LOCAL EVENTS.

Happy New Year. Dr. Keeley was a Joliet visitor Monday. Bon Bon bread, sold by Witt & McKay. Our club news is well worth perusal this week. M. Hurley spent the holidays with relatives here. Let us all quit our foolishness—swear off as it were. Circuit court commences in Pontiac next Tuesday. Game wanted at the Livingston hotel at market prices. Mrs. Henry Fox has been quit sick for the past week. Rowe & Horr pay the highest cash price for live stock. Mrs. W. G. Dustin visited friends in Chicago Christmas. The new passenger station is assuming fine proportions. Attendant Johnson visited his home in Joliet, Wednesday. Harry Lawrence was in the city on business, Wednesday. Mr. W. H. Ketcham did legal business in Chicago Wednesday. For fine oysters in bulk call at Rowe & Horr's meat market. Twenty-five cents buys fifty printed milk tickets at this office. County Treasurer Baker has paid out $76.24 for sparrow bounty. Miss Louise de Clercq spent the holidays with her people here. Contractor Holman spent Sunday with his family in Chicago. Ketcham & Smith have a few rare bargains in farm property. Marsh's adjustable book holder and writing desk at Seymour's. B. A. Buck has some good gasoline stoves he will sell very cheap. Sewer pipe tile of best kind at Walter Scott's. Ketcham's old stand. Our club editor, Horace Shepard, visited in Chicago Christmas. Sweet potatoes, celery and cauliflower at the Star Grocery house. Choice Bartlett pears by the peck or bushel, at the Star Grocery House. Davis' sewing machines at Buck's. Don't buy before seeing his stock. Everything in the fruit and vegetable line at the Star Grocery House. Get a nice choice at any kind of meat for Sunday at Kern's market. For fine chocolate and cream Bon Bon Candies call on Witt & McKay. Don't forget that Phil Wiecker will deliver bread in any part of the city. Engraving FREE OF CHARGE on all articles of jewelry sold by McCauley. Granulated meal and graham flour just received at the Star Grocery House. Just received a fresh supply of cakes and crackers at the Star Grocery House. Gardner and Streater were well patronized by Dwightites Christmas day. The holiday trade in Dwight was good, but not as large as was expected. If you have any plumbing or steam fitting to do, call on Thomas Blair & Co. Witt & McKay are now prepared to furnish meals at all hours, in bon ton style. Percy Eldredge has accepted a position as night operator at the Alton depot. Miss Lulla Stevens and Anna Dunlop enjoyed their school vacation at home. There is nothing like fine meat to draw trade. Geo. Kern has it at his market. Twenty different varieties of embossed interior finish, sold by G. Z. Flagler. The offices of the Leslie E. Keeley company are moved into their new building. A nice Sunday roast is a good thing. Call on Rowe & Horr and get any cut on want. Milk tickets—pints and quarts—all priced, for sale for 25 cents per fifty at this office. The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardianer's. See the Mosely folding, self-heating bath tub now on exhibition at Baker's Furniture Store. Geo. Kern's new meat market proved a success from the start. Good meat does the business. Misses Vernie and Jennie Koehlein spent the Sabbath with relatives and friends in Chicago. Remember that we can get you any paper, magazine, or periodical, that is published in the United States or Canada, and at as low a rate as any publishing house. Flagler & Potter have received a large invoice of stoves for the winter trade. Call and see them. Remember that Walter Schott sells the best had and soft coal in town, at Ketcham's oldstand. Beef, pork, veal, fish and everything the market affords at Rowe & Horr's east side meat market. A good, solid foundation is a good thing. W. H. Conrad has the best of stone for that purpose. Dr. Ubellar, dentist, graduate of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, 2d door north of Institute. We present on the first page to-day a view of the new laboratory and office of the Leslie E. Keeley Co. Have you chickens for sale? If so call on Rowe & Horr and get the highest market price for them. Mr. John Dillon, reporter on St. Louis Dispatch, was a guest of John and Miss Pettitt, Christmas. The big dry goods house of Charles Bradley, of Fairbury, is in the possession of Sheriff Coe at present. The Orange Judd Farmer and the STAR AND HERALD one year for $2. This it to new subscribers only. ENGRAVING handsomely done, and watches to be repaired in the best manner and warranted.—McCauley. THE LOWEST LIVING PRICES on watches, clocks, jewelry, etc., at the corner. Try it.—Jas. McCauley. Next Sunday services commences the Week of Prayer at the M. E. Church, and services will be held nightly. For the next 30 days you can buy carpets cheaper of Miller Bros. than any other house can possibly give you. Work is progressing rapidly on the Ketcham, Diefenbach, Koehlein and Strufe buildings on Mazon avenue. Dwight real estate is O. K., and any one wishing to make an investment will do well to call on Ketcham & Smith. Do you want to buy a good heating or cook stove? Go to Flagler & Potter, they handle the best in the market. Remember THE STAR AND HERALD office is located just east of Weese's blacksmith shop, on Delaware street. Engineer Jones and Fireman Reeder took a lay off this week on account of engine No. 20 being on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Beck and daughter, of Aurora, are visiting this week with the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart. W. H. Conrad, the lumber man, has everything on hand that is needed in building. He deals fair. Give him a call. For painting, paper-hanging, decorating, or anything in this line, leave your orders at B. A. Buck's hardware store. Thomas Blair & Co., the plumbers, have a full stock of plumbing and steam fixture fittings always on hand. Call on him. Look out for the new butchers on Franklin street. They are not hear for their healths. Albert Bros. mean business. Give them a call. J. Schott, the tailor, has just received some very fine samples of suitings from which he will make suits from $24 up. Latest styles. Invest your money in a first-class building association, the Equitable of Bloomington. Call on W. G. Dustin at the STAR AND HERALD office. G. W. Langford, at Streater, has buyers looking for land. Write him if you want to buy, sell or exchange. 