made a short talk, and said he would make his farewell address on Friday morning as he would not leave until that date.

From Ex-Chairman Flinn.

The following letter was received from Ex-Chairman Jno. J. Flinn of Chicago last week, and would have been published in our Christmas edition but was unavoidably crowded out. We give it this week:

To the Officers and Members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold Club of the World:

GENTLEMEN: I take my pen—or rather my typewriter—in hand at last to do what I should have done some time ago. I take my typewriter in hand, because with the general secretary of the gentlemen in the world. My hand—roughed then a man to humiliation and even the eloquentist who rendered his "At the Concert" effect at it might find it difficult to wade age of my manuscript successfully.

sol with high honors and a gold seal from the Keeley Institute on Dec. 3, 1913. During the interval I have had my limbs pains in my back, palms and palms in my stomach. I have alternated "grip" and I have if, never for a single moment had a demerol of any character whatever, my aches and pains and troubles, I appy in the consciousness and in the—before I left Dwight. They took my reaction would most probably come and would be prepared for it. It came, and I had it passed.

nd upon my return to Chicago that my had overworked himself in my absence, necessary that he should rest. It is also necessary that I should relieve him. His chief complaint was given by the fact of being very busy since I left Dwight, but from some minor inconveniences at the my head has been perfectly clear and I say that this very experience was pre-ferred by the physicians of the Keeley to before I left Dwight. They took my reaction would most probably come and would be prepared for it. It came, and I had it passed.

accomplished young ladies as he had met during his stay in Dwight. (Great applause.) In this he was warmly seconded by the chair, who added that Mr. Jones was known as the handsomest man in his graduating class.

Christmas Eve at the Club.

A fair-sized audience gathered at the club rooms last Thursday night to hear the Christmas eve entertainment. Owing to some misunderstanding the dining car contingent were not present, and the entertainment consisted principally of musical selections by members of the club. The programme was very well rendered, and the evening was made all the more enjoyable by the spirit of good feeling and fellowship which seemed to fill the hearts of all upon this most joyous occasion. Following is the programme:

- PART I.
- Overture "Anchored" Club Orchestra
  - Solo—"The Song That Reached My Heart" Miss Gertrude Ketchum
  - Selection "Star and Herald Quartette" Mr. Brown
  - Recitation "At the Concert" Miss Annie Ziegler
  - Piano Recital Mr. Brown
  - Solo—"The Song That Reached My Heart" Miss Gertrude Ketchum
- PART II.
- Selection "Star and Herald Quartette" Mr. Brown
  - Recitation "At the Concert" Miss Annie Ziegler
  - Piano Recital Mr. Brown
  - Solo—"The Song That Reached My Heart" Miss Gertrude Ketchum

Thanks.

At the entertainment Christmas eve, the STAR AND HERALD QUARTETTE received the hearty thanks of the club for their services. In addition to this, Chairman Young said "he didn't know how the club could ever repay them, unless they went down to the office in a body and subscribed." The STAR AND HERALD office, from the editors down to the devil, always stands ready and willing to do anything in their power for the club or its membership. Never hesitate to call upon us when you want anything in our line, and if we can render any assistance in club entertainments, however humble it may be, you will always find us at home. In return for this we wish to merit your good will, and the confidence and esteem of all members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold club wherever they may be.

A Neat Souvenir.

Messrs. C. W. Dabb & Co., of the Commercial Hotel in Chicago, are continually doing something for the B. C. of G. club and looking to the interests of its members. There were received at the club rooms this week several thousand souvenir autograph books, the gift of the above named firm, with their advertisement on the back and a hearty invitation to all club members to call when in the city. They also send a number of little tin postage stamp boxes, quite a convenient contrivance for carrying stamps around in the vest pocket, with instructions to "send for more when these were out." These gentlemen are very popular with club members, and a cordial welcome always awaits the B. C. of G. men at their popular hostelry, corner Dearborn and Lake streets, Chicago.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

Nine new members were enrolled Monday.

Mr. Lane, of Chicago, left for his home Monday.

Thirteen new members were admitted Friday.

Several club members spent Christmas at Chicago.

Mr. Conlin, of Missouri, left for his home Wednesday.

