IT IS A BITTER FIGHT.

Both sides determined in the coal fields. The Situation is Serious. From the outlook it is impossible to say what will come of the strike in the Brazil, Ind., coal fields.

Neither the operators nor the miners have a move toward settlement. Both are determined and silent. The miners say nothing short of starvation will drive them into the mines.

It is the jealousy which exists between the soft coal operators and the block coal operators. They are for the present pulling together, but a separation may occur at any time.

The strike of two years ago, said one, "we held out seven months, and not one of us was arrested for lawlessness."

The permit giving the Progressive Benefit Order of Boston the privilege of doing business in Indiana was revoked by the State Auditor.

The strike of telegraph operators on the Pacific section of the Southern Pacific system threatens to involve the entire Atlantic coast and the West.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The only safe lunatics are those who are under rigid restraint. New York Tribune.

If some restraint is not put upon the use of dynamite and such convenient explosives, the world will be a very different place.

Russell Sage has probably sold more puts and calls than any other ten men in America.

The attempt on the life of Russell Sage in New York is the neediest type of the most rigid regulations with respect to the use of such explosives as dynamite.

The Legislature atured a shock, not least, its criticism to death by electricity.

The execution of the murderer Lopp, at Sing Sing, is pronounced a success by the attending physicians.

The earthquake in Japan. Japan's home market for earthquakes seems to be overstocked.

The recent earthquake in Japan will pass into history as one of the greatest catastrophes of the century.

The details of the recent earthquake in Japan show that the disturbance was on a colossal scale.

It has been decided in Chicago that a schoolmaster be dismissed by the teacher because some of the scholars have eaten onions.

The place for the onion-eater is in the so-called fields or the bed-chamber with the windows well down.

Nothing less than a danger to the health of the school at large will justify sending a pupil away from the schools.

Congress presents as striking a change in its personality as in its partisanship.

The new Congress has a great deal of new material in its make-up.
