

Table with subscription rates: One year $1.25, Six months .75, Three months .35.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Local news items including: Gloves and mittens at Leach & Reeb's, Mrs. Hubbard spent Sunday in Pontiac, Dr. Rhinehart spent Sunday in Chicago, D. B. Bartholic visited the city Wednesday, Go to Walter Scott's for coal of all grades, Boot and shoe repairing at Leach & Reeb's, Green fruits of all kinds at Loggitt & Fenn's, $12 hand made single harness at Leach & Reeb's, Buy Orange Blossom flour at Loggitt & Fenn's, Fred Loggitt was in Chicago on business Wednesday, Contract your hard and soft coal with G. Z. Flagler, Rowe & Horr have oysters in bulk Give them a call, Mrs. Monahan, who lives on Delaware street, is quite sick, Albert Whiffen, the contractor, spent Sunday in Chicago, Rowe & Horr pay the highest cash price for live stock, For fine oysters in bulk call at Rowe & Horr's meat market, Quart and half gallon fruit jars at the Star Grocery House, Fall and winter samples just received at Schott's, the tailor, Window shades and wall paper at Loggitt & Fenn's grocery, The finest line of samples to pick out clothes from: at Schott's, Horse blankets, fur robes and plush robes at Leach & Reeb's, Capt. and Mrs. H. F. Boyer were Chicago visitors Wednesday, Chas. Vickery has returned to his school duties in Delaware, Ohio, Go to Baker's for school stationery, school books and supplies, Sweet potatoes, celery and cauliflower at the Star Grocery House, Mrs. Dame and Miss Clara Martin visited friends in Chicago Sunday, Johnny Doherty has accepted a position in the Bank of Dwight, A great big bunch of first-class starch for 5 cents at Geo. L. Kern's, B. A. Buck has some good gasoline stoves he will sell very cheap, Miss Burger has a fine new stock of the celebrated Featherbone corset, Everything in the fruit and vegetable line at the Star Grocery House, A large invoice of new goods received to Loggitt & Fenn's every week, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Romberger saw the unveiling in Chicago Wednesday, Davis' sewing machines at Buck's. Don't buy before seeing his stock, Choice Bartlett pears by the peck or bushel, at the Star Grocery House, Twenty different varieties of embossed interior finish, sold by G. Z. Flagler, Granulated meal and graham flour just received, at the Star Grocery House, There is magic in the Magic starch. It cost 5 cents a package at George Kern's, Geo. E. Keith's gents' fine shoes are the best in the market at Leach & Reeb's, Just received a fresh supply of cakes and crackers at the Star Grocery House, Over fifty round trip tickets were sold to Chicago for the accommodation Sunday, Misses Hattie Miller and Mattie Johnson visited in Chicago a few days last week, Mr. E. H. Dame returned from Michigan Monday, where he went on business, Born to Mr. and Mrs. Amos Orr, a son. Ame says Grover's girl is nowhere, William Bullham is doing well from the effects of a fall, dislocating his ankle, Miss Lucy Rabe has been confined to her room several days, but is better now, Chas. L. Romberger sold seven lots of the Bohan property to Wm. Dippola for $1,100, Reynolds Bros., ladies fine shoes at Leach and Reeb's, are the best in the land, Children enjoy getting their hair cut at the new tonsorial parlors in Keepingler's block, Patrick Falsely has sold his farm in Sunbury for $4,500, through Ketcham & Smith, A. J. Orr has sold his residence property to Wm. Mains, through Ketcham & Smith, The county Sunday school convention will be held at Odell next Thursday and Friday, S. T. K. Prime was in the city Thursday on business connected with his crop bureau, Attention is called to the one price clothing advertisement of McWilliams & Smith, An experienced nurse from Chicago has been secured to nurse A. W. Barr through his severe sickness Yesterday

he was reported as a little better, and his many friends hope for his speedy recovery, Miss Della Grundler, of Nevada, was a guest of Mrs. Wm. Baird the fore part of the week, Cashier Naffziger, of the Bank of Dwight, is taking a rest from his duties this week, A nice Sunday roast is a good thing. Call on Rowe & Horr and get any cut you want, The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardianer's, FOR SALE.—A Colt's 10 gauge double barreled gun almost new, $50. STAR AND HERALD OFFICE, Dr. Blaine's family are now here and will occupy the Lower house. We bid them welcome, If you want to gaze on the best line of gloves and mittens in Dwight go to Leach & Reeb's, Beef, pork, veal, fish and everything the market affords at Rowe & Horr's east side meat market, Geo. L. Kern has some of that popular starch left. Its name is "Magic" and he sells it for 5 cents, B. E. Miller has sold four lots to C. J. Judd, and two lots to Carl Tock, through Ketcham & Smith, J. E. Hutchinson is about to commence the erection of an $800 house on his lot on Franklin street, LOST.