

GIVE 'EM THE EARTH.

BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY RENEWS ITS GRIP.

Wild Times on the Lakes—Foul Crime at Minneapolis—Blighting of a Young Orator's Ambition—Terrible Calamity at a Brooklyn Fire.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

—Joe Mulhatten, the well-known "Orange-blossom" thief, is now in the Illinois State Penitentiary...

—The train from Chicago on the Milwaukee and St. Paul Road was held up by masked men...

—Twenty tons of powder at Miller's Station, Ind., exploded, entirely destroying the plant...

—The murder of John and William Kester Oct. 18, 1888, at their farmhouse, near Scotchville, Pa., caused great excitement...

—A thrashing machine engine exploded with terrific force while at work four miles south of St. Hilaire, Minn.

—A dispatch from Paducah, Ky., says: Joe Mitchell, a negro, was strung up by a mob who took him away from an officer...

—Mrs. Gretchen Leuzenbarger and her son George, 13 years old, were found dead in the saloon run by Mrs. Leuzenbarger...

—Mrs. Homer Wellington, who before her marriage was a prominent actress in a Boston society, committed suicide by taking laudanum...

—A freight wreck occurred on the Southern Pacific Railroad near Schmittsburg, Texas...

—D. W. Griffin, a conductor on the Ohio Central Railroad, met a horrible death in the East Toledo yards...

—At Newark, N. J., Tuesday John Rindell & Sons' planing mill burned. Loss, $100,000.

—It is alleged that consumers of natural gas in Indianapolis, Ind., are suffering inconvenience from the low pressure.

—At Chattanooga, Tenn., fire did $30,000 damage.

—Fire at Minneapolis, Minn., did $300,000 damage.

—At Brooklyn, fire in a row of tenement houses did $90,000 damage.

—Two men were killed near Cadillac, Mich., in a wreck on the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railway.

—Fire damaged the Cleveland (Ohio) Banking Company's factory to the extent of from $25,000 to $35,000.

—George Zoackler, Sr., a wealthy business man of Wheeling, W. Va., died of his brain Tuesday. He had the trouble with insomnia.

—J. H. Brigham, of Delta, Ohio, was re-elected Master of the National Grange at Springfield, Ohio.

—The Methodist general missionary committee decided to hold a convention Tuesday, to meet at Baltimore next week.

—The schooner Hattie E. Estelle, from Chicago to Buffalo, was wrecked just outside the harbor at Manistee, and the cook and a sailor were drowned.

—The night the cold wave descended was a wild one on the lake. The wind was a howling gale from the north...

—Gov. Campbell resurged William E. Fitzgerald, who was appointed to be the Indian Commissioner, for murdering Policeman Freed at Youngstown last May...

—The night the cold wave descended was a wild one on the lake. The wind was a howling gale from the north...

—The Bell telephone monopoly has secured a fresh grip on the country and now believes it has a clutch on telephones for another fourteen years.

—A bulletin issued at Philadelphia announces that Actor Florence is better than he was, and that he will probably survive the attack of pneumonia.

—The skeletons of a massive man and woman have been discovered in the Indian mounds near Chillicothe, Ohio.

THE OLD WORLD.

—The authorities of the Russian war office have resolved to construct a line of forts along the Chinese frontier...

—Eleven miners were killed and two were injured by an explosion of fire-damp in a mine at Essen, Germany.

—In the gale along the coast of Ireland there has been considerable loss of life. The British steamer, the "Queen of the South," was wrecked at Cork...

—The hurricane which passed over a part of Spain was the cause of a number of deaths. Off the town of Villa Sarcia a steam launch was thrown upon the shore...

—A meeting of anarchists in Vienna, Austria, was called in commemoration of the death of the Chicago anarchists, and was dispersed by the police.

—In the French Chamber of Deputies, a motion by M. Lauer, demanding the expulsion of the Jewish bankers from France, was rejected—431 to 22.

—At the International Peace Congress in session at London, a speech was made by Mrs. Mary Frost Ormsby, of New York, who is the head of the American delegation...

—A decree will shortly be issued revoking the prohibition of American pork in the Austro-Hungarian empire.

—The pope has fully recovered his health, and, notwithstanding the cool weather, takes daily exercise in the Vatican gardens, except when it storms.

—The wife of a sailor named Hinton, at Southampton, became wildly insane and seized a carving knife cut at the throat of her three daughters.

—The largest sale of dry goods ever held on this continent was at the twenty-fourth New York one day last week.

—The Knights of Labor convention at Toledo, Ohio, closed Tuesday, the twenty-first of the month.

—At 6 o'clock the other morning the Edgar Thomson Steel Works, at Braddock, Pa., were in operation after a rest of two hours for the week-end.

—The Cheyenne National Bank, of Cheyenne, Wyo., suspended payment. It is thought business will be resumed, however.

—The Missouri Pacific was short 600 tons of wheat for the month of October.

—The President of Mexico has issued a decree removing many of the arbitrary restrictions at the custom-house in the City of Mexico.

—Messrs. Moody and Sankey, the famed American evangelists, have agreed to make a tour of Scotland. The entire period of considerable spiritual success, if not immense pecuniary collections, among the Scotch people.

—Trouble is brewing in Alaska, and any steamer may bring down intelligence of a serious rebellion among the natives.

—The steamer Modoc brings information that the people are complaining bitterly against the National Government; that they have been ignored by each successive administration.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

THE OLD WORLD.

