

Entered at the Postoffice in Dwight, as second class mail matter.

ZIMMERMAN & DUSTIN.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

BY MAIL—POSTAGE PAID. One year $1.25 Six months .75 Three months .35

LOCAL EVENTS.

Bon Bon bread, sold by Witt & McKay. Buy your groceries at the West Side Market. Doe Hagerty was a Chicago visitor Sunday. Jno. R. Green did business in Chicago yesterday. Will Sargent did business in Streator Wednesday. John Schott was in Gardner on business, Monday. Club headquarters is being enlarged and improved. Furniture for sale at the residence of Mrs. Koehlein. Halloween to-night. Look out for gages, signs, etc. Geo. Martin and daughter visited Gardner Sunday. Quart and half gallon fruit jars at the Star grocery store. Subscribe for the STAR AND HERALD, only $1.25 per year. Rowe & Horr pay the highest cash price for live stock. Landlord Stanton was a Chicago visitor Wednesday. Rev. and Mrs. Conard were Chicago visitors Wednesday. Miss Maggie Short, of Nevada, is now employed in Dwight. The steam laundry building is being rushed to completion. You can buy roasts for 10 cents at the West Side Market. Round and shoulder steak 10 cents at the West Side Market. For fine oysters in bulk call at Rowe & Horr's meat market. Henry McLane is adding to the beauty of his residence. Mrs. Paterson arrived home from her visit to Iowa this week. David Riling, Jr., and sister were Chicago visitors Sunday. Go to Baker's for school stationery, school books and supplies. A great big bunch of first-class starch for 5 cents at Geo. L. Kern's. B. A. Buck has some good gasoline stoves he will sell very cheap. Sewer pipe tile of best kind at Walter Scott's. Ketcham's old stand. Mr. and Mrs. Irick and son, of Black stone, spent Sunday in Dwight. Mrs. Strufe has commenced work on the foundation of her new hotel. Sweet potatoes, celery and cauliflower at the Star Grocery House. Choice Bartlett pears by the peck or bushel, at the Star Grocery House. Davis' sewing machines at Buck's. Don't buy before seeing his stock. Miss Burger has a fine new stock of the celebrated Featherbone corset. Get a nice choice cut of any kind of meat for Sunday at Kern's market. Everything in the fruit and vegetable line at the Star Grocery House. The pipe laying for the water works will be finished the first of the week. Where is the sprinkler? The dust blew everywhere in clouds yesterday. Granulated meal and graham flour just received at the Star Grocery House. Just received a fresh supply of cakes and crackers at the Star Grocery House. Fifteen different views of the recent fire on sale at Dwight Art company's studio. There is magic in the Magic starch. It cost 5 cents a package at George L. Kern's. There is nothing like fine meat to draw trade. Geo. Kern has it at his market. Twenty different varieties of embroidered interior finish, sold by G. Z. Flagler. The Y. W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Miss Kittie Martin, Friday evening. A nice Sunday roast is a good thing. Call on Rowe & Horr and get any cut you want. County Clerk John George was up from the county seat on business Thursday. The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardian's. Views of the recent fire for 25 cents a piece at the gallery of the Dwight Art company. Miss Della Pearre is visiting her brother and friends in Chicago for a couple of weeks. Herschal Hagerty is now employed to attend the stock department of the Keeley Institute. Ed. Reeb has leased part of the Simmons lots on Franklin street and will put up a neat building 18x24, to be used as a barber shop. It will make a good stand. Geo. Kern's new meat market proved a success from the start. Good meat does the business. M. Rhinehart has leased the residence formerly occupied by Mrs. Albert Barr, on Delaware street. Remember that Walter Schott sells the best hard and soft coal in town, at Ketcham's oldstand. This issue of the STAR AND HERALD completes the first year under the present management. Our prices are as low as anybody and we are sure to please you in quality at the West Side Market. Beef, pork, veal, fish and everything the market affords at Rowe & Horr's east side meat market. Geo. L. Kern has some of that popular starch left. Its name is "Magic" and he sells it for 5 cents. Mrs. Will Stafford and children, of are visiting with the family of Campus Natha Baker this week. Have you chickens for sale? If so, call on Rowe & Horr and get the highest market price for them. The West Side Market have reduced the price of meat and will keep up its reputation for good meat. The Diefenbach Brothers will commence work on their two-story brick as soon as the contract can be let. Geo. Keppinger has decided to build a three instead of a two story building, on the site of the burnt buildings. Rev. L. R. Royce, of Peoria, will preach at the Congregational Church next Sunday morning and evening. Ex-Representative M. Cleary called on Ketcham & Smith with some friends in regard to farm property this week. Lost.—From the Strufe House, a gray map shall. The finder will confer a favor by leaving same at this office. John Crocker has purchased two lots Renfrew addition for $500. It is his intention to erect an elegant residence. The highest market price paid for butter and eggs at Liggitt & Fenn's new grocery store in Mickleson's block. Lost.—One large green plush, and one Brussel rockers, both platform rockers. Finder please return to Mrs. Koehlein. "De Monk" come to grief on Pontiac whiskey last week. The gypsies who went there and De Monk lay down and died. Mr. Shumm of Gardner, moved into the brick on Franklin street this week, where he will open a restaurant in a few days. Witt & McKay keep constantly on hand bread, rolls, buns, pies and cakes of different kinds, and shall not be undersold. The largest and finest assortment of fine stationery, pocket books and school supplies ever brought to Dwight, at C. M. Baker's. Do not forget that the postoffice will be open next Sunday from 9 to 10 a. m. instead of from 12 to 1, as is the present custom. Will Ketcham's house presents a fine appearance. It is modern in all its appointments and will be one of the handsomest in town. The Leslie E. Keeley Co. have just received a fine Moose head direct from Maine. The moose are big game and now are very rare. Subscribers to the STAR AND HERALD who have taken the paper continually and not paid, will find that their time expires with this issue. Sites for business houses are now leasing for more than the lots could be bought for one year ago. How is that for a gilt edged boom? Anyone wishing to pay their subscription to the STAR AND HERALD, will find us at the coal office of Walter Scott—Ketcham's old stand. Miss Annie Glidden, of De Kalb, has been engaged so teach in our public school. She is a young lady of culture and comes very highly recommended. Lost.—The day of the fire, one half dozen white dress shirts, open bosom, marked T. Whalen. Finder please leave the same at Pennsylvania House. Ketcham & Smith have a few fine tiled farms at Milk Grove, ranging from $40 to $50 per acre, one-third cash balance to suit purchaser. Call at once. Frank Keeceer of Gardner has purchased the Ash residence opposite the Congregational church and will make extensive improvements and keep boarders. Witt & McKay are fitting up their room in a neat and attractive manner, and will be prepared to furnish regular meals, oysters and lunches in bon bon style. John D. Ketchum is moving his old residence to a lot near the railroad, and we understand will erect a fine, commodious dwelling on his lots on Semecole street. Rowe & Horr, successors to Hahn Bros., have constantly on hand a large supply of the best fresh and salt meats that can be procured in the market. Give them a call. Oh, Georgia Warbling Minstrels, do not come again as you said you would in the near future. Your songs were stale, your jokes very flat. Your costumes were away ahead of the times(?)