—Last Sunday, a breast pin, made out of a silver mine, with initials. Please leave at this office, Have you chickens for sale? If so, call on Rowe & Horr and get the highest market price for them, Col. Parsons and J. C. Lewis assisted in unveiling the Grant monument on Wednesday in Chicago, Ladies hair dressing a specialty at the new barber shop on the corner of Franklin street and Mazon avenue, J. F. Fifield, of Goodfarm, has sold eighty acres to Peter H. Sundergard for $4,100, through Ketcham & Smith, The highest market price paid for butter and eggs at Loggitt & Fenn's new grocery store in Mickelson's block, Mrs. Mary Falsely has purchased through Chas. L. Romberger 200 acres of the H. A. Gardner farm for $10,000, James Reeder is a happy papa. It's a bouncing son and was presented to him by Mrs. Reeder on the Sabbath day, Lawyer Thompson is the latest title added to our Mayor's name. It's a funny business John cannot turn his hand to, Mrs. A. E. Byrne, of Rockford, Ill., visited her sister, Mrs. G. W. Dustin, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, You can keep cool by buying ice, or keep warm by buying coal, of Walter Scott. Call on him at J. D. Ketcham's old stand, Work wanted, by an Upholster and Mattress Maker. Call or address, Eugene Langie, Pennsylvania House, or Post Office, The largest and finest assortment of fine stationery, pocket books and school supplies ever brought to Dwight, at C. M. Baker's, Robt. Loggitt, of Chicago, spent Sunday with his brother, Fred. He occupies a responsible position in the Evening Journal office, I. V. Park, editor, and M. J. Rooney, business manager of the Joliet Daily Times, made this office a pleasant call Monday morning, All the ladies in the neighborhood should attend the grand opening at Miss Burger's millinery store next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, The trains on the Alton going north were all loaded Wednesday with people attending the Grant monument unveiling ceremonies in Chicago, Ketcham & Smith have a few fine tiled farms at Milk Grove, ranging from $40 to $50 per acre, one-third cash, balance to suit purchaser. Call at once, Mr. Henry Bell, of Henry, Marshall county, visited his uncles, Alderman and Frank Bell, last week, several days. He is a former resident of Dwight, Are you thinking of buying a new suit of clothes? If so call on Schott, the tailor. He has just received an excellent line of fall and winter samples, The new tonsorial parlors in the Keepingler block is a nice place for the ladies to get their hair cutting, shampooing, curling, and hair dressing of all kinds, Rowe & Horr, successors to Hahn Bros., has the constantly on hand a large supply of the best fresh and salt meats that can be procured in the market. Give them a call, J. W. Goodman, photographer, goes to Odell every Monday to operate his gallery there, consequently his gallery here will be closed on that day until further notice, Mrs. J. D. McCarty, of Odell, purchased this week the John C. George property for $3,250, through Chas. L. Romberger. One year ago $1,500 would have bought it. That's what we call boom, Mr. Goff, of Morgan Park, Ill., brother-in-law of J. D. Bevens, stopped off between trains Thursday to visit and see the Keeley institute. He is much pleased with the results and workings of the cure, Superintendent Moffatt, of the Water Works, went to Clinton Friday and returned Monday, by the Denver, with experienced men and tools, and lost no time in commencing work. The ditches for pipes were commenced just in front of the STAR AND HERALD office, and will be continued all around the block, H. N. Holmes, D. D. S., late with Dr. E. H. Stewart, of Joliet, Ill., announces to the people of Dwight and vicinity, that he will open an office for the practice of all modern branches of Dentistry in a few days, Chas. B. Wood will sell at public auction at his farm 2 miles northeast of Dwight, on Thursday, Oct. 15, cattle, horses, farming and household utensils, etc. Jess Slyder is the auctioneer. Mr. Wood is going to move to Iowa, The weather signals are given to the people of Pontiac daily by sounding the shoe factory whistle so many blasts for different conditions. Why not have the hay press or laundry whistle do the same here. Pucker up and get a whistle on you, The trial Wednesday between Mr. McQuirk and Mr. Wilson in regard to the possession of a house resulted in favor of the latter. The trial was before Squire McElduff and Will Ketcham propounded law for Wilson and John Thompson for McQuirk, Dwight is having built at that point one of the finest passenger depots on the line of the Chicago & Alton railroad. It has a solid foundation of Joliet stone, and the building proper will be built of Bedford blue stone from Indiana.