Another Call for Help.

The following appeal for assistance in the work of sending dipsonians to Dwight has been issued by the Chicago Bi-Chloride of Gold club:

To the Benevolent Citizens:
Bi-Chloride of Gold club of Chicago, Chicago, Oct. 14.—Let us have your attention for a moment.

The Bi-Chloride of Gold club was organized by men who have graduated from the Keeley institute for the purpose of sending to Dwight for treatment men who are financially unable to pay their own way. We have been the means of curing nearly fifty men, have given our time and money to the work, and are now unable to do more owing to a lack of money.

We are besieged by mothers and wives begging us to save their sons and husbands, and with aid we can do this. Not a single lapse has occurred among those whom we have sent to Dwight. Now we appeal to you for assistance, and adopt this method desiring to save you and ourselves the time necessary to a personal visit. If you desire to help us please make check payable to C. H. Sampson, treasurer Bi-Chloride of Gold club.

We refer you to Luther Latin Mills, Dr. Oscar C. De Wolf and the Rev. F. J. Brobst as to the manner in which the money will be expended.

Respectfully,
OPIE P. READ, President.

A Cheery Letter Worth Reading.

LEAVENWORTH, KAN., Oct. 16, 1891.

THE STAR AND HERALD:
Enclosed please find draft No. 81772, for One Dollar, on First National Bank of Chicago, for which, please send me the STAR AND HERALD until you want more.

I regret, extremely, to hear of your serious fire, but know you will rise up serenely and publish a better paper than ever.

My physical condition is such, that I could stand up against John L. for six rounds, with one of the old jags as my backer, and a bottle of dope for between rounds. But, seriously, I am well.

I am doing a good business, and last, and greatest, my little wife, baby (8 years old), and I, are a happy family. I am not much on the pray, but I believe my wife sends up a prayer for Doctor Keeley every day.

The Keeley Institute here, has between 25 and 30 patients, and quite a number have been cured. I am Secretary (permanent) of the Bi-Chloride of Gold Club here. Our object is much different from the Dwight Club, as our funds go to pay for treatment of men who have spent their last dollar for whiskey. In our club-room everything is donated but rent.

Well, Mr. Dustin, I guess I have stolen enough of your time. Kindly remember me to Rev. Merrill, Messrs. Cutting, Frank Ford, the Knights of Pythias, the Faculty, and to any of the old jags who have not forgotten.

Yours very truly,
HARRY E. INSLEY.

Arrived in Dwight, Aug. 7th, a genuine Jag. Left Dwight, September 4th, a Man.
October 16th. "We are all right up to the present time."

The Leslie E. Keeley Co., received by Express, Tuesday, a handsome bamboo cane, to present to the President of the club, and each retiring president will present it to his successor. The cane is about four inches through at the top, and three at the bottom; and about the same as any cane in length. The top is covered with a handsome cap, which can be removed. The top of the cane has been bored out to make room for a genuine bottle of "dope." It is very light, and is a handsome present.

Ex-Ald. Cope and George Falkenberg, of Chicago, members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold club, took a trip to Dwight yesterday, where they met all the Joliet boys, who were feeling well and anxiously looking forward to the time when they will return home.—Joliet News.

Letters from many old club members have been received during the past week and some of them read. This is a good plan and gives the right kind of encouragement to new comers.

We see by the Kankakee papers that Amos Cole, the great violinist, of Kankakee, has returned home from Dwight, Ill., where he has been taking treatment for the liquor habit. He claims that he is thoroughly cured and has no appetite whatever for liquor.

A letter from J. Clyde Fleming, who left here two weeks ago, states that he is getting along nicely. He sends kind regards to the faculty of the institute and to the pleasant acquaintances formed here. Mr. F. resides in Gilchrist, Ill.

There was a young man from Streator, Who always went home on a teeter; He went to Dwight,
Now he never gets tight,
His girl says his breath now is sweeter.—Tribune.

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley sailed for home last Wednesday. He will arrive in Dwight some time next month. He receives a warm welcome.

A letter from Capt. Harry Insley, of Leavenworth, published in another column, is interesting and will be read with interest by the club members.
