

Death of a Patient.

Mr. J. H. Culver, of Cherry Valley, Ill., who has been taking treatment at the institute, died at the Cornell house last Friday night of pneumonia, having been sick but a short time. Mr. Culver it seems was in straitened circumstances, and in order to procure the means to come to Dwight his son mortgaged his team of horses. At the meeting Saturday morning a relief committee was appointed, of which Mr. Rousseau of Missouri was made chairman, to take charge of the matter, and through respect to the dead the meeting adjourned until 3 o'clock p. m. Three subscription papers were immediately started, and in a short time sufficient money was raised to cover the expenses of the funeral. Mr. Baker, the undertaker, donated his services and only charged the actual cost of casket and shroud. Mr. Cornell remitted the board of Mrs. Culver, the two attendants, and the cost of mattress and bedding, and the Keeley Co. paid for casket and shroud, leaving in the hands of the committee something over $80 which was handed to Mrs. Culver at the train.

At the afternoon meeting a committee appointed for the purpose submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS: It has pleased the Divine Ruler of the Universe to remove from our midst Bro. J. H. Culver, of Cherry Valley, Ill., who departed this life at Dwight, Ill., on Friday, Jan. 29, 1892, at 8 p. m., therefore

Be It Resolved: That the Bichloride of Gold Club of the World humbly submit to the Divine will, and hereby tender to the family and friends of the deceased our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of their sad bereavement.

Be It Further Resolved: That the Secretary of this club be directed to spread upon the records of this club this preamble and resolution, and furnish the same for publication to the DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD, also to the papers of Cherry Valley, and mail a copy to the widow of our deceased brother.

Respectfully submitted, FREEMAN P. LANE, O. M. SHANKLIN, M. D. McFARLAND, Committee.

Wednesday Night.

The entertainment committee were somewhat at a loss last Wednesday night, for just about one-half the talent relied upon failed to show up. The Dwight orchestra was present and filled in several numbers on the programme. Mr. H. W. Birt, whose musical talent is well known to our people, rendered two very nice selections. A violin solo by Prof. ... showing the many different positions in which a violin may be played, elicited an encore. By special request of the audience, Mr. Harry Crane rendered "The Picture that is Turned Toward the Wall," accompanying himself on the guitar. The entertainment was very good, what there was of it.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

Mr. Elliott, a graduate of last September, is renewing acquaintances at the club this week.

Ex-Chairman Lane has been quite sick at the Byington house this week. We hope to soon see him up and around again.

The club will probably not get into their new quarters before the first of next week, as the treatment hall is not entirely finished.

W. A. Barkalow, of Omaha, Neb., was among those who left Dwight on Thursday. He made a short talk to the club Thursday morning.

Col. W. S. Thomas of Pittsburg, Pa., left us Thursday. He has been a constant attendant at club meetings and has taken an active interest in all the proceedings.

Mr. E. J. Colley, of St. Paul, Neb., left us Wednesday. Mr. Colley is a member in good standing of the "Jolly 40," and graduated from the institute with high honors.

E. W. Kimball, of Concord, N. H., was among the graduates this week. The club are indebted to Mr. Kimball, for much amusement at the entertainments, and he will be remembered with pleasure by all.

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley lectured to a large audience at Canton last Friday night for the benefit of the Bichloride of Gold club of that place. Quite a sum was realized, which will be used in sending persons to Dwight.

Howard Smith of Bloomington, has been authorized by Dr. Keeley to start a bichloride of gold cure institute in the state outside Dwight or Chicago.

The doctor will furnish physicians and attendants and Mr. Smith will be manager. He is now looking for a suitable city to locate in.

The benefit entertainment at McVicker's theatre in Chicago Thursday night, for the benefit of the Chicago Bichloride of Gold club, was largely attended and a good sum realized. Quite a number from Dwight were present.

Ald. Thos. Owens received twenty-one letters from friends in Dwight this morning. Evidently Thomas' pet name among the patients was "Sarah Bernhardt," as one-half of the letters were addressed to Sarah in care of Thos. Owens.—Morris Post.

Dr. Douglas, of St. Paul, Minn., was among the departures from Dwight this week. Dr. was head usher on entertainment nights, and the easy grace with which he seated all the young and good-looking ladies in his immediate vicinity was a marvel to all beholders.

We understand that a Bichloride of Gold club will soon be organized at Sycamore, Ill. There are about ten graduates at that place, and three more are now in attendance at the institute here; so if all join the organization will have a good membership to start with. Let the good work go on.