—Wilmington Review, The Pontiac city council sold their $20,000 sewerage bonds to D. M. Funk, of Bloomington for $19,600, and they draw but five per cent. The Dwight town board should look into the matter of disposing of their water works bonds at such good advantage, The following Dwight people viewed the unveiling of the Grant monument Wednesday: Mrs. J. R. Oughton, Mrs. B. A. Buck, Mrs. Joe. Miller, Miss Tillie Pettitt, Dr. and Mrs. Oakshott, Mr. and Mrs. Romberger, John Pettitt, Free Vickery, Capt. Reynolds and others, Mr. Hiram Cornell, of Earlville, Iowa, has taken charge of the Cornell House. Mr. C. is a former resident and an experienced hotel man and the public will appreciate the fact that with his management this popular hotel is again placed on a firm basis. We welcome him back to Dwight, Tom Grimes, of Streator, bought an Irish setter in Dwight Tuesday and took it home on the 4.35 train. He took the animal into Kennedy & McMamara's with a cord tied to him, and a crowd gathered around him to listen to Tom expatiate on the good points of the animal. While busy talking someone cut the string. Exit dog. Grimes didn't think it was any joke, but it was just the same, General Butler's forthcoming book will be one of the largest historical autobiographies ever published. It will contain one thousand large pages, printed upon high grade paper, and illustrated with several hundred wood engravings. It will be published in English, German and French. The best artists are now employed on the work. The Dickinson Type Foundry is casting type especially for it. The typography and press-work will be by The Barta Press of Boston, the first edition to be not less than one hundred thousand, probably double that number. The publishers are A. M. Thayer & Co., of Boston. The general and exclusive agents for Illinois and Wisconsin are the Dibble Publishing Co., of Chicago, Ill., Card of Thanks, The Rev. E. C. Hearn, pastor, and the parishioners generally, of the new Catholic Church in Eminston, desire to express, through the columns of the DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD, their most sincere and heartfelt thanks for the liberal patronage extended them during their recent Bazaar, which proved, socially and financially a very great success, The following prizes were awarded at the close: Ten dollars in gold, donated by Rev. P. Lyons, to Marcus Leitel, Three year-old Durham heifer, donated by John Ferguson, to Julia Fitz Patrick, Push Rocker, donated by P. D. Fitz Patrick, to Frank Heinz, of Chicago, Novel gasoline heating stove, donated by Mamer Bros., to Paul Nessler, China tea set, donated by Herb & Son, to J. H. FitzPatrick, Bed room set, donated by Michael Kennedy, to P. M. Ravenskilde, Cabery, Calf, donated by John O'Brien, to Miss Lizzie Spilner, Marble top dresser, donated by J. J. Foltz & Son, to Mrs. John Farley, Lady's lace bonnet, donated by Mrs. Bradley, to G. M. Krme, Hanging lamp, donated by the Misses L. and B. Conroy, to W. Shelley, Dress pattern, donated by Duncan & Pefferman, to Miss Anna G. Dixon, Pontiac, The successful competitors for the doll, ring and suit of clothes, were May Evard, Julia Doyle and Willie Woods, of Campus, Directors' Meeting, Directors, teachers, and all interested patrons are asked to meet at the center school house, (unless some more convenient point shall be chosen) in each township, on the date indicated, at 7:30 p. m., to discuss the questions of grading the country schools and uniformity of text books, with such other questions as those present may desire, Monday, October 19, Nevada, Tuesday, October 20, Dwight, Wednesday, Oct. 21, Round Grove, Thursday, October, 22, Broughton, Friday, October 23, Union, Young Men's Christian Association Convention, The nineteenth annual state convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of this state will assemble at Jacksonville, October 14 to 18. An excellent list of speakers have been secured, among them being Prof. R. F. Weidner, D. D., of Rock Island, Ill.; Rev. Alexander Patterson, of Chicago; Mr. J. R. Mott, of New York, International College Secretary and others, Mr. Peter Bilhorn, singing evangelist, of Chicago, will conduct the music. A program of unusual interest has been prepared. Five hundred or more delegates are expected. Railroads have given reduced rates, All christian young men are invited to attend. Jacksonville will entertain delegates. For program or further information write to L. A. Bowman, Assistant State Secretary, 148 Madison street, Chicago. Rev. J. L. Withrow, D. D., of Chicago, will deliver the annual convention address, CAMPUS, F. E. Foltz will return from the west Sunday, Mrs. Elmer Mahannah went to Kansas last Tuesday to visit her parents, whom she has not seen for four years, Dr. Sly, who has been in Campus