The 2500th mile post was passed Wednesday morning.

Col. Nixon and his "Kidd" are prominent members of the club.

Letters were received Tuesday morning from Messrs. Chas. H. Larkin, of Wisconsin, Ex-President J. Haydon Burns and R. S. Tomlinson of Slater, Missouri.

An interesting letter was received Monday from Mr. Harry A. Bronson of Rockford, Ill. Mr. Bronson made many friends during his stay in Dwight who were pleased to hear from him.

Mr. Hillman said good-bye to the boys Wednesday morning. He expressed himself satisfied with the treatment and will visit his mother soon when he returns home. He said he knew he was cured and intended to remain so.

Mr. J. B. Deal made a short talk to the club Tuesday morning. He said he came here a temperance man and was going home a reformed temperance man. He had been treated with courtesy by the club, and felt that he had many warm friends among club members.

In a letter received this week from Dr. G. G. Bennett, of Halstad, Minn., this week, he says he is all right and entirely cured of the desire for either whisky or morphine. The doctor left Dwight on Dec. 6th, and while here was a very popular gentleman with all who knew him.

Ex-Chairman John J. Flinn, of Chicago, came down Saturday night and remained over Sunday with the club. He made an excellent talk to the club Monday morning, giving his experience since leaving the care of the institute. Mr. Flinn was a very popular chairman, and upon graduation received a gold-headed cane as a token of remembrance from the club. A vote of thanks was unanimously tendered him for leaving his business interests in Chicago and coming down to say a few words of cheer and encouragement to the members.

Among the members of the graduating class of Monday night were the following: Messrs. L. C. Zollap, T. H. Cochran, Jno. A. Miller, D. Smith, H. F. Bushy, Page Pythian, J. B. Deal, Jas. Mont, — Lucius, Wm. Dolier, Wm. De Gross, Jno. Guy, Jas. Clifford and S. F. Simpson.

We have received a copy of the Courier, published at Blair, Nebraska, at which place a branch of the Keeley institute is located. It is a bright and newsy little sheet and devotes several columns to the proceedings of the League, of which organization it is the official organ at that place.

Mr. S. F. Simpson took his departure Tuesday. He said he thought it his duty to say something to the club. He would have left the second day after his arrival if he could have done so, but circumstances prevented. He was not used to "shaking," but he couldn't address an audience like this one without shaking all over.

Mr. T. T. Finley, a warden of the southern prison at Chester, Ill., who has been taking treatment at the institute the past few weeks, left for his home a happy man last Thursday. "Fin," as he was familiarly called here, was a prominent member of the club and a general favorite with all the boys. He has our best wishes for unlimited prosperity in the future.

Mr. Geo. E. Taylor, of Denison, Iowa, an old graduate, is visiting the club and old friends this week. Mr. Taylor left Dwight last September, and since his graduation has brought sixteen men to the institute at this place for treatment. He is a good and faithful member of the club, working earnestly for its best interests, and is always heartily welcomed by club members when business brings him to Dwight.

While in Chicago Christmas day, the reporter called upon Mr. J. M. Farrell, who finished treatment here some six weeks ago. Mr. Farrell was a prominent member of the club and by his earnest efforts as chairman of the amusement committee secured excellent numbers for our entertainments. Mr. Farrell is cashier for the Saratoga Hotel on Dearborn street, and we are pleased to say has excellent prospects for the future.

There is some talk of changing the present name of the club to the "Keeley League." There are a number of bogus Bi-Chloride of Gold clubs throughout the country who are imposing on the people, and working them for all they are worth for purposes other than the genuine Bi-Chloride of Gold club sanctions. We would like to hear an expression from club members on this subject, as the future welfare of the club in a great measure depends upon it.

Mr. F. H. Lungren, of Cincinnati, the accommodating sketch artist who has been with us for the past three weeks, and who has delighted so many audiences at our club entertainments with crayon sketches of its members, made his farewell talk to the club Wednesday morning. Mr. Lungren is thorough gentleman, and has added not a little to the amusement of the club by his work, which is to be seen in various places in the audience room and the "annex." Just before leaving he finished a portrait of Dr. Keeley, which, however, scarcely does that gentleman justice.
