

PLUCKY MILWAUKEE.

SHE IS SETTING THE PACE IN THE CONVENTION FIGHT.

New York Overrun with Beggars—Scanlan Plays Billiards—Assistance for Archbishop Ryan—To Restrict Making Explosives—A Wrecking Train Wrecked.

At Washington. And other communications laid before the Senate by the Vice President, on the 12th, were agreements for the cessation of their hands made...

FROM FAR AND NEAR.

The fight for the Democratic Convention is now on at Washington. The pluckiest fight thus far made is that of Milwaukee. Her efforts were at first regarded as simply amusing...

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

J. H. Meek, a prominent politician and lawyer of Danville, Tenn., is missing, and is suspected of being about $25,000 short in his accounts. He was chamberlain clerk...

POLITICAL.

John Sherman was renominated by Ohio Republicans for the United States Senate. He was chosen by open ballot, receiving 53 votes...

FINANCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL.

J. H. Kirkland, a merchant of Wellesburg, Vt., has been missing for ten days. His liabilities are about $15,000.

THE MARKETS.

Table with columns for Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Toledo, and other markets, listing various goods and their prices.

THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

Proceedings of the Senate and House of Representatives—Important Measures Discussed and Acted Upon—List of the Bills.