for the last six months, has gone to St. Louis to the hospital. Everybody wishes him success. He will be greatly missed, Quite a number of Campus young folks attended the Fair at Emington last week, O. P. Nelson was the lucky man at the Fair. He drew a fine heating stove, J. F. Bogardus has moved to Gibson City this week, where he will go into the butcher business, Mrs. A. Ross, son and daughter, and Miss Nell Goss, of Odell, started Monday to Indiana for a two weeks' visit, A good many farmers went to Odell Friday to the horse sale, but did not sell many, The tile factory is doing a large business. They sell about thirty loads a day, ROUND GROVE, John Palmer Sundayed in Streator, Esq. Thompson and James Austin, of Dwight, came out to Wilson Saturday to act as judges at the races, George Steger's little boy got badly scalded one day last week, by pulling the cork out of the washing machine. His recovery was doubtful for a couple of days, but at this writing he is much better, and it is thought all danger is past, F. E. Foltz returned from Lincoln, Neb., this week, The races at Wilson last Saturday were well attended. Kirkendall's Andy Burk took first money in the running race, and A. H. Haynes' horse took first in the trotting match, Malachi Shelly, of Emington, was buried in the Round Grove cemetery last week Thursday. Mr. Shelly was one of the pioneers of Round Grove, having moved here in 1857, and has made this his home until the past few years. He was a prosperous and highly respected citizen, and will be greatly missed by his many friends. He was 72 years of age at the time of his death, NEVADA, People are husking their potatoes, hard as they can, Another new agent in town. Patterson has gone, Amos Grundler is in Chicago this week, Wedding last Wednesday. Will report next week, Mr. and Mrs. Holt spent Sunday with the Moores, Miss Agnes Glacon will return to her home next Saturday, Mr. Richard Weber is taking a rest and visiting the World's Fair village meanwhile, Belle and Fannie Gillett returned from their visit in Ransom last Friday, Little Harrold Barr visited here a few days this week, Louis, Fred and Kate Gillet visited in Ransom one day last week, and had a fine time, Maggie Short, accompanied by little Leslie, is visiting at George Short's at Dwight, Mrs. Schultz, of Streator, is visiting her children, Mrs. Anna Weber, and Mrs. John Darm, this week, Grant Short was running a sheller at the State Fair last week. His wife and baby joined him on Thursday. Returning they stopped at Blackstone and remained over Sunday with the Ambrose's, Grand Opening, A grand millinery opening will take place at Miss Burger's store on East street next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Handsome pattern hats from the large wholesale houses in Chicago will be displayed. Miss Burger extends a cordial invitation to all the ladies of Dwight and vicinity to call and inspect her millinery display. Remember the dates, Oct. 15, 16 and 17, Choice Land Near Gardner, A good farm of 240 acres two miles north of Gardner for sale. Well improved, excellent well water. There is a vein of coal on the farm also. This is a great bargain at $57 per acre, CHAS. L. ROMBERGER, Dwight, Ill., Settle up, Having disposed of my stock of groceries, crockery, etc., to the firm of Loggitt & Fenn, I desire all book accounts settled as soon as possible. Call at the store recently vacated by Mrs. Fenn and make a settlement before Oct. 1, 1891. You will greatly oblige me by being prompt in this matter as I wish my business matters closed up, Respectfully, N. N. MICKELSON, For Sale, Two show cases. Apply to 30w2 C. M. BAKER, PHOTOGRAPHS - FRAMES - PICTURES - NOTICE. Mr. William Godfrey, of Chicago, now has charge of our Studio, and all are invited to call and see our work. Now is the time to have Children's Photographs taken. Large work a specialty. DWIGHT ART CO. Picture Goods.

McWilliams & Smith's NEW Clothing House. ONE PRICE Everybody Used Alike. Finest Assortment in the County. Underwear, Trunks, Valises, Gents' Furnishing Goods. Medium Weight and Heavy OVERCOATS. Be sure and call on us before purchasing. McWILLIAMS & SMITH. DWIGHT, ILL. AGENTS OF THE National Life Maturity Insurance Co., OF WASHINGTON, D. C. The Investment and Building and Loan departments of this company are very popular. The stock matures in a shorter time than in other companies. LIFE CLAUSE By paying 10 cents additional on stock, your stock will mature and be paid in full at death. For further particulars inquire of Ketcham & Smith, at their office in Mickelsen's block. S. M. WITT, Little Giant Restaurant, (Next to the Keeley Institute.) All kinds of Cool Drinks, Ice Cream, Oysters in season, lunches, Bread, Rolls, Angel Food, Cakes, etc., from the Bon Ton Bakery, of Pontiac. Best Brands of Cigars and Tobacco.