

10 Cents a Line.

We announced in our issue of Jan. 2, that all local reading notices would hereafter be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Buy the Indiana block coal at Scott's. Colby pianos stands second to none.

Nice fat tender chickens at Losee & Brown's.

Jewett piano makes friends wherever used.

A good cook wanted. Enquire at this office.

Levi McConnell was a Gardner visitor Tuesday.

Live pigeons bring a good price at Losee & Brown's.

Game wanted at the Livingston hotel at market prices.

If you want a piano or organ see Lovell & Fuller.

Twenty-five cents buys fifty printed milk tickets at this office.

Ketcham & Smith have a few rare bargains in farm property.

County Clerk John George smiled on his many friends here Friday.

Sewer pipe tile of best kind at Walter Scott's. Ketcham's old stand.

Misses Minnie Lower and Sadie Clarkson Sundayed in Chicago.

Lost—$100—If you purchase a piano of anyone but Lovell & Fuller.

The Conover piano has gained a reputation envied by competitors.

Miss Millie Winkler is quite sick at her home on West Delaware street.

Neatly printed cards, "Furnished Rooms to Rent" for sale at this office.

I have for sale a fine lot of baled rye straw and timothy hay.—C. M. Baker.

Save money and buy your meats poultry, fish and oysters at Albert Bros.

Ed. Payne who is attending school at Ottawa, is reported sick with diphtheria.

Special sale of wall papers and borders during January, at Baker's Furniture Store.

The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardenier's.

Fred Liggitt was called to Normal Saturday on account of the sickness of relatives there.

The Indiana block coal lasts longer and is cleaner than any other soft coal. Get it of Walter Scott.

Losee & Brown have nice soft feathers to sell. Throw away your old straw bed and sleep on feathers.

Remember that Walter Schott sells the best hard and soft coal in town, at Ketcham's oldstand.

A good, solid foundation is a good thing. W. H. Conrad has the best of stone for that purpose.

Dr. Ubellar, dentist, graduate of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, 2d door north of Institute.

An elegant line of oak side boards and chamber suits from $15.00 to $50 at Baker's Furniture Store.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Martin and little Vernon, are spending a week in Watseka and Cissna Park visiting.

The Orange Judd Farmer and the STAR AND HERALD one year for $2. This is to new subscribers only.

Frank Thole is home on a visit from his duties as cashier of the First National bank, of New Castle, Ind.

It will pay you to see us; get prices on pianos if you contemplate buying within one year. Lovell & Fuller.

Mrs. Sam Boyer presented her husband with a nice little nine pound boy Friday morning. Everything is lovely.

W. H. Conrad, the lumber man, has everything on hand that is needed in building. He deals fair. Give him a call.

Thomas Welsh and Miss Maggie Steger, of Campus, were married this week. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Go to Albert Bros. and get a nice roast for Sunday. Turkey, ducks, geese, rabbit, beef, pork, mutton and veal, all choice.

Thos. Weldon having sold his residence on Seminole street, has moved back on his farm, two miles south of Dwight.

Henry McLane is moving his machinery from his store house on Chippewa street, to his new quarters on Mazon avenue.

A hall is being erected in the west end by the Danish Brotherhood suitable for holding entertainments and meetings.

Dr. Weld of the institute, was called to his former home in Wisconsin Tuesday by a dispatch announcing the serious illness of his father.

J. A. Spencer has built an ice house 40x60 and is filling it with ice. On cold nights he lets the water run in on sufficient quantity so that it will freeze.

This novel plan does away with lots of manual labor and it is said makes excellent ice. Mr. Spencer does not get left on a cold day.

We offer the Weekly Globe-Democrat and the STAR AND HERALD for $1.90 a year to our subscribers who pay in advance. This is a great offer.

Save money and keep your house clean by using Indiana block coal. Walter Scott, the coal dealer will supply your wants in that line.

By arrangements made this week we are enabled to offer the Orange Judd Farmer and DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD for $2 per year in advance.

Has anyone a safe to rent or sell cheap, suitable to keep books in (no money goes). If so enquire at the STAR AND HERALD office immediately.

The Yankee Blade, of Boston, is a $3 weekly paper. We will send the Blade and the STAR AND HERALD to new subscribers for $2.25 for one year.

Mr. H. C. Pettett, of Chillicothe, Ill., a prominent attorney, and son of Henry Pettett, spent the week here, and attended the funeral of his mother.

Lumber and stone of good quality is what everyone wants when building a new house or addition. You can find everything you need at W. H. Conrad's yards.

Walter Scott is filling his ice house fast. He has received twenty carloads of fine ice so far, and will be able to supply the demand in this neighborhood.

An excellent programme consisting of twelve numbers will be rendered by the Whitney Mockbridge Concert Co., at the M. E. church next Tuesday evening.

Blair & Co., the plumbers, are prepared to make connections from the main water pipes for commercial or domestic use. Parties wanting water should call on them.