The best thing you gave us was "Home, Sweet Home." The audience took the hint and you took our fifty cents. But not again, oh, no! The next regular monthly meeting of the Epworth League will occur next Tuesday evening, Nov. 3. As it is the evening for election of officers, a full attendance is desired. If you wish to secure a good picture of the buildings in flames during the recent fire, go to the studio of the Dwight Art company. They cost but 25 cents, and fifteen different views to choose from. Advertised Letters.—J. E. Allen, J. Billett, Gus Burner, Alpha Cordill, L. F. Carpenter, E. T. Hunt, E. G. Harrison, M. O. Day, Warren McFadden, Norman R. Pogue, Mrs. Leydia Reed, Mrs. Anna Linder. H. N. Holmes, D. D. S., late with Dr. E. H. Stewart, of Joliet, Ill., announces to the people of Dwight and vicinity, that he will open an office for the practice of all the modern branches of dentistry in a few days. New buildings are springing up all over town, and additions are being built to many residences. Including both there is over one hundred. The view presented from the trains on the Alton denotes prosperity. Mr. Hoover, brother-in-law of Will Ketcham, is stopping a few days here. He is a first-class newspaper man, and may go into business here. We extend him a cordial reception to the fraternity of this neighborhood. Patrick Burk, southeast of town, met with an accident while husking corn the other day, having been run over breaking a rib and otherwise bruised. Dr. Oakshett was called and the man is getting along as well as could be expected. Major Curtis J. Judd was a Chicago visitor Sunday. The Major was down on the program for a speech at the great Bi-Chloride of Gold meeting at Kimball hall Tuesday night, but business kept him from fulfilling the engagement. Good leaders have been secured for the devotional meetings of the Junior League and to-morrow at 3 p. m. they will commence their Sunday afternoon meetings, which will be continued during the winter. An interesting course of study will be taken up. A hay stack in rear of Ed. Steffin's residence in the east part of the town caught fire in some unknown manne Thursday night and was consumed. The fire attracted a large crowd, and by their exertions the remaining stacks and adjoining houses were saved. The grass and weeds are so dry that the utmost caution should be taken. On the lots in rear of the business houses on Franklin street the weeds are very high and dry and should be cut and burned. It is the case in most every neighborhood. Round Grove. Amos Clover and wife, of Emington, Sunday in Round Grove. Superintendent Foster, of Pontiac, met with the school directors and teachers last week Wednesday. The meeting was unanimous for grading the country schools and having a uniformity of text books. Mr. Foster made many friends while here. Cyrus Thomas has been having a serious time with a felon on his right hand. At one time it was thought he would lose his hand but it is slowly improving, and it is hoped all danger is past. Miss Belle Cummins closes her school in district No. 5 this week. She has taught a very successful term and has made many friends in this vicinity. Mr. Folts and family, of Campus, start this week for their new home in Lincoln, Neb. C. W. Sheldon is shelling his new corn and delivering it. He contracted for 40 cents per bushel. John Finnegan purchased the McGinnis farm last week. Mr. Thomas Huggins and daughter of Crystal Lake, Ill., visited his two daughters and friends in Round Grove, the past week. Nevada. Frank Moore is at work for John Noonan. Mrs. Wm. Holt and sister, are here visiting. Fred Gillett caught a slough hen and put it in their cistern. Mr. John Darm and wife spent Sunday in town. Miss Simmons, of Dwight, is boarder at J. Fowler's. Mrs. Alex Cupples was in town a few hours last Friday. The rats are beginning to besiege the town again, as of yore. The elevator under the control of Michael Cahill, is now in running order. Richard Weber is at home on account of the sickness of his daughter