

Star and Herald.

Entered at the Postoffice in Dwight, as second class mail matter.

ZIMMERMAN & DUSTIN.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
BY MAIL—POSTAGE PAID.

One year.....$1.25
Six months......85
Three months......35

LOCAL EVENTS.

Bon Bon bread, sold by Witt & McKay.

Ollie Crandall was a Chicago visitor Sunday.

There will be good races at Emington Oct. 31.

Furniture for sale at the residence of Mrs. Koehnlein.

Quart and half gallon fruit jars at the Star grocery store.

Rowe & Horr pay the highest cash price for live stock.

Subscribe for the STAR AND HERALD, only $1.25 per year.

This was not what it was cracked up to be.

For fine oysters in bulk call at Rowe & Horr's meat market.

Go to Baker's for school stationery, school books and supplies.

Geo. Kern is about to open a meat market in his grocery store.

A great big bunch of first-class starch for 5 cents at Geo. L. Kern's.

B. A. Buck has some good gasoline stoves he will sell very cheap.

Dr. Abbott is visiting friends and relatives in Canada, and the east.

Sweet potatoes, celery and cauliflower at the Star Grocery House.

Choice Bartlett pears by the peck or bushel, at the Star Grocery House.

Davis' sewing machines at Buck's. Don't buy before seeing his stock.

Miss Burger has a fine new stock of the celebrated Featherbone corset.

Everything in the fruit and vegetable line at the Star Grocery House.

Clarence Rabe spent Sunday in Chicago with his friend Walter Fox.

Dr. Palm is going to build a handsome residence in Renfrew addition.

Granulated meal and graham flour just received at the Star Grocery House.

Miss Erminie Ahern has resigned her position as teacher in our public schools.

Just received a fresh supply of cakes and crackers at the Star Grocery House.

There is magic in the Magic starch. It cost 5 cents a package at George L. Kern's.

Fifteen different views of the recent fire on sale at Dwight Art company's studio.

Twenty different varieties of embossed interior finish, sold by G. Z. Flagler.

A nice Sunday roast is a good thing. Call on Rowe & Horr and get any cut you want.

The new restaurant in the old Roeder barber shop stand on east street is open for business.

Views of the recent fire for 25 cents a piece at the gallery of the Dwight Art company.

The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardianer's.

Beef, pork, veal, fish and everything the market affords at Rowe & Horr's east side meat market.

Geo. L. Kern has some of that popular starch left. Its name is "Magic" and he sells it for 5 cents.

Have you chickens for sale? If so call on Rowe & Horr and get the highest market price for them.

Farmers are picking corn in every direction, and crops are turning out better than was expected.

Mrs. John Clutt, of Essex, aunt of Mrs. J. Jacobsen, visited here Tuesday returning home Wednesday.

Sheriff Coe, of Pontiac, was in town Thursday, subpoenaing witnesses in the Leach separate maintenance case.

The Leslie E. Keeley Co., will move into their new office sometime between the first and tenth of November.

The highest market price paid for butter and eggs at Liggett & Fenn's new grocery store in Mickelson's block.

LOST—One large green plush, and one Brussell rockers, both platform rockers. Finder please return to Mrs. Koehnlein.

This is the gentleman that some of our boys see when they go to the city for a few day, seeking pleasure.

Witt & McKay keep constantly on hand bread, rolls, buns, pies and cakes of different kinds, and shall not be undersold.

The largest and finest assortment of fine stationery, pocket books and school supplies ever brought to Dwight, at C. M. Baker's.

The ladies of the Y. W. C. T. U. gave an oyster supper in the basement of the church Tuesday night, which was well attended.

The next thing on the program is Thanksgiving day. There is lots of Turkeys, and plenty to feed them and make them fat.

The Livingston received a complete steam laundry outfit this week, and will commence business as soon as placed in position.

A larger engine and boiler will be placed in the Livingston, so as to furnish steam heat, etc., for both the hotel and office building.

Mrs. Strufe wishes to return her sincere thanks to those who so kindly assisted her in saving her furniture from the fire, two weeks ago.

Anyone wishing to pay their subscription to the STAR AND HERALD, will find us at the coal office of Walter Scott—Ketcham's old stand.

C. H. Lagoni left Monday morning for his home in Marquette, Hamilton county, Neb. The STAR AND HERALD will keep him posted as to Dwight news.

Ketcham & Smith have a few fine tiled farms at Milk Grove, ranging from $40 to $50 per acre, one-third cash balance to suit purchaser. Call at once.

The general store, owned by Benway & Kuntz, of Strawn, was robbed Wednesday night, of between two and three hundred dollars in cash, and some drafts.

LOST.—A ladies gray crocheted fascinator, in the east part of town, Wednesday afternoon. A suitable reward will be paid for its return to the Keeley Institute.

Witt & McKay are fitting up their room in a neat and attractive manner, and will be prepared to furnish regular meals, oysters and lunches in bon bon style.

J. W. Goodman, photographer, goes to Odell every Monday to operate his gallery there, consequently his gallery here will be closed on that day until further notice.

