Cigarettes can't be bought in Dwight. Dr. Keeley intimated to the people that it would be better for his patients to be unable to get cigarettes, and since then not a package can be bought in the town. The people are nearly all hostile to the sale of liquor, and none is sold there.—Morris Independent.

Our ice dealer, Mr. Scott, has taken the contract from the Leslie E. Keeley Company to continue the sewer of the Livingston from its present terminus to a point about eighty rods north of the I. I. & I. railroad. This is a good move, and will improve the odor of the east part of the village very much.

Owing to the fine condition of the sidewalks on Mazon avenue Mr. B. A. Buck, on his return home from business Saturday night, came very near breaking all his bones, to say nothing about disfiguring his face. The scars to-day, which he exhibits as the trophies of his fall, tell a tale which it would be well for our city authorities to heed. It is said as Mr. Buck arose his first thoughts were to sue the town for damages. Whether he has cooled off since or not remains to be seen.

Ottawa Free Trader: Brick for street pavement has long since ceased to be an experiment and few cities in the United States use anything else. Yet it is only within a few years that they have come into general use. Decatur, Ill., was one of the first in the state to adopt brick extensively for street paving after Bloomington, and though it is a larger city than Ottawa, it has thirty-two miles of brick paved streets. But then Ottawa knows nothing about the mud they used to have in Decatur.