Della; she is very ill. Louis Gillett, ha' old for the company he represents, his corn sheller, to Messrs. Campbell and Feehan. We could hear the melodious accent of the mayor of Dwight, trying to prevail some cattle to enter their special corner last Wednesday evening. People that think Nevada is not a city, want to come here to buy butter and eggs; way up? well, rather. Mrs. Dennis Brennan has been in Pontiac trading. She has a goodly amount of parcels every time she makes a trip. Miss Bertha Fife spent Saturday with her brother John, at John Fowler's. Mrs. Kelley, sister of Mrs. Mary Martin, and mother of Mrs. Patrick Cowley, died at Morris Sunday. Her remains were brought to Dwight, and the funeral held Tuesday. A number of friends and relatives from here were in attendance. Good farm. C. E. Stevens and wife went to Seneca Saturday. John Seamentle, of Highland, has just erected a barn and double corn crib. Geo. Cruse attended church in Dwight Sunday. Mrs. Urbon spent last Wednesday with Mrs. Geo. Gantzer. H. L. Bartholic spent Sunday in our vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Heffron, of Compton, was the guest of Chas. McClary's family Saturday and Sunday. Henry Fox, of Dwight, was in Good-farm Monday. Geo. Gantzer's family was in Highland last Sunday. Mr. C. Seamentle, of Dwight, visited his brother, Chris. Seamentle, last Sunday. Jans Mortensen was in Verona last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. Young were in Gardner Friday. Joe Harvey, of Gardner, accidentally shot himself through the palm of the hand last week. Louie Seiger was in Grand Prairie last Sunday, returning Monday. Geo. Bush purchased a new wagon of Charles Waters, of Dwight, last week. E. L. Stevens went to Morris on his bicycle last Sunday. Choice Land Near Gardner. A good farm of 240 acres two miles north of Gardner for sale. Well improved, excellent well water. There is a vein of coal on the farm also. This is a great bargain at $50 per acre. CHAS. L. ROMBERGER, Dwight, Ill. Architects. J. C. Swalm & Co., architects, engineers, etc., room 811 Temple Court, 225 Dearborn street, attend to all classes of constructing of buildings, remodeling offices, and other work in their line. Correspondence solicited. Lost. A small package between the M. E. Church crossing going north and Wm. Taylors, on Monday evening. Finder please leave same at this office. Mrs. G. E. KIRKINDALL. Strayed. A yearling roan heifer, from my farm four miles southwest of Dwight. A reward will be given for the return or information of the above animal. HENRY JOOST. Notice. All bills due the undersigned not settled by note or otherwise prior to November 1, 1891, will be placed in the hands of a collection agency. I can be found at the grocery store of Liggitt & Fenn. N. W. MICKELSON. For Sale. 80 acres near Cayuga. House and good barn, well tiled. Bargain if taken soon. Address Mrs. F. M. BEITMAN, Cayuga Ill. For Sale. Two show cases. Apply to C. M. BAKER. 30w2

Several Different Views OF THE FIRE AT THE DWIGHT ART CO., FOR Twenty-five Cents Each and sharp edge. McWilliams & Smith's NEW CLOTHING HOUSE, ONE PRICE Everybody Used Alike. Finest Assortment in the County Underwear, Trunks, Valises, Gent's Furnishing Goods, Medium Weight and Heavy OVERCOATS, Be sure and call on us before purchasing. Mc Williams & Smith, DWIGHT, ILLINOIS. KETCHAM & SMITH, AGENTS FOR THE National Life Maturity Insurance Co. WASHINGTON, D. C. The Investments and Building and Loan departments of this company are very popular. The stock matures in a shorter time than in other companies. LIFE CLAUSE By paying 10 cents additional on stock your stock will mature and be paid in full at death. For further particulars inquire of Ketcham & Smith, at their office in Mickelson's block. S. M. WITT, Little Giant Restaurant. Next to the Keeley Institute. All kinds of Cool drinks, Ice cream, Oysters in season, Lunches, Breads, Rolls, Angel Food, Cakes, etc., from the Bon Ton Bakery, of Pontiac. Best Brands of Cigars and Tobacco. E. T. Miller's.