Rowe & Horr, successors to Hahn Bros., have constantly on hand a large supply of the best fresh and salt meats that can be procured in the market. Give them a call.

Miss Minnie Barr has resigned her position in the post office to take effect to-night. Miss Pauline Groll has accepted the position and will commence her duties Monday.

The city directory has been delayed considerably on account of the STAR AND HERALD type having been burned, but it will appear as soon as possible—probably about two weeks.

Andrew Ovahofsky, a Hungarian miner of Streator, was murdered Wednesday night, by four of his companions, while quarreling over a nickle. The murderers are under arrest.

Under the present management the STAR AND HERALD is one year old. If you will examine your slip on the paper many of you will see that your subscription has expired or is due.

Dr. Scouller will yield up the the management of the reform school to Senator Sheets next week. Next Thursday his many friends will give a grand reception at the institute.

This is a great year for nutting, and the crop of butternuts, walnuts, hickory nuts, etc., is very large. Apples, nuts and cider during the cold winter nights, beside a warm fire, will be indulged in.

NOTICE.—On and after Sunday, Nov. 1st, the postoffice at Dwight will be open from 9 to 10 a. m. The noon delivery of mail from this office will then be discontinued. J. B. PARSONS, P. M.

Everett Lewis, won the shooting contest at Jacobsen & Smith's shooting gallery, Wednesday night, and he and his friends will smoke one hundred good cigars. Ev. is a shooter from shooter-ville.

One of the proprietors of the Empire Laundry company, of Chicago was in town Wednesday to assist in settling the insurance matter and choosing a suitable location to locate another complete plant.

If you wish to secure a good picture of the buildings in flames during the recent fire, go to the studio of the Dwight Art company. They cost but 25 cents, and fifteen different views to choose from.

H. N. Holmes, D. D. S., late with Dr. E. H. Stewart, of Joliet, Ill., announces to the people of Dwight and vicinity, that he will open an office for the practice of all the modern branches of dentistry in a few days.

Mrs. Strufe received her insurance in full through Mayor John Thompson. She will build again in a short time on the old site. She intends to add a neat room for a barber shop, and the whole structure will be built of brick.

John Geis attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias, at Springfield, this week. Fitch C. Cook, of Peoria, was elected Grand Chancellor, Wednesday night, and C. H. Barnes, of Jacksonville, Vice.

Advertised Letters:—Shelby Adams, Mr. Baily, Michael Dunn, T. Field, Wm. Godfrey, Fisher & Gordon, Henry Johnson, L. W. Kramer, Henry Klip, W. A. Livermore, Oliver Lampkins, A. Moody, Thos. Samon, Mrs. O. B. Waggaman.

The electric light has not shown as it should recently. Mr. Seigert is putting in a fine, large new boiler, and undoubtedly as soon as it is placed in position, our light will shine so that we may all see into the dim future across the street.

The Journal last Saturday stated that the fire at Dwight consumed Sam Lower's hotel. Such was not the case. They tore down a building and stopped the fire. Mr. Lower escaped quite luckily, as the building is a new one and cost about $5,000.—Cabery paper.

Miss Sara E. Mowbray and Jasper P. Dieus, both of Streator, were united in marriage this week. The bride is a sister of Fred Mowbray, pressman at the STAR AND HERALD, and has visited in Dwight several times. Their friends here extend congratulations.

Superintendent of schools Foster, was in town Tuesday, and attended a meeting of directors, teachers, etc., in the evening. We understand considerable progress was made in the endeavor to improve the schools. Mr. Foster attended a similar meeting in Round Grove, Wednesday night.

The Empire Steam Laundry Co., of Chicago, has purchased 100 feet of Ketcham & Smith on East Mazon avenue near the bridge and will commence the erection of a handsome building 30x70 to be used as a first-class steam laundry, immediately. East Mazon, as well as West, is on the boom.

We mentioned last week that H. H. Cutting had been called to his old home by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his mother. It is with regret, that we announce that Mr. Cutting's mother died last Friday, and the funeral took place Saturday. Mr. Cutting's many friends in Dwight, extend their sympathy to him in his trouble.

Supt. Moffatt, informs us that the work on the engine house for the water works, will be pushed to a speedy finish, and that the machinery will be here in about ten days. The smokestack will be sixty-five feet high, and will be commenced as soon as the engine house is inclosed so that machinery can be placed in position. Pipe laying will be finished next week.

Col. F. E. Thompson and party, of Kansas City, Mo., are here to introduce Thompson's Universal Garment Cutter in this territory, and to secure general and special agents for this and other territory. He wants to meet ladies who wish to use the cutter in their own families, and men with small capital who have been here at the institute or any one else, to secure an agency for their home territory, (the territory is free). Ladies wishing to examine the system can do so by calling at Mr. Geo. Hart's, South Franklin street. This system will cut every garment, any size or style worn by men, women and children, with a sewing machine in every family the system offers a field for agents seldom equaled. Home office, 131 West 6th street, Kansas City, Mo.

Nevada.

Miss Della Grundler, has gone to Chicago to spend a few weeks with her brothers family.