A marriage license has been taken out by Mr. C. H. Dubridge to wed Miss Mary Coughlin, both of Dwight. Mr. and Mrs. Dubridge have the congratulations of many friends.

The Nelson boy, of Gardner, who got his skull smashed jumping from a freight train a few weeks ago, is up and around, much to the surprise of the doctors and others.

Frank Reser will supply the public with the best milk in the market—pure Jersey. Give him a call. Orders can be left in the postoffice or at his residence on Delaware street.

Miss Addie Brown entertained a number of her young friends Thursday evening. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all. Miss Slyder, of Pontiac, is a guest of Miss Addie this week.

Thanks for the liberal patronage of the citizens of Dwight, and with the prospects so flattering we will still remain here a few days longer with a new assortment of pianos. Lovell & Fuller.

Our handsome passenger station is fast nearing completion. The slate roof was put on the first of this week. The awnings and sheds on the end of building are very ornamental as well as useful.

One share in the Equitable Loan and Investment Association, to maturity, will cost $45 and is worth $100. The $45 is paid in payments of 55 cents a month for 80 months. W. G. Dustin is the agent in Dwight.

The Whitney Mockbridge Concert company will be at the M. E. church Tuesday evening. It is one of the best companies traveling, and a fine entertainment is assured. Reserved seat tickets at usual place.

CHAS. RICHARDS, the drayman, is having a 15 barrel water tank made and will soon be ready to fill your orders for SOFT WATER from the Spencer deep well. When you are out or rain water drop him card.

Levi McConnell will sell at public sale on the old Jim Watson farm north of Reddick, Tuesday, Feb. 9, horses, cattle and farming utensils. This is a good chance to stock up. Col. Germain will do the selling.

Flager & Potter have a fine lot of stoves, handsome heating stoves for hard or soft coal, cook stoves, ranges, small and large. All heating stoves will go at cost. Now is your time for bargains. Give them a call.

Advertised Letters:—Soren Anderson, J. O. Anderson, J. W. Chance, C. Donaldson, Geo. Fletcher, Jacob Hansen, J. L. Holloway, Miss Lulu Johnson, H. O. Richardson, John H. Scofield, J. P. Thompson, Mrs. Abby Temple.

Owen Ralph will sell at public sale at his residence eight miles west of Dwight and one-half mile north of Nevada, Saturday, Feb. 6, eight head of horses, four cows, and lots of good farming utensils. This is a good chance to stock up.

The "washee washee" at the Empire Steam Laundry quite work last Saturday afternoon—some because they were requested to and others because they wanted to. The supply was equal to the demand, however, and business is going right along.

N. W. Hahn, formerly editor and proprietor of the Gardner Journal, died at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Lea of Mazon, Sunday night. Mr. Hahn has been married less than a year, and was lately employed in Chicago where he was taken sick. The funeral was held Tuesday and was largely attended.

Lost.—A light brown satchel, between M. E. church and W. Morris's residence, containing one pair gloves and rubbers, one pair gold eye glasses and a tooth brush. A suitable reward will be given for return of same to this office.—MISS ROSE McCARTER.

Miss Beecher, from Venona, Ill., a graduate of one of the leading musical conservatories is coming with excellent recommendations, to organize a class in Dwight. Those wishing to take first class instructions on either organ or pianoforte, enquire of Morgan Bros.

The Western Rural map of the United States and the Canadas is a fine one and the proprietors are disposing of many of them. Subscribers can get them for $1. The retail price is $5. We will send you the STAR AND HERALD, Western Rural and the map, for $3.35.

The Sons of Veterans are endeavoring to raise money in their order to erect a hall 40x100, the front part to be two stories, the second to be used by societies and the first for entertainments of all kinds. We hope they will succeed as a hall of that kind is much needed.

The Metropolitan Accident Company is making very profitable terms with the members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold club who accept positions with that company. For particulars call upon Dr. C. H. Barr Sargent & Bassett or address the company at 169 Jackson street, Chicago.

It was reported in Gardner Wednesday, that Dr. McAdams, who is in jail at Morris for burglary, was not expected to live. A telegram was received by his family to that effect. He couldn't have been very sick, however as he made a desperate effort to escape Thursday.

Conover Bros., Colby & Co., Jewett, A. & W. Pianos. Now for sale at Dwight For a few days more.

Prices low for cash or monthly payments. Lovell & Fuller.

Do you want a home? All you have to do is to have a lot clear and the Equitable Building and Loan association will let you have the money, and you can pay it back in payments that are as easy as paying rent, and when you get through you will own your house. W. G. Dustin, agent.

Mr. Insley, of Leavenworth, Kas., the gentleman who has purchased with his son, Captain Harry, the right of the Keeley cure for Colorado, spent most of the week at the Livingston and at the institute, posting himself to commence business. The new institute will be located at Colorado Springs.

