

Mr. Tingley's Good-Bye.

Mr. Tingley of New York left us last Wednesday. In his speech to the club Tuesday morning which will be long remembered by those who had the pleasure of hearing him, he said many good things. We give it below:

It seems to have been the irony of fate that has compelled me to make these remarks following so closely upon those made by my brother, Mr. Mitchell of Chicago. It had been my intention to have covered some of the lines laid down by my eminent predecessor. You have listened with such rapt attention, but I have so clearly and perfectly traversed the points I had intended making that I can scarcely say to you that the sentiments he uttered were my own so entirely that I give them my full and hearty endorsement. If the old saying is true, "as you sow, so shall you also reap," then the fact that a patient has undergone a course of treatment which would keep his lips hermetically sealed, but I should be recreant to my better nature if I allowed this opportunity to come without saying a few words. I know well how unkind I am to the task, and I recognize that I was subjected to a pressure of an awkwardness which I speak, and so are all who hear me. I know how to be grateful to those who have helped me, and I know how to be grateful to those who have helped me.

From D. D. O'Brien. The following letter was received by the club on November 22nd, and was thought so good by those who heard it that permission was secured to publish it. Mr. O'Brien is one of the most eminent lawyers in the northern part of the state, and during his stay in Dwight took an active part in the affairs of the club. Here is the letter:

ROCHELLE, ILL., Nov. 21, 1891. J. D. KEELY, Esq., in the event of his deposition or abatement, then to the present incumbent of the office of President of the B. C. of Gold Club, Dwight, Ill. GAZETTE. After leaving Dwight Nov. 5th and arriving home Nov. 9th at 1 a. m., I celebrated on the day the 38th anniversary of my birth, and we all enjoyed a luxury of happiness because of my birth anew through the instrumentality of Dr. Keely.

expression of thanks and a token of appreciation for his many valuable services to the club during his term of office. The badge of office was then conferred upon the new chairman, and the meeting adjourned.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms. Near The Institute, and at Various Parts of the City.

Twenty-nine new members were proposed and accepted Monday. Mr. James Martin, of Chicago, departed for his home Saturday. Mr. Wm. T. Powell, of Newark, New Jersey, left Sunday morning for his home.

Mr. Jno. Hanlan of Chicago has been appointed janitor vice Mr. Brenner, resigned. The cold weather has its effects upon members as is shown by the decreased attendance at the morning meetings.

Mr. White left for his home in Chicago Saturday morning. He has been a familiar figure in the club room and will be much missed. Ministers may denounce and doctors and others scout and rail at the idea of drunkenness being a disease; but the good work of rescue goes on just the same.

Prof. Weihe, our violinist, who has delighted so many audiences with his music, left for his home in Salt Lake City yesterday. Mr. Weihe received a hearty vote of thanks from the club.

Not a single good-by talk was made in the club room Monday morning; something which has not occurred for many a week. The vice-president took cognizance of this fact when he made his debut Tuesday morning.

Among the departures from Dwight on Wednesday and Thursday were Thos. Waddy, H. E. Lamb, Messrs. Warren, J. W. Carroll, Simmons and Wheaton of Chicago; Crum of Rockford, Brice of Peoria and others.

For his words of kindness and fairness in his recent lecture, a vote of thanks and a hearty invitation to come and view the modus operandi of Dr. Keely's company was extended to Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage on last Monday morning.

The usual entertainment was given at the club room Saturday night. The program was short and the musical numbers seemed to be lacking. The selections rendered, however, were good, and Prof. Weihe as usual received several encores.

Mr. Chas. Poe, of Baltimore, Md., a nephew of the great poet, Edgar A. Poe, made a short good-by talk to the boys last Saturday morning. He left for his home the same day, and thinks his stay at Dwight has been a most profitable one.