—The authorities of the Russian war office have resolved to construct a line of forts along the Chinese frontier...

—Eleven miners were killed and two were injured by an explosion of fire-damp in a mine at Essen, Germany.

—In the gale along the coast of Ireland there has been considerable loss of life. The British steamer, the "Queen of the South," was wrecked at Cork...

—The hurricane which passed over a part of Spain was the cause of a number of deaths. Off the town of Villa Sarcia a steam launch was thrown upon the shore...

—A meeting of anarchists in Vienna, Austria, was called in commemoration of the death of the Chicago anarchists, and was dispersed by the police.

—In the French Chamber of Deputies, a motion by M. Lauer, demanding the expulsion of the Jewish bankers from France, was rejected—431 to 22.

—At the International Peace Congress in session at London, a speech was made by Mrs. Mary Frost Ormsby, of New York, who is the head of the American delegation...

—A decree will shortly be issued revoking the prohibition of American pork in the Austro-Hungarian empire.

—The pope has fully recovered his health, and, notwithstanding the cool weather, takes daily exercise in the Vatican gardens, except when it storms.

—The wife of a sailor named Hinton, at Southampton, became wildly insane and seized a carving knife cut at the throat of her three daughters.

—The largest sale of dry goods ever held on this continent was at the twenty-fourth New York one day last week.

—The Knights of Labor convention at Toledo, Ohio, closed Tuesday, the twenty-first of the month.

—At 6 o'clock the other morning the Edgar Thomson Steel Works, at Braddock, Pa., were in operation after a rest of two hours for the week-end.

—The Cheyenne National Bank, of Cheyenne, Wyo., suspended payment. It is thought business will be resumed, however.

—The Missouri Pacific was short 600 tons of wheat for the month of October.

—The President of Mexico has issued a decree removing many of the arbitrary restrictions at the custom-house in the City of Mexico.

—Messrs. Moody and Sankey, the famed American evangelists, have agreed to make a tour of Scotland. The entire period of considerable spiritual success, if not immense pecuniary collections, among the Scotch people.

—Trouble is brewing in Alaska, and any steamer may bring down intelligence of a serious rebellion among the natives.

—The steamer Modoc brings information that the people are complaining bitterly against the National Government; that they have been ignored by each successive administration.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

THE OLD WORLD.

—The authorities of the Russian war office have resolved to construct a line of forts along the Chinese frontier...

—Eleven miners were killed and two were injured by an explosion of fire-damp in a mine at Essen, Germany.

—In the gale along the coast of Ireland there has been considerable loss of life. The British steamer, the "Queen of the South," was wrecked at Cork...

—The hurricane which passed over a part of Spain was the cause of a number of deaths. Off the town of Villa Sarcia a steam launch was thrown upon the shore...

—A meeting of anarchists in Vienna, Austria, was called in commemoration of the death of the Chicago anarchists, and was dispersed by the police.

—In the French Chamber of Deputies, a motion by M. Lauer, demanding the expulsion of the Jewish bankers from France, was rejected—431 to 22.

—At the International Peace Congress in session at London, a speech was made by Mrs. Mary Frost Ormsby, of New York, who is the head of the American delegation...

—A decree will shortly be issued revoking the prohibition of American pork in the Austro-Hungarian empire.

—The pope has fully recovered his health, and, notwithstanding the cool weather, takes daily exercise in the Vatican gardens, except when it storms.

—The wife of a sailor named Hinton, at Southampton, became wildly insane and seized a carving knife cut at the throat of her three daughters.

—The largest sale of dry goods ever held on this continent was at the twenty-fourth New York one day last week.

—The Knights of Labor convention at Toledo, Ohio, closed Tuesday, the twenty-first of the month.

—At 6 o'clock the other morning the Edgar Thomson Steel Works, at Braddock, Pa., were in operation after a rest of two hours for the week-end.

—The Cheyenne National Bank, of Cheyenne, Wyo., suspended payment. It is thought business will be resumed, however.

—The Missouri Pacific was short 600 tons of wheat for the month of October.

—The President of Mexico has issued a decree removing many of the arbitrary restrictions at the custom-house in the City of Mexico.

—Messrs. Moody and Sankey, the famed American evangelists, have agreed to make a tour of Scotland. The entire period of considerable spiritual success, if not immense pecuniary collections, among the Scotch people.

—Trouble is brewing in Alaska, and any steamer may bring down intelligence of a serious rebellion among the natives.

—The steamer Modoc brings information that the people are complaining bitterly against the National Government; that they have been ignored by each successive administration.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

—The bill of the Government will be seen in the hope that the Government would see the evil of its way.

BOLD EXPRESS ROBBERS.

—After Securing About $100,000 of the Express Money and Leaving No Trace.

—A Daring Attack.

—A passenger train which left Chicago on the St. Paul road the other night for Milwaukee, was held up a mile beyond Western Union Junction, Wis., by two masked men, and the express car was robbed of $5,000.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

BOLD EXPRESS ROBBERS.

—After Securing About $100,000 of the Express Money and Leaving No Trace.

—A Daring Attack.

—A passenger train which left Chicago on the St. Paul road the other night for Milwaukee, was held up a mile beyond Western Union Junction, Wis., by two masked men, and the express car was robbed of $5,000.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.

—The robbers evidently boarded the train on the front platform of the front car at Western Union Junction. They put on their masks, and as they passed the water-tank, two thirds of a mile north of the junction, they climbed over the side of the car and crept into the express car.