Dwight Star and Herald.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

THE DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD wishes you all a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Secretary Kehoe is spending the Christmas holidays at his old home in Kentucky.

Song service was held at the club room at 9:30 Sunday morning, conducted by the vice chairman.

Letters were received from two ex-presidents of the club Monday: Messrs. J. Hayden Burns and Jno. J. Flinn of Chicago.

Mr. Wall, of Tampa, Florida, talked to the club a few minutes Wednesday morning. He left for his home that evening.

Owing to the crowded condition of our paper this week the club news is necessarily somewhat short. Hereafter, however, this department will be up to the usual standard.

Mr. Wooten of Texas was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the vice-chairman Wednesday morning. A good selection, and he will fill the office with credit.

Mr. Bingham, of Pennsylvania, the vice-chairman, resigned his office Wednesday morning, as his term of treatment at the institute had expired. A vote of thanks was tendered him for his services.

Among those who graduated last Friday night were the following: J. Ivason, J. H. Holland, J. C. Jones, C. F. Cooper, W. Craft, Wm. Tear, Jno. A. Norton, Jno. D. Ward, Geo. D. Barnett, D. A. Pine, Mr. Graham.

Of course all well-regulated club members will hang up their stocking. The STAR AND HERALD takes this opportunity to fill them with a host of good wishes for the future welfare of every individual member of the club.

Dr. Sydnor, of Troy, Mo., one of our musicians left us Monday evening. He has furnished the club much amusement at their entertainments, and will be speeded on his homeward journey by the best wishes of all he left behind.

Harry Lawrence, at the earnest solicitation of his many friends, was at the club room Wednesday morning and talked to the boys, relating some of his experiences. Harry is a great favorite with club members, who are always pleased to hear from him at the club room.

Mr. Hyatt of Chicago left Tuesday. In the course of a few remarks made by him to the club that morning, he said he was proud to be among the number of such a noble band of men. The larger portion were true, whole-souled men. The treatment received at Dwight would make him stand firm, and he left for home without the least desire for liquor.

Mr. Winship, of Chicago, was among the departures from Dwight this week. In his speech to the club Tuesday morning he expressed it as his opinion that every member of it should bid it good-bye. His stay in Dwight had been made pleasant by contact with club members, and he felt that he should thank them for courtesy received at their hands.

Mr. Geo. D. Barnett left for his home in St. Louis Sunday, after playing a star engagement in Dwight and in the club room. Good-natured, genial Barnett will always be remembered by the club, as well as his charming little wife who has accommodated us so many times with her delightful music. They have the best wishes of the STAR AND HERALD.

The editorial stocking will be found hanging up at our office. To all who wish to contribute to our happiness and aid in making the editor's Christmas a merry one, we will say that the best way you can do so is to come around and subscribe. Drop $1.25 in the stocking and take out the STAR AND HERALD for a year. It gives all the club news, and will make a nice Christmas present to the home folks.

Mr. W. H. Baker of St. Louis left for his home Wednesday. He has been prominent in club matters, and especially so in our entertainments. He has been chairman of the musical committee for some time past and through his efforts the tone of our entertainments has been unusually good. He received a hearty vote of thanks from the club as a slight token of recognition for his services, and has their best wishes for his future success wherever he may be.

Christmas day will be celebrated in various ways by club members. To-night (Christmas eve) an excellent programme will be rendered at the club rooms, by the colored dining car employes of this city. The club rooms will be open as usual on Christmas day, and of course the devotees of "cinch" will hold a session in the annex, as well as at their boarding houses. And remember, too, boys, that although Christmas is a little dull for you this year, and you are spending it far away from your home and fire-side, around which are clustered those you love and cherish most on earth; remember that by being here you are bringing joy and happiness to the hearts whose love you have so often ruthlessly trampled upon, and that December 25th, 1891, will be the happiest Christmas they have spent for many a year. Your home-coming will be all the more joyous for it, and the bright face of your mother, wife, sister, or father which greets you on your return from a brief sojourn at Dwight will amply repay you for spending Christmas away from home.

Saturday Night's Entertainment.

The most interesting feature on the program last Saturday night was some exceedingly fine pen sketches by Mr. Lungren. A branch from a rose bush, showing roses in full bloom, buds, leaves, etc., was first drawn. Mr. Geo. D. Barnett and his double bass were next represented, and Dwight's muddy streets and impassible crossings were shown up to the best advantage. Mr. Barnett captured both his own picture and that of "McSourley's Twins," which he says he shall frame and present to his wife.

Mr. Finley, at the request of several members, repeated his recitation, "No Seats in Heaven," which was greeted with much applause. Mr. Barnett, finding the accompaniment to "McSourley's Twins" too difficult for anyone in Dwight to master, played it himself on the bass viol. He was remunerated by vigorous rounds of applause. A duet, "The Minute Gun at Sea," by Messrs. Shepard and Zimmerman, was accorded an encore. We append the programme:
