken his brother, Lee Barnum, as partner, and will open a studio here. Their rooms will be over McCWilliams & Smith's store, and they will be ready for business Oct. 1.

The new clothing store to be opened by McCWilliams & Smith is being renovated and modern improvements made therein. It will be one of the handsomest store rooms in Dwight, and we understand the firm will put in a fine stock of clothing, gents' furnishing goods, etc. Mr. Bevan's, of Oak Park, will be the manager.

Anyone patronizing a building association should see the agent of the Equitable first. That association is composed of well-known and highly respected citizens of Bloomington, and has a local board in Dwight; and is thoroughly responsible. The company does not give away stock as some do, but it pays in good time and in easy monthly payments. W. G. Dustin is the resident agent.

Mr. Joseph Lecky, a gentleman of a great deal of experience in the directory business, is canvassing among our merchants and business men for a neat little book that will give valuable information as regards the place of residence of every citizen, and also a complete business directory. A large number will be issued and it will be a good medium for those who wish to avail themselves of advertising space.

The new grocery firm of Fenn & Liggett opened for business this week and are prepared to supply all their friends with anything in their line. They have moved the Nels Mickelson's stock into the store recently occupied by Mrs. Fenn and will immediately add to every department, and also many new features. The boys are very popular and will do their share of the business. Read their advertisement.

From the monthly statement for August, published by the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Milwaukee, showing amount of business written by that company in the United States, we quote the following: "The largest August in the history of the company. J. W. Payne stands at the head in number of policies personally written during August, 1891. Minnesota leads the states in amount of new insurance written in August 1891. New York is ahead in amount of insurance written during first eight months of 1891. Mr. Sam E. Houston is now in charge of the Dwight agency of this great company and may be found in his nicely fitted up office over E. T. Miller's store."

For Sale.

One sorghum mill and pan. Inquire of G. L. TAYLOR.

Notice Particularly.

Hahn Bros. have sold out and all accounts due them must be settled inside of thirty days. The books will be found at the market of their successors, Rowe & Horr, where all settlements can be made. Remember that all accounts must be settled by cash or note prior to Oct. 5, or they will be left in the hands of a collection agency.

GOOD-FARM.

Geo. Bush attended the horse sale in Odell.

Mrs. S. Barndensen was in Round Grove, Tuesday.

Erza Grush and mother went to Reddick, last Sunday.

Ed. Constantine attended the fair at Kankakee, last week.

Joe Small, of Gardner, is drilling a well for Mr. Kutchara.

Mrs. Horton, Geo. Urband and wife spent Sunday in Nevada.

Miss Maggie Schwanb visited this week at Aaron Young's.

Supervisor Constantine went to Morris on business last week.

Miss Jessie Stevens, of Joliet, called on friends in our vicinity Sunday.

Geo. Bush opened his sorghum factory last week, and is now busy cooking molasses.

Miss Anna Hagerty and brother, were calling in the east part of the town, Tuesday.

Miss Luella Stevens returned to Evanson this week to attend school the coming winter.

Last Tuesday, John Hanny's team became frightened and ran away. No one was hurt.

James Mackey returned to his home last Friday, after spending a week at his sisters, Mrs. P. Leach.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Crocker, Ed. and Miss Lizzie Nevilles, returned home from the fair at Kankakee, Friday.

Chas. McClary went to Ottawa to attend the annual reunion of the 104th Ill., which was held Wednesday.

David Dippou, and two gentlemen from Logan county, Ill., called on several of their friends, Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. Bartholic and daughter started on their trip to Kansas last Wednesday, where they expect to stay some time visiting.

Mr. John Leach came from Ransom last Saturday, where he has been at work all summer, to spend a few days with his son, P. Leach.

Mrs. M. Morrissey's sister from Chicago made her a visit last week, returning home Saturday. Miss Mary accompanied her, where she expects to dress-make the coming winter.

NEVADA.

Little Eddie Moore was very ill Sunday.

Willie Short is very sick with some infantile disease.

Mrs. Lyons, of Campus, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Cahill.

J. J. Grennan was to Kankakee this week. Barnum is the attraction.

Miss Mary Horn is very ill from a complication of diseases. She suffers a great deal.

Mrs. Kiley has returned to her home after a short visit here. She is a very fine lady.

Mrs. Wm. Cahill, of Sunbury, and Mrs. Anderson, of Chicago, were in town Sunday, calling on friends.