John Grundler has sold his house-lot and store here to Patrick Langan, for the sum of $1000.

Pluck, is what raps every time, good luck go with the STAR AND HERALD, from now evermore.

Richard Bogles is the daddy of a nice little baby girl. He is in danger of stubbing his toes, for he carries his head awful high. Mother and child doing well.

Richard Weber is in Chicago, folding twine, and weighing calico; otherwise, acting as clerk in John Grundler's store.

Our new grain agents will soon have their elevator in running order; are nearly ready for the paint and new machinery.

Miss Emma Crimmler spent Sunday here, visiting friends. Fred's face beamed as the sun, it shone so with satisfaction.

Miss Clara Moore will return Saturday from her visit in Seneca. Her sister, and brother-in-law will accompany her home.

Wm. Wassom has joined the ranks of builders, and is having new cribs and other new buildings put up on his farm east of town.

The Ambroses' of Blackstone, and George Short and sister of Dwight, spent Sunday with their kinsman, Grant Short and family.

Mrs. Sarah Doran has purchased the house and store vacated by Patsie Langan, for $700. She will run a boarding house and restaurant.

Patsie Langan is going to have a large barn built on his new property, and other needed improvements made. That's a step in the right direction.

Mr. Henry Voight has his new barn finished; it is a great improvement to the looks of his farm. We presume his next move will be to erect a fine residence.

One would have thought from the excitement here last Thursday, that there was an election of President; but the Commissioners were letting the building of the Road-scraper's sheds to the lowest bidder, that was all.

Messrs Mat. Campbell, Will O'Neil, Joe, Rafskie, John McGrevey, and Misses Mamie, and Aggie O'Neil, Alice Reardon, Sadie Morris, and Aggie McGrevey, all went to Garfield to a dance, Thursday night. They report a good time.

Goodforn.

Miss Elsie W. Stevens spent Sunday at home.

Geo. Gantzert sprained his arm while husking corn.

August Sorensen visited in Round Grove, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Sinclair visited in Mazon, last Sunday.

Mr. James Nevilles, went to Marsalles last Saturday.

Geo. Gantzert and sister, Mrs. Lydia Peterson, were in Dwight Sunday.

Mrs. A. Hughs has been very sick, but was improving at the last report.

Mrs. Urbons sister returned to her home in Reddick, after visiting with her a week.

Bert Jones and brother, of Greenfield, called at R. G. Thompson's last Sunday.

Chas. Wood and wife spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. Fitzpatrick, who lives near Campus.

Miss Ida M. Harvey, of Highland, was the guest of Miss Emma Youngs, last Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs Geo. Kruse, Alfred Jeppson, Simon Bundensen, August Sorensen and John Urbon went to Pontiac, last Friday, and got their naturalization papers; getting ready for next fall, no doubt.

The many friends of John M. Sindell, will be sorrow-stricken to hear of his death, which occurred the seventh of this month, at his home in Nebraska. He resided for a great number of years, near the center of this town, and was well known by nearly everyone.

Architects.

J. C. Swalm & Co., architects, engineers, etc., room 811 Temple Court, 225 Dearborn street, attend to all classes of constructing of buildings, remodeling of offices, and other work in their line. Correspondence solicited.

Notice.

All bills due the undersigned not settled by note or otherwise prior to November 1, 1891, will be placed in the hands of a collection agency. I can be found at the grocery store of Liggett & Fenn. N. W. MICKELSON.

For Sale.

80 acres near Cayuga House and good barn, well tiled. Bargain if taken soon. Address Mrs. F. M. BETTMAN, Cayuga Ill.

For Sale.

Two show cases. Apply to C. M. BAKER, 30W2

A Good Chance

Now to Get

DRY GOODS

and

FURNISHINGS,

at

E. T. Miller's.

Pure & Full Weight.

Economical & Popular.

Several Different Views

OF THE

FIRE

AT THE

DWIGHT ART CO.,

FOR

Twenty-five Cents Each.

McWilliams & Smith's

NEW

CLOTHING HOUSE.

ONE PRICE

Everybody Used Alike.

Finest Assortment in the County

Underwear,

Trunks,

Valises,

Gent's Furnishing Goods,

Medium Weight and Heavy

OVERCOATS,

Be sure and call on us before purchasing,

McWilliams & Smith,

DWIGHT, ILLINOIS.

KETCHAM & SMITH,

AGENTS FOR THE

National Life Maturity Insurance Co.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Investments and Building and Loan departments of this company are very popular. The stock matures in a shorter time than in other companies.

LIFE CLAUSE

By paying 10 cents additional on stock your stock will mature and be paid in full at death. For further particulars inquire of Ketcham & Smith, at their office in Mickelson's block.

S. M. WITT,

Little Giant Restuarant.

Next to the Keeley Institute.

All kinds of Cool drinks, Ice Cream, Oysters in season, Lunches, Breads, Rolls, Angel Food, Cakes, etc., from the Bon Ton Bakery, of Pontiac.

Best Brands of Cigars and Tobacco.