320 acres in Round Grove at a bargain. Dr. T. G. Burns, of Hittville, Kas., received a New Years gift from his father this week in the substantial form of the STAR AND HERALD, for one year. A paper from Blair, Neb., announces that Dr. Leslie E. Keeley will be present at the dedication of the new institute in process of construction there. The handsome albums, books, autograph albums, smoking sets, toilet cases and cigar stands ever brought to Dwight for sale at Seymours' drug store. Lumber and stone of good quality is what everyone wants when building a new house or addition. You can find everything you need at W. H. Conrad's yards. Albert Bros., the new butchers, next door to Seymours' drug store, say that meat is cheaper than ever and they are going to retail it accordingly. That's business. Miss Rea, of Mount Sterling, Ill., sister of Robt. of the STAR AND HERALD office, is visiting here this week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Zimmerman. The proprietors of the new butcher shop on Franklin street next to Seymours' drug store, will make special prices to boarding houses. They want to see you. Rowe & Horr, successors to Hahn Bros., have constantly on hand a large supply of the best fresh and salt meats that can be procured in the market. Give them a call. The water works reservoir at the East side park is being cemented and roofed this week. Supt. Moffatt made an extra effort to have the water turned on New Years day, but the deep well pumps did not come in time. A test will probably be made some day during the coming week. WANTED.—Three girls to do laundry work, inquire immediately at EMPIRE STEAM LAUNDRY. Baggage man Bell now rides out to his switch lamps on a neat little car of his own, presented him by the Alton road. We are obliged to leave out some railroad notes and correspondents this week. They will appear in the next issue. H. L. Hahn will dispose of a pair of ponies at Rosendall's cigar store Saturday night, Jan. 16. The team is said to be a very fine one. Ketcham & Smith sold H. H. Cutting's cigar business to Sargent & Bassett, who will be pleased to meet all the old and as many new customers as possible at the old stand. Mr. John Culberson, editor and proprietor of the Delavan, Ill., Advertiser, made us a pleasant call Thursday. He was here looking over the Keeley Institute and calling on friends. Lost—a breastpin the night of the Swedish quartette concert between East street and the church. Please return to Mrs. Connor at Baker's furniture store. Suitable reward. A good suit of clothes made to order from $24 up, by J. Schott, the tailor. His prices are very low and for cash only. Customers should call soon, as these prices will not last long. Albert Bros., two enterprising young men, have established a butcher shop in the building recently occupied by McKinley's marble shop. They have a neat little shop and mean business. John Pettitt went to Chicago Saturday to attend the drill meeting of St. Bernard commandery. He will take part in an exhibition drill at the charity ball at the Auditorium next week. Dr. Conway will be here in about ten days and can be found at Dr. Barr's drug store. He will remove his family here and enter into general practice. He is said to be a man of ability in his profession. Gene Flagler is in receipt of a live present from John R. Green, of Alabama, in the shape of a live alligator about two feet long. Gene does not "deny the allegation" but he "defies the alligator." The Fitzgerald Plaster Co. is now doing work in this city. Mr. Rodgers, their agent, will be at the Pennsylvania house. They refer parties to the McWilliams residence which they have just finished. Live in your own homes. The Equitable Building Association of Bloomington, will build you one at the same price you pay for rent. Inquire of the agent, W. G. Dustin, at the STAR AND HERALD office. Witt & McKay are now handling the Bon Bon Bread, as good as the best. They also keep constantly on hand fresh cookies, pies, cakes and buns. They will meet all competition, both in quality and price. Mrs. J. B. Parsons and daughter visited the former's parents near Chicago, last week. While there Florence, was taken quite sick and the Colonel was summoned there Saturday. We are pleased to announce that the little girls' sickness is over. The Metropolitan Accident Company is making very profitable terms with the members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold club who accept positions with that company. For particulars call upon Dr. C. H. Barr or address the company at 169 Jackson street, Chicago. The STAR AND HERALD supplement this week contains a handsome town plat of Dwight newly issued by Chas. L. Romberger, proprietor of the Dwight Land and Loan office. The only thing we see wrong about it is, that the STAR AND HERALD office is not included in the foot notes. See! Advertised Letters: J. C. Basil, Lon Bonham, L. Benjamin, Mrs. Jane W. Baker, Harry