Our old townsman, John Stewart, contractor and builder, is gaining an excellent reputation for good, honest work. Mr. Guardianer's new two-story residence on East Chippewa was built by Mr. Stewart and is a plain, neat and substantial house. Mr. Guardianer is well pleased with the workmanship, the quality of material used, and especially so as to the price charged. Mr. Stewart's thorough reliability is assured when it is known that no contract, plans or specifications were agreed on, and still Mr. Stewart used the best of material throughout.

Wanted.

Two girls for general work immediately. Good wages will be paid. Inquire at the Pennsylvania House.