Subscribers will please examine the tag on their paper and act accordingly. We need money to pay our debts. All papers published away from home demand cash in advance invariably. Why not use your home paper the same. The STAR AND HERALD office is half a block east of Chas. Waters' brick building on the corner of Franklin and East Delaware streets.

George Cornell, of Moberly, Mo., brought the body of his little girl to Dwight for interment Monday morning. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Daniel Smith. Mr. Cornell's affliction is doubly great as his mother died only a short time ago while on a visit to him at Moberly. He has the sympathy of all.

Mr. G. H. Thomas, of Joliet, made us a pleasant call Saturday. Next week he will move from Joliet to Chester, Neb., where his brother and sister resides. Mr. Thomas also said that he thought his father would also move to Nebraska in the spring. The Thomas family from top to bottom, are very popular wherever they are, and we wish them all prosperity and happiness wherever they are.

Col. J. C. Lewis took a trip to Pontiac Wednesday evening a little contrary to his wishes, but came back Thursday morning. He had some souvenir spoons to deliver to a lady and gentleman leaving on the Hummer, and boarded that fast running train for that purpose. The train started up a little too sudden for J. C., and he was taken to Pontiac. He says he had a very pleasant visit and a nice ride.

Dwight Mills has made arrangements so that he can furnish home grown nursery stock at as low prices as any other dealer for first-class stock. He guarantees that his stock is home grown. He will also make park and lawn stock a specialty. Mr. Mills' long residence in Dwight and thorough reliability is well known and insures good honest dealing, and we advise anyone needing anything in his line to call on him before purchasing.

Hand Made Harness For Sale. I have a few sets of first class farm harness for sale, brand new. Guaranteed good solid leather, hand made. Terms and prices reasonable.

H. T. McLANE.

Rooms Wanted. Four or five unfurnished rooms, near business center. Will pay good price. Inquire at this office.

To Be or Not to Be

OWNER OF YOUR OWN HOME?

You can as well as not be king of your own castle. COME TO and let them sell you a house that you can get in 10, 20 and 30 days.

KETCHAM & SMITH,

We have one that you can move into at once. New, good location, seven rooms. $1500.

Watch for our reconstructed list NEXT WEEK. We are of good opportunities for homes or investments.

CHUCK FULL

MILLINERY!

Call on the Old Reliable Store

Mrs. Fenn, Has an elegant display of the latest styles of Fashionable Millinery. AN EXPERIENCED TRIMMER. And the best dressmakers can always be found at MRS. FENN'S PARLORS. The ladies are cordially invited to call and see the handsome display of Fall and Winter goods at her store in HETZEL'S BLOCK.

M. F. Reilly & Co., REDDICK, ILL., HEADQUARTERS FOR Such as Bibles, Dressing Cases, Albums, Dolls, Toys, Games, Musical Instruments, and Notions. We quote a few of our prices on other goods, Best Standard Roasted Coffee 25c, Yeast Foam 4c, Currants, per pound 7c, Good Raisins, per pound 8c, Large Sweet Oranges, per dozen 2c0. We can save you from Two to Five Dollars on every Suit of Clothes or Overcoat purchased before Jan. 1st.

Scientific American Agency for PATENTS. For information and free Handbook write to MUNN & CO., 361 BROADWAY, NEW YORK. Largest circulation of any scientific paper in the world. Scientific American FOR A First-Class Shave, Hair Cut OR BATH GO TO THE LIVINGSTON Tonsorial Parlors. Under Livingston Hotel.

F. A. FOX, ARCHITECT, Contractor and Bulider, Plans and Specifications a Specialty, furnished on short notice. OFFICE WITH KETCHAM & SMITH, J. C. OAKSHETT, M. D., Successor to Dr. M. Houston, Office and Residence, THIRD HOUSE WEST OF THE OLD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Dwight, Illinois.

I. I. I. Time Table. On and after Sunday, December 21, 1890, trains will leave Dwight as follows: TRAINS WEST. No. 1, mail 2:30 p. m., No. 3, express freight 4:20 p. m., No. 5, express freight 4:40 p. m., TRAINS EAST. No. 2, mail 9:52 a. m., No. 4, express freight 11:52 a. m., No. 6, express freight 2:10 p. m. All trains daily except Nos. 1 and 2 Sunday. All trains carry passengers to regular stopping points. S. W. COOK, Gen'l Pass. Agent. C. H. SMITH, Supt. J. B. FRANCE, Local Agent.

C. J. BROWN, REDDICK, ILLINOIS, Harry Lawrence, "B. C. of G. C." RESTAURANT. OYSTERS IN SEASON. CIGARS AND TOBACCO. Fruits and Confectionery. Breeder of Pure-Bred Poland China Swine. All breeders recorded in Ohio P. C. Record. Stock of both sexes for sale. Prices reasonable. Come and see. Store on West Street, next to the Leslie E. Keeley Co.'s office.