S. Cletcher, V. M. Graham, H. A. Jordan, Hendry Johnson, Jesse J. Holton, O. E. Johnson, Will Morris, E. M. Martin, Joe McCarville, Fred McFord, G. A. C. Neather, Giuseppe Purillo, W. Smith, Wm. Lyster, J. W. Wehoskey. Two of our prominent citizens were honored by election to important offices in the Masons at Wilmington. Chas. L. Romberger was elected H. P. of the Chapter, and Henry Fox to some office the title of which we did not learn. Quite a number of our citizens attended a Masonic banquet and installation there last night, a report of which will appear next week. Student Wilhelmson, a Danish minister of Evanston, has been holding services in the M. E. church this week. He is a very able man and holds his congregation spell bound. He is making friends here and the Danish church society hope to have him come here regularly. Rev. Simonsen has resigned and will leave about Feb. 1st, to take charge of a field in an eastern state. The farmers' institute in Fairbury Jan. 19 and 21, 1892, is sure to be largely attended and productive of much good. Gov. Fifer will speak the first day and ex-Gov. Oglesby the second, Hon. S. W. Allerton, of Chicago, will speak the last day. Prominent agriculturists from all over the country will be present and deliver instructive addresses. The last afternoon will be devoted to educational matters. Henry C. Dement, warden of the Joliet penitentiary, offers $50 reward for the return of escaped convict Wm. I. Lewis, who got away last Saturday. Convict Lewis is an ex-cowboy and he discovered a hook on top of the wall, and got a rope somewhere and lassoed the hook and went over the wall in that way. He was one of the men let out early in the morning to work and took advantage of the darkness. He was not missed until late in the day. J. K. McKinley has rented the front part of his marble shop to Albert Bros. for a meat market until such time as they can find a more suitable place for their business. McKinley will still continue the marble and granite business in the back part of the building, and any one wanting work in his line will do well to call and get prices before purchasing elsewhere. He will save you from fifteen to twenty-five per cent on all work in his line. All work warranted to give satisfaction. New and original designs a specialty. Round Grove. Mr. Irving Potter of Joliet, spent Sunday with Bert Pfefferman. Frank Mahanah goes to Peoria this week on a visit. Grandpa Thomas went to Fairbury Tuesday to close the sale of his farm. Mrs. Philip Clover, of Dwight, has been stopping with her son Lewis this week as they are all down with lagrippe. Chris Steger will soon move to Campus. School was closed in Dis. 5 part of last week on account of the sickness of the teacher, Miss Gammins. Lewis Pfefferman, and Ed Steger are running a corn sheller this winter. Wanted. To rent three unfurnished rooms. Enquire or address this office. Card of Thanks. The family of the late Wm. E. Gillispie wish to return their sincere thanks to the kind friends who lent their aid during the last sickness of the husband and father. Happy New Year. I am now ready to furnish farm hands, laborers, and mechanics on short notice. Those who want to hire a man of any kind call and see me at Scott's coal office, Girls wanted. J. JACOBSON. Resolution of Respect. WHEREAS, Our Supreme Commander has seen fit to call our worthy and esteemed comrade, William H. Gillispie, from our ranks here below to join the company of officers that have gone before, upon the eternal camping grounds above, therefore be it Resolved, That by his death he have lost a true and loyal comrade, Dwight Post a true member and the community in which he lived a patriotic citizen, a true and honest man. Resolved, That we as comrades of the G. A. R. should be stimulated by his zeal for the order, and strive to help make the same what it was by its founders designed to be, an order founded upon those great principles, "Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty." Resolved, That we as members of Dwight Post extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family of our departed comrade. Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon our records, and that the Adjutant be instructed to forward a copy to the family of the deceased comrade, and to the newspapers of Dwight. J. B. PARSONS, } Committee. J. McBAKER, } M. McLANE. An Introduction to the through car service of the Wisconsin Central and Northern Pacific railroad is unnecessary. Its advantages and conveniences have been fully established. It is the only route to the Pacific coast over which both Pullman vestibled first-class and Pullman tourist cars operated from Chicago via St. Paul without change. Through train leaves Chicago every day at 10 p. m. The traveler on this route passes through the most picturesque, interesting and prosperous belt of country in the western world. There is scenery with most striking contrasts that range from the rolling prairie and the pine forest level to the wildest passes of the wildest mountains in the world. There is a series of the noblest cities, towns and villages of every variety and size, from the hamlet or the tiny farm, upward, the richest mines in the world; the greatest and most lasting monuments to wisdom and industry on the continent; canons as weird as a nightmare; hills snow-capped and reaching to the magnitude of their beauty, and a perfection of comfort in traveling that has never been surpassed. Fast train via Wisconsin Central lines for St. Paul, Minneapolis, Ashland and Duluth leaves Chicago at 5:00 p. m. daily with Pullman vestibled sleepers and the Central's famous dining cars attached.