Miss Anna Burns is back from the hospital at Joliet. She is afflicted with gonorrhea. The examiners said that the home physicians were doing as well for her as anyone could.

Mr. Patrick De'ehanty, of Budd, had a very severe attack of heart trouble last week. The family was hastily summoned, but he is now some better. He has been a great sufferer for years.

RANSOM.

Corn around here is nearly out of danger.

A. W. Kern and Constable Berg, made a flying trip to Odell and Dwight last week.

John McKay, A. W. Kern and several other K. Ps. were in Streator on business last Saturday.

Rev. C. A. Moore is assigned to the M. E. Church, by the recent conference held at Moline.

Quite a number of old soldiers from this neighborhood attended the reunion at Ottawa, this week.

A K. P. Lodge will soon be organized here. A large delegation will be present from Dwight. Look out for fun.

ROUND GROVE.

Lewis Clover and wife Sundayed in Dwight.

F. E. Fitz returned from his western trip Sunday.

There were several races on the new race course at Wilson, Saturday.

Mrs. Addie Goldtwiate, of Massachusetts, was a visitor here last week.

Miss Allie Bennett, of Fairbury, spent Saturday and Sunday in Round Grove.

The dance at Wilson last Friday night was well attended and all report a good time.

E. W. Felton, of Braidwood, made a business trip to Round Grove last week Thursday.

Several farms have been sold the past week and several others are about to be sold. The prices range from $55 to $65 per acre.

Settle up.

Having disposed of my stock of groceries, crockery, etc., to the firm of Liggett & Fenn, I desire all book accounts settled as soon as possible. Call at the store recently vacated by Mrs. Fenn and make a settlement before Oct. 1, 1891. You will greatly oblige me by being prompt in this matter as I wish my business matters closed up. Respectfully,

N. N. MICKELSON.

Reduced Rates.

The Alton road will sell tickets to Braidwood for the races Sept. 25-26, for 70 cents round trip.

To St. Louis for Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. Sept. 21-26 for one fare round trip.

To Wenona for the fair, Sept. 21-25, for $1.40 round trip.

To Chicago and return for $2.50 on Wednesday Sept. 23, tickets good until Monday, Sept. 28.

$3.50. $3.00.
-- LOOK. --
For a short time will make ONE DOZEN CABINET PHOTO-GRAPHS and a large CRAYON PORTRAIT for only $3.50.

This offer will hold good for only a short time, so come quick and take advantage of it.
DWIGHT ART CO., PHOTOGRAPHERS,
OVER E. T. MILLER'S STORE.
$3.50. $3.50.
NEW GROCERY HOUSE, LIGGITT & FENN,
PROPRIETORS.

Plain and Fancy Groceries, CROCKERY,
And everything to be found in a first-class Grocery Store.
Our Prices are Reasonable.
We have purchased the Nels Mickelson stock of goods and have added a large amount of new goods, and invite all our friends and everybody to give us a call.

Highest Price paid for Butter, Eggs, Etc.
WINDOW SHADES, plain and fancy, from 35 cents to $1.25.
WALL PAPER, a very large assortment at reasonable prices. We can save you money on these lines.
Store in Mickelson's Block, next to the corner.

R. H. (DICK) LEE. HARRY BENEDICT.
LEE & BENEDICT,
LIVE STOCK COMMISSION,
Room 87 Exchange Building, Union Stock Yards, CHICAGO, ILL.
Consignment Solicited.

F. A. FOX, CONTRACTOR BUILDER.
Plans and Specifications furnished on short notice. Orders left the STAR AND HERALD office will receive prompt attention.

ELEGANT Tonsorial Parlors
Corner Mazon Avenue and Franklin Streets.
Finest Appointed Room In Dwight.

FRED, ROMMEL, MANAGER.

JOHN R. GREEN, Practical Plumber,
Steam, Hot Water, and Gas Fitting.
Inquire at Flagler & Potter's Hardware store.

SEW C. METZ, PLASTERER AND GENERAL WORK.
All Work Warranted.
ODELL, - - ILLINOIS

JOHN GREEN, Contractor and Builder.
Shop on Mazon Avenue.
Office with Flagler & Potter for the present.
MILLINERY!
MRS. FENN
Has an elegant display of the latest styles of,
Fashionable Millinery.
An : Experienced : Trimmer
And the best dressmakers can always be found at
MRS. FENN'S PARLORS.
The ladies are cordially invited to call and see the handsome display of Spring and Summer goods at her store in
HETZEL'S BLOCK, DWIGHT.