

Curing the Drunkard.

The subject announced for to-morrow evening at the First Methodist church, "Curing the Drunkard," as it is accomplished at the now famous village of Dwight, Ill., will no doubt arouse general interest.

TRIBUTES TO DR. KEELEY'S DISCOVERY.

Ministerial Praise for the Bichloride of Gold Cure—$2,000 Given.

The following report and eloquent words of two of Chicago's popular and brilliant divines was clipped from the Chicago Tribune of Wednesday:

Kimball Hall was the scene of an interesting meeting last evening in the interest of the Bichloride of Gold Club, Col. Nate Reed presided.

The Rev. Dr. Brobst compared the Keeley cure to the rescue of a drowning man from a rushing torrent, and said: We are told it is only the weak who are carried off by this awful current, that if men have strong wills they can come ashore themselves.

There are 10,000 who sing the song of redemption that has been put into their minds by that magnificent man at Dwight; 10,000 who have tried every experiment under the sun, and found relief there and there alone.

An ounce of cure is worth a pound of prevention at a certain stage of the game. After the serpent has struck its deadly fangs into the flesh it is too late to talk of prevention.

There are 10,000 who sing the song of redemption that has been put into their minds by that magnificent man at Dwight; 10,000 who have tried every experiment under the sun, and found relief there and there alone.

Remarkable as it may seem, some of the most devoted friends of temperance have heaped abuse on the physician who discovered it. And yet those very persons have pained our eyes with charts showing how men have been diseased from head to foot by alcohol.

Below Zero. Engie—How do you like my new engagement ring? Emma—I never liked it; it was too large for me when I used to wear it.

ored man whose name we speak to-night; but reformers and physicians still scoff. Some physicians even say it is a quack and a fraud! Dr. Keeley is right, whatever his enemies say, because the cure cures!

I wish to God I could say to my people "Come to my church tomorrow and I'll give you a shot." But the press got the start of the pulpit; no doubt about that.

The first of last week your correspondent, in company with Mr. G. Stevens, O. E. Davis, J. C. Keltner, Levi Bicknell and Frank Randall, drove across the country to Dwight.

Mr. Wm. Lang, a real estate man of Chicago, a former patient, spent a few days here this week. He says he never felt better in his life, and thinks the money spent here for treatment was the best investment he ever made in his life.

Dr. Keeley landed in New York Wednesday, making the trip in the fast time of six days. He will be in Dwight next week, it is expected.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS. The races in Kankakee last week were very successful.

Barnett, the murderer, still lives to be an expense to the county. Aurora is to have a branch of the Keeley Institute. A strong company is being organized for the establishment of the cure in that city.

St. Bede College, a Catholic institution costing $150,000, was dedicated at Peru, last week. Over 5,000 people witnessed the ceremonies.

Mr. Dowding, the traveling correspondent of the Will County Horseman, was in town Tuesday, and took a number of subscriptions.

Joliet has at present a representation of five at the Keeley Institute for the cure of drunkenness. Half a dozen of Joliet's hardest drinkers have graduated, entirely cured of the craving for liquor.

An Inalienable Right. It is alleged that 300,000 Americans lack one or both legs, but they can kick just as hard as ever.
