

Election of Officers.

The regular election of officers took place on Wednesday morning. The name of Waller Young of St. Joseph, Mo., was placed in nomination for the office of chairman, and upon being put before the house was chosen unanimously. Mr. Young has been a very prominent man in Missouri, having been in the senate several times, and will no doubt make an excellent presiding officer.

Two names were placed in nomination for vice-chairman; those of Mr. Wooten of Texas and Mr. Bingham of Pennsylvania. Mr. Wooten's name was withdrawn at his own request, and Mr. Bingham was elected unanimously. He responded to the call for a speech with a short address.

The retiring vice-chairman, Mr. Richardson, made an excellent talk to the club, in which he stated that he was thoroughly satisfied with the treatment and also of the fact that Dr. Keeley had done what he contracted to do. Mr. Richardson has not been called upon to preside over us since his election to office, but he has furnished much amusement at our club entertainments and will be much missed by all who have had the pleasure of meeting him.

Col. Morrison, after conferring the badge of office upon his successor, made his farewell address to the club. It was full of good points, and he referred to his little wife at home with feeling and in a manner which brought tears to the eyes of many in the audience. Col. Morrison has made a most excellent presiding officer, and by his simple unaffected manner has endeared himself to all with whom he has come in contact. He left us on the noon train Wednesday, and was speeded on his homeward journey by the hearty well-wishings of the entire club, a great many of whom were at the depot to see him off.

Wednesday Night.

The club room was overcrowded as usual. There were many good numbers rendered, but the stag orchestra and especially the handsome double bass manipulator, Mr. G. D. Barnett, covered themselves with laurels. Of course some who were on the programme failed to show up when the time came, but others were there to take their places and the "show went smoothly on." Here is the programme:

Part I. Club Orchestra Solo—"O Fair Dove! O Fond Dove"—H. Shepard Recitation—"The Raven"—Mr. Whelan Quartette—"Love's Old Sweet Song"—Messrs. Zimmerman, Evans, Shepard and Houston—"STAR AND HERALD QUARTETTE" Part II. Instrumental Duet—Harp and Guitar—Messrs. Spuhler and Clifford Recitation—"A Tale of the Sea"—Mr. Cory Solo—"With Heart and Soul"—W. J. Baker Comic Song—"The Old Folks at Home"—Mr. Winslip Solo—"The Old Folks at Home"—Mr. F. Lavender "Home, Sweet Home"—By the Entire Audience For the benefit of those who do not know, we will state that the amusement committee is composed of Messrs. Wm. J. Baker, W. C. Rogers and G. D. Barnett, who will be pleased to see all who can assist at the entertainments.

Mr. G. M. McKenzie, of Muscatine, Iowa, left us Wednesday afternoon. He made a good speech to the club Tuesday, and said he would give in his experience after treatment in about six months, as he would be better able at that time to tell whether he was cured or not. Mr. McKenzie was a member of the amusement committee and has been active in our entertainments.

Ex-Judge William Henry DeWitt, of Chattanooga, Tenn., has been a patient at the institute for the past four weeks. Judge DeWitt is sixty-four years of age, and has served in the Confederate congress. He made a splendid address to the club Tuesday morning, and one which will be long remembered by all who heard it.

Mr. J. W. Groves, of Viroqua, Wis., left us last Monday morning. In his farewell address to the club that morning, he said that Dec. 14th, 1891 was the happiest day he had seen for a long time. He returns home a cured man, confident that the prayers of an aged mother have been answered.

Dr. Keeley was a visitor at the club room Saturday. He is always a welcome guest.

Mrs. George D. Barnett, of St. Louis, left for her home last Friday. Mrs. Barnett accompanied her husband who is taking treatment at the institute. She favored the club with many solos during her stay in Dwight and her fine voice and pleasing manners at once found favor with her audiences and won her many friends among club members. She received a unanimous vote of thanks from the club for her services, and will be long remembered by all who have had the pleasure of meeting her.

Jno. P. Davidson has been appointed sergeant at arms. Mr. Purcell of Virginia left us on Thursday morning.

Letters were received Thursday morning from Ex-President Vandervort, Mr. Hofflund, our ex-pianist and W. Z. Hickman.

Dr. Pappan, of New Mexico, left us Thursday morning.

Geo. W. Cory, of N. Y. city, left us Thursday morning.

Mr. Turner, of Plattsburg, Mo., was among the departures from Dwight this week. Mr. Turner has served four terms in the legislature of his state, and was a prominent member of the club while here.

We see in the Daily Mail of Fort Worth, Texas, a half-column article on Dr. Keeley and the institute at Dwight. It was written by J. W. Buchanan, formerly a well-known citizen of this place, having lived here several years, but now secretary and treasurer of the Mail Publishing Co. The article is a good one and speaks of the doctor's coming visit to Fort Worth with pleasant anticipation.

Goodfarm.

Miss Elsie Stevens came home sick last week and is improving slowly.

Mr. Ed. Deol's family has been suffering from la grippe. All are improving.
