working together harmoniously, and, we think, are bound to succeed.
 H. W. Winsor will sell at public auction on his farm, three and one-half miles southwest of Dwight, on Wednesday, December 2, 1891, four good horses and fifteen head of stock. This is an excellent opportunity to buy some fine stock.
 Mr. S. M. Witt was taken suddenly ill Monday and was taken to Pontiac to his home. It was at first thought that he was stricken with paralysis, but we are glad to announce that this is not the case. Mr. Witt's many friends hope to see him about shortly.
 W. H. Robbins, of Beatrice, Nebraska, an old-time resident of Dwight, came in last Tuesday night to visit his old friends in this city. It has been sixteen years since he left here and the old place looks familiar to him although greatly changed. He left on his journey home at 10:30.
 Prof. C. E. Schlabach, our popular principal of the schools, has an interesting article in this month's School News on "Poisons and Their Antidotes." It is very instructive and we shall publish it in full at some future time. By the way, the School News is an instructive newspaper that every teacher and friend of education cannot well afford to be without.
 The boiler, pumps and necessary articles for the water works pump house have arrived and in about ten days will be placed in position. The smoke stack will also be ready by that time. The committee has decided to build a reservoir and work will be commenced on it immediately. The slating of the power house is nearly completed, and there is a fair prospect of fire protection by Dec. 1.
 We are in receipt of the Will County Horseman, of Joliet, one of the best papers published in the west, this week. In the issue at hand, we notice complimentary notices regarding some of our prominent importers and breeders, among whom are Messrs. J. P. McWilliams, J. A. Hayes and J. Williams. Also many of the prominent horsemen of Odell, Gardner, Pontiac and other places in this neighborhood.
Attention Knights.
