The Metropolitan Accident Company is making very profitable terms with the members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold club who accept positions with that company. For particulars call upon Dr. C. H. Barr or address the company at 169 Jackson street, Chicago.

The gas well at Odell, which created so much excitement several days ago, has through the too persistent efforts of its owners to make it a howling success proved a failure. In trying to bore the well deeper, they went through the gas vein, striking a large vein of water.

Talk about your Billy Myer and "Gooseberry" Rules, you should have witnessed the set-to between a couple of men working in the burnt district Thursday morning. They went at it hammer and tongs until Contractor Holman laid his brawny hands on them and told them to let up and they let up.

The Schumann Lady Quartette with Master Harry Diamond at the M. E. Church, New Years Eve, Dec. 31, '91. The Schumann Lady Quartette will undoubtedly be greeted by a crowded house as they gave the best entertainment of last winter's lyceum. Reserved seats at Da. Barr's drug store without extra charge.

We hear of the proposed organization of a large band, which, by the way, is a much needed institution in Dwight. The following gentlemen are among those who will probably jam wind: H. Hussey, Chas. Green, Lee Barnum, J. Anderson, F. A. Fox, Jas. Goodman, A. R. Zimmerman, F. L. Evans, Frank Barnum, Horace Shepard, S. E. Houston, C. A. Oakland, H. L. Hagerty and others. A meeting of the above will be held in the Town House Monday night, Dec. 30.

Death of Mr. Gillispie. Mr. Wm. H. Gillispie, an old and honored resident of this vicinity died last Saturday after an illness of about five days, at the age of about 58 years. Mr. Gillispie had an honorable war record and was a member of the Dwight Post. His character was above reproach and his kind acts to his fellow men many. His death caused sadness throughout the whole community. The funeral was held at the house Monday afternoon, Rev. Conard preaching the sermon, after which many friends followed the remains to the grave at Oak Lawn. His family have the sympathy of the public in their affliction. Following is the OBITUARY. The deceased, William Henry Gillispie, was born in New York state, Oct. 16, 1833. In 1859 he came to this state and in the following year was married to Mary Ann Wright. The wife and four children, three sons and one daughter, mourn the departure of a kind and loving husband and father. We as friends are grieved, for to us he was ever kind and helpful. The universal testimony of those who know him is, a good man has gone from our midst. Thus far the family had been spared the chilling touch of death. But he who comes sooner or later to us all, now holds the bitter cup of sorrow to the trembling lips of this bereaved family. May God's loving arm be their support.

Installed and Banquetted. The Masonic installations and banquets every year are always grand successes, but this year the grandure was added to by the addition of the ladies of the Eastern Star. These merry ladies and gentlemen and quite a number of friends gathered at their hall Tuesday evening and the old officers were reduced to the ranks and new ones elevated to the honored positions. After the reception of visitors and everybody was made to feel at home, the ceremony of installing the officers of Livingston Lodge No. 371, for the ensuing year were commenced. Past W. M. Fremont Vickery acted in the capacity of installing officer, and Brother J. R. Oughton as marshal, much to the credit of both gentlemen. The following are the new officers: W. M., Henry Fox; S. W., Andrew Hansen; J. W., A. Bovik; Treas., J. B. Parsons; Sec., Frank Ford; Chaplain, John Leach; S. D., Dwight Mills; J. D., Geo. Peterson; Stewards, B. A. Buck and M. Difenbaugh; Tyler, Thos. Weldon.

After these impressive ceremonies the officers of Dwight chapter, No. 166, E. S. were installed by Mrs. Pitkins, of Peoria, past grand secretary of the grand lodge of Illinois, assisted by Mrs. T. A. Marteeny, of Peoria, who did their work in an impressive and beautiful manner. The officers installed are as follows: W. M., Mrs. Joe Miller; W. P., Chas. L. Romberger; A. M., Miss Nora Goodman; Treas., Miss Estella Baker; Sec., Miss M. Pettitt; C., Miss Lucy Crandall; A. C., Mrs. Chas. L. Romberger; Warden, Miss Maggie Austin; Sentinel, Geo. Peterson. The five points of the "Star" were represented as follows: Ada, Mrs. John Leach, Ruth, Mrs. Geo. Taylor; Esther, Mrs. Samuel Wilkinson; Martha, Mrs. Carl Miller; Electa, Mrs. B. A. Buck.

The beautiful adjunct to the regular order, Floral Edendi, was finely accomplished. Old members of the Masonic order say that the military drill by the ladies was the finest they ever witnessed. The following ladies took part: Mesdames Joe Miller, B. A. Buck, Carl Miller, Geo. Taylor, Jno. Leach, Chas. L. Romberger, Misses M. Pettitt, Lucy Crandall, Estella Baker, Nora Goodman. Ruth and Naomi were represented by Mrs. Buck and Miss Goodman, who sang nicely and filled the positions finely.

The lady quartette, Misses Lower, Barr, Penn and Winkler, discoursed some fine music during the evening. Prof. Harris also pleased the assembly with songs—comical and otherwise. After the exercises the whole party formed in procession and marched to the Livingston where Mine Host Staunton had a grand banquet spread for the occasion. After doing ample justice to the beautiful and bountiful spread, a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Staunton for the excellent and satisfactory manner in which he had performed their wishes in regard to refreshments. Following is the menu.

Consome Princeene, Oysters a la Poitevie, Gherkins, Olives, Fillet of Beef, aux Champignons, Potato Croquettes, Orange Sherbet, Larded Quails a la Macedoine, Chicken Salads, Beef Tongue Sugar Cured Ham, Roast Turkey, Fancy Cakes, Vanilla Ice Cream, Assorted Fruits, Coffee.

It was quite late when the ceremonies were over and consequently speeches were dispensed with at the banquet. Members of the floral team presented Mrs. Marteeny with a handsome silver card receiver in loving remembrance of her kindness in teaching them the drill work.

Card of Thanks. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Feddersen and Miss Petrine Nelson, wishes to return their sincere thanks to those who so kindly contributed to our friend Andrew Nelson, and otherwise showed their kindness in our bereavement.

Thanks. Mrs. J. Burns had the misfortune to have her clothes line robbed last Thursday night by sneak thieves. There could be no meaner thing none than robbing this hard-working woman of nearly eight dollars worth of clothing representing her hard earned money. The clothing belonged mostly to patients, and much to their credit, they refused to take any money from Mrs. Burns. She feels very thankful to the gentlemen.

Sold Out. H. H. Cutting, familiarly known as "Hunt," has sold out his little store opposite the club house, and retired from business for the present. Mr. Cutting has made lots of friends in Dwight who will be glad to learn that he intends to remain among us. Messrs. Sargent & Bassett, the two young gentlemen who made the purchase, are well known in Dwight as straight forward business men and undoubtedly will do a rushing business. We wish him success.

Dissolution Notice. The partnership heretofore existing as Weber & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. B. Weber retiring. Messrs. Sorensen & Parker will continue the business under the firm name of Sorensen & Parker. All indebtedness of the late firm will be paid by the present firm, and outstanding debts collected by them.

SORENSEN & PARKER. Hay for Sale. I have about seventy tons of No. 1 timothy hay for sale. Three miles east and 1.2 north of Campus, Ill. P. J. DUFFY.
