If you have any plumbing or steam fitting to do, call on Thomas Blair & Co. A number of our young men attended a ball at Emington, Wednesday evening.

I have for sale a fine lot of baled rye straw and timothy hay.—C. M. Baker. Save money and buy your meats poultry, fish and oysters at Albert Bros.

Canned tomatoes, corn, peas, pumpkins, string beans, etc., at Liggett & Fenn's. Special sale of wall papers and borders during January, at Baker's Furniture Store.

rect pressure apparatus at the water works refused to work. W. H. Conrad, the lumber man, has everything on hand that is needed in building. He deals fair. Give him a call.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lane, of Rochelle, are visiting in Dwight for the present. They made a pleasant call at this office. Go to Albert Bros. and get a nice roast for Sunday. Turkey, ducks, geese, rabbit, beef, pork, mutton and veal, all choice.

Mr. Allison, of Chicago, an all around newspaper man, made us a pleasant call Monday. He returned to Chicago Thursday. The Sons of Veterans are agitating the matter of building a large hall suitable for society meetings and entertainments.

Thomas Blair & Co., the plumbers, have a full stock of plumbing and steam fixture fittings always on hand Call on him. If you have any poultry, veal, hides, tallow, wool or furs to sell, call on Loease & Brown and get prices before selling elsewhere.

John D. Ketcham purchased one more lot this week on Seminoles street near the C. & A. railroad for $150 from Ketcham & Smith. Dr. Conway has purchased the handsome new residence of Dr. Palm's, in Renfrew addition, for $3,500, through Chas. L. Romberger.

Mr. James T. Fisher, who has been auditing Mr. Sheleon's books and accounts for the last few weeks, has returned to New York. We offer the Weekly Globe-Democrat and the STAR and HERALD for $1.90 a year to our subscribers who pay in advance. This is a great offer.

By arrangements made this week we are enabled to offer the Orange Judd Farmer and DWIGHT STAR and HERALD for $2 per year in advance. Has anyone a safe to rent or sell cheap, suitable to keep books in (no money goes). If so enquire at the STAR and HERALD office immediately.

The Yankee Blade, of Boston, is a $3 weekly paper. We will send the Blade and the STAR and HERALD to new subscribers for $2.25 for one year. The jolly nine gave a leap year party Tuesday. The boys all say they had a fine time. The jolly nine are in a prosperous condition and is a nice organization.

Lumber and stone of good quality is what everyone wants when building a new house or addition. You can find everything you need at W. H. Conrad's yards. Milt Witt is now the sole proprietor of the "Little Giant Restaurant" next to the Leslie D. Keeley treatment hall. Mr. Alex McKay has retired from the business.

Blair & Co., the plumbers, are prepared to make connections from the main water pipes for commercial or domestic use. Parties wanting water should call on them. Remember that we can get you any paper, magazine or periodical, that is published in the United States or Canada, and at as low a rate as any publishing house.

Mr. Clyde Lower, of Lanark, Ill., nephew of Alderman Lower, is visiting here this week. His father, Eli Lower, is well known in Dwight, having been an old resident here. The Home Times, of Planagan, has been improved and enlarged recently. Mr. Breen, the editor, has also enlarged and improved his household by the addition of a wife.

Emma Barr, Mabel Huey, Gussie Blaine, Fay Blaine, Fannie Corner, John Doherty, Frank Williams, Chas. Adams and Clarence Rabe. We are in receipt of the obituary of Grandma Martin, who passed away at the home of her daughter in Clinton, Ind., recently. It is too late for publication this week but will appear in the next issue.

Dwight Mills has purchased four acres of land one-half mile east of town and will run a general vegetable garden business the coming summer. He will also handle all kinds of nursery stock and garden supplies. CHAS. RICHARDS, the drayman, is having a 15 barrel water tank made and will soon be ready to fill your orders for SOFT WATER from the Spencer deep well. When you are out or rain water drop him card.

Miss Ella Fenn had the misfortune to drop her handsome gold watch in the cistern at her home Sunday. It was rescued from a watery grave by Mr. Fenn shortly afterwards, but was a little the worse for water. The dining car boys of the Alton will give a grand annual ball at Bloomington on the evening of Feb. 11. Prof. Harris informs us that it will be a "Hummer" sure. The boys are a jolly set and a good time is assured.

Mr. John Vickery, accompanied by his wife and niece, started for Florida Tuesday last. They expect to remain until warm weather comes again. Mr. Vickery has been one of the many suffering from influenza and his many warm friends wish him a speedy recovery. Look up our Western Rural offer in this issue. It's a daisy. We have made this low rate with the publishers for the benefit of our patrons and to induce every subscriber to pay us in advance. $2.35 takes them both. Tell your neighbor.

The Metropolitan Accident Company is making very profitable terms with the members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold club who accept positions with that company. For particulars call upon Dr. C. H. Barr Sargent & Bassett or address the company at 169 Jackson street, Chicago. Dr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Keeley left for Omaha and Blair, Neb., Wednesday morning. They will be present at the dedication of the new institute at the latter place. They were in Kansas City last night where the Doctor lectured made under the auspices of the newly organized Bichloride of Gold Club.

All parents who are interested in the welfare of their children should read Superintendent Foster's article in the "Superintendent's Column" this week and every week, for that matter, and assist in carrying out his recommendations. You will always find this one of the many interesting features of the STAR and HERALD.

Advertised letters, Jan. 20, 1892.—Chas. Cogan, Chas. Donigan, Carl Edwards, H. K. Fox, Fitzgerald and Dick, Harry N. Gilman, Mr. Hamilton, Dr. C. Harvey, J. D. James, Miss Anna Kaungner, Mrs. A. J. Pike, Harley C. Phelps, Miss Annie Benton, C. J. Brown, Miss Emily Barry, Mr. A. Clark, Prof. P. T. Coleman. A novel leap year party was given at the Normal University building. The following toasts were responded to by the girls: 1st, "Advantages of Leap Year;" 2d, "Sorrow;" 3d, "The Moon;" 4th, "Is it in accord with the conventionalities for a man to say NO in Leap Year?" 5th, "The Mitten;" 6th, "The n(N)ormal Man." This was handed us by a young man from Dwight who was present but did not want his name mentioned. We don't know whether he was afraid his best girl would find it out or not.

The township officers met Thursday afternoon at the office of John Thompson and after deliberating a short time named Nathan Baker as collector in place of Collector Young, deceased. The following named gentlemen were applicants but made no especial effort to get the appointment: Messrs. Jas. Goodman, Conrad Semante, Sam Thompson, Nathan Baker and Phillip Miller. The latter offered to turn over to the widow half the amount received for collecting which would amount to about $100. Mr. Semante offered $50. We hear that Mr. Baker will turn over a good share of the proceeds to the widow.

Captain Harry Insley, of Leavenworth, Kas., purchased of The Leslie E. Keeley Co., this week, the right of the Bichloride of Gold Cure for the state of Colorado. The sum paid and necessary amount required to locate and commence is about $100,000. We don't know of anyone except the poor printer, that we rather see prosper than Mr. Insley. He is a brilliant lawyer and a jolly, liberal and good-hearted man—just the kind one likes to meet. He has held several positions of trust in his state, having been paymaster general on the Governor's staff when only 23 years old, and is now captain of a crack military company. Capt. Insley is a member of most every secret society and is way up in them all. He it quite well-known in Dwight among the members of these societies. Mr. Insley's wife and father will be in Dwight to-day.

W. H. KETCHAM, Attorney at Law.