A great many citizens of Dwight will remember David G. Calder, of Salt Lake City, Utah, who finished treatment here last fall. We have received a letter from him in which he states that he is still among the 95 per cent, and the older he grows in the cure the greater is his aversion to liquor.

Mr. D. Crawford, of Chicago, was among the departures from Dwight this week. He came to this country when but sixteen years of age to rid himself of the liquor habit, and after many years more of continued drinking found himself at Dwight. All this time he has been able to attend to his business, but not nearly so well as he will now.

H. G. Gorin, the Chicago butcher, graduated from the institute Friday night. Gorin is another one of the jolly crowd which has made time pass so pleasantly at the club the past three weeks. He talked to the club Saturday afternoon, and is leaving us a new man. Hereafter liquor will have no more charms for him than the glue he is such an artist in manufacturing.

Mr. H. H. Crane, of Kansas City, left us Thursday. Mr. Crane was the accomplished mandolin player and leader of the club orchestra, and his music has added not a little to the enjoyment of our club entertainments. Mr. Crane's sister, Miss Norme, has been visiting him during the latter part of his stay, and the two have made many warm friends and pleasant acquaintances at the club.

Among the graduates last Friday night was Judge Freeman P. Lane, ex-chairman of the club, of Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. Lane made an excellent talk to the club Saturday afternoon, which was greatly appreciated by all who heard it. He has made one of the best officers ever occupying the chair, and has many friends among club members. We wish the judge success and prosperity in his new life. Ald. Owens returned home Saturday night and is in excellent condition although he doesn't seem to have as much avoirdupois as when he left. Before leaving the Keeley institute, Thomas was tendered an ovation by about five hundred of the inmates, who prevailed upon him to make a ten minute speech, and he rendered such a temperance oration that will long be remembered in that institution.—Morris Post.

Smith B. Hall of Minneapolis, Minn., departed for home Sunday morning. Smith belonged to the "jolly 40" and assisted in making life as pleasant as possible for all club members. Mr. Hall has made many friends among the boys, and has the thanks of the STAR AND HERALD for substantial favors. He made a short but excellent talk to the club Saturday afternoon, and has the best wishes of all for his future success.

Ed. Rumsey, of St. Louis, departed for his home at noon Saturday. Rumsey has been sick a good deal since his arrival in Dwight, but nevertheless he managed to have a little fun during his treatment. He was the intimate friend and counselor, and at one time side partner of Sarah Bernhardt Owens, and the two were inseparable friends. Rumsey left for home too early to talk to the club, but returned his thanks to the club through Smith Hall.

Geo. C. Messer, of Chicago, our worthy and efficient young sergeant-at-arms, resigned his office Wednesday morning, as his treatment had expired. In his talk to the club George said he left Dwight with much regret, yet with joy that he was able to return and face his mother a sober, honest endeavoring young man in his new life. A resolution thanking Mr. Messer for his services was unanimously adopted, and Mr. Connelly of Chicago appointed as his successor.

An election of officers of the Joliet Bichloride of Gold club was held in Justice McSherry's office, with the following result: President, Wm. E. Strickland; vice-president, Martin J. Murphy; secretary, M. J. Rooney; treasurer, Henry J. Weber; delegates to the world's convention in Dwight Feb. 15 next—W. E. Strickland, M. Corcoran, M. J. Rooney, ex-president of the Dwight club. It was decided to invite Doctor Keeley to lecture there at some date to be selected by himself, probably in the spring.

Mr. M. M. Riley, of Bessimer, Mich., made the best talk we have ever yet heard in the club room, on last Monday morning. He talked from the standpoint of a man who has had a great deal of experience, and viewed the treatment from all sides. Mr. Riley has been an earnest, thoughtful patient and since he has been here has not once missed a dose of medicine or his hydropenic treatment at the institute. If all men were like Mr. Riley the average of cures would be 100 instead of 95 per cent.

Meeting of the Keeley Institute Co. We clip the following from the White Plains, (N. Y.) Reporter:

Manager C. E. Persons, of the Keeley Institute of White Plains, has returned from Duluth, Minn., where on January 14 he attended the first annual meeting which controls the White Plains institute and the right to use the Keeley cure in New York state.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. M. Smith, of Duluth, Minn.; vice-president, Fred Reynolds, of Duluth, Minn.; secretary and treasurer, S. E. Frazer, of Duluth, Minn.; directors, J. M. Smith, Fred Reynolds, J. K. Persons, J. A. James and C. E. Persons.

President J. M. Smith will assume the management of the institute at Westfield, N. Y.; A. H. Drum has been appointed manager of the branch at Binghamton, and Mr. Persons will continue his efficient management of the White Plains institute.
