

A collision occurred on the El river branch of the Washburn Road near Columbia City, Ind., last night...

At Washington, two young men, named McCreary and Vandevanter, had a quarrel over a game of pool...

Fred Grace, of Excelsior Springs, Mo., recently, in a fit of pique, after a quarrel with his sweetheart, married another girl...

John Robison, the negro who made a murderous assault on Mr. Carey, a merchant at Shaw's Station, Miss., and then robbed Carey's safe of $500, was captured and hanged...

Charles Carter was killed in his house near Guthrie, O. T., by the Watkins gang.

Jonathan Crago and his wife were killed at Denver, Colo., by a Union Pacific train.

During the last six months fully a couple of hundred horses have been stolen in the vicinity of Peoria, Ill.

Brakeman Fairbanks was fatally injured and four cars of stock killed in an accident on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad...

An explosion of a stationary boiler occurred at the Peoria, Ill., plant of the Western Railroad round-house...

At Little Rock, Ark., in the Columbia County Circuit Court, J. E. Speers, convicted of the murder of John Hunt, was sentenced to be hanged May 27.

THE FIRE RECORD.

A fire occurred in the Lackawanna Valley House, Scranton, Pa., causing a loss of $5,000.

An explosion of a stationary boiler occurred at the Peoria, Ill., plant of the Western Railroad round-house...

At Little Rock, Ark., in the Columbia County Circuit Court, J. E. Speers, convicted of the murder of John Hunt, was sentenced to be hanged May 27.

At Little Rock, Ark., in the Columbia County Circuit Court, J. E. Speers, convicted of the murder of John Hunt, was sentenced to be hanged May 27.

At Little Rock, Ark., in the Columbia County Circuit Court, J. E. Speers, convicted of the murder of John Hunt, was sentenced to be hanged May 27.

PERSONAL MENTION.

The illness of ex Emperor Fonseca is so serious that his recovery is considered out of the question.

William Wilson, the famous portrait painter, was stricken down with a fatal illness while at the Brooklyn Chess Club.

Samuel Kahn, the New York bridge player, is reported to be recovering from an illness which he contracted while playing in London.

It was stated at the residence of J. W. Gould that the latter's attack of illness was passing away and that he would undoubtedly be able to leave for the South very soon.

POLITICAL.

The 6th millid option bill was defeated in the Iowa Senate by a vote of 23 for and 23 against.

One of the Washington rumors is that Secretary Noble will soon succeed Whitelaw Reid as Minister to France.

Judge C. H. Layman, of Benton, Frankfort, Ky., is a candidate for Attorney General.

The Arkansas Republican State Convention met and issued a call for a State convention to be held April 7, to select delegates to the National Republican Convention.

The Portuguese Senate has passed the economic bill.

The British steamship Orkla reached quarantine from Swansea, England, Thomas Jenkins was found hidden in the hold after the ship was in midocean.

Italian papers announce that King Humbert will visit England next July.

Berlin was shaken to its center Thursday afternoon, and for a time it looked as though the horrible scenes of the Franco-Prussian war were to be re-enacted in the German capital.

placers. The bitter feeling of the masses against the Emperor and those who were driving out Germany or striving to powder all those who had been faithful to the empire.

A coal war is slowly but surely approaching. The Scottish mining delegates assembled in Glasgow...

A ministerial crisis is imminent at Rome. It is probable that Signor Luzzati, Minister of the Treasury, and Signor Brancaccio, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, will leave the Cabinet.

Dr. Valkovitch, the Bulgarian agent at Constantinople, who was stabbed by an unknown man, died. The murder is attributed to a Russian named Ivanoff, an accomplice of Kaulbars.

Minister Charles Emory Smith said at St. Louis that all of America's gifts to help the Russian people be faithfully applied through trustworthy agencies.

The Russian famine fund in New York is now $3,274.

The Government of Russia has officially accepted the offer of the expedition of Capt. Youngusband and Lieut. Davidson from the Panthers by Russian officers.

All but twelve mail bags of the 157 which were on board the steamship Elder, which was lost, have been recovered.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Alabama moonshiners have been captured near Birmingham by United States detectives.

The colony of negroes who were on their way to Liberia took a vote. Out of the 170 present seventy-seven decided to return home.

The Ohio Millers' Association wants reciprocity with France and Germany and other countries.

There is a big kick coming from Minnesota against the British Canadians who are carrying on a large business in the State.

The British steamer Cyril, from Northern Brazil, brings news that great dissatisfaction prevails among the people at Manaus.

The freight steamer British King brought 14,113 boxes of tin plate to Baltimore. This is the largest amount that has been brought here in one cargo since July last.

The New York contractor threatens to close his doors if the proposed bill of the Brooklyn church unless several bills are paid which stand against the institution.

The courts of Pierre, S. D., have directed the issuance of a writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court in cases of the American and Adams Express companies, which object to their franchises being taxed.

Nixson and Ladd, ex-Governors are on their way to New York from where they expect to make arrangements for transportation to Liberia.

The movement to have Georgia represented in the World's Fair has taken definite shape. Judge Allen, of the State, represented, as led by Mrs. Felton, they have made the agitation a success.

Preparations for another Cuban revolution are in progress in New York and other American cities, as well as upon the island.

The Board of Lady Managers of the World's Columbian Exposition have issued a circular inviting the women designers of America to make competitive designs for an official badge.

Major McDonough, of Savannah, Ga., has made public facts which go to prove that a plot to kill him in existence.

At Tucson, A. T., M. F. Shaw, ex-Sheriff of Pima County, was arrested by United States Marshal Paul, charged with smuggling cattle bound in Mexico.

Frank Belfrage, a farm-hand, was found in a box-car near Peoria, Ill., on the Peoria and North-Western Railroad.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

The annual dog show at New York closed, the receipts having been $15,000.

tional because it delegated legislative powers to the executive. Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Lamar dissented from the opinion of the court.

The Federal Grand Jury, at Boston, has indicted all of the officers and directors of the Cattle Feeding and Distilling Company, better known as the Whisky Trust, for violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Secretary Blaine has given official notice of a definite agreement for the establishment of a commercial reciprocity treaty between France and the United States.

John Anderson, a Dane under arrest at Cleveland, is said to have over thirty wives.

The Executive Committee of the Texas Bankers' Association issued an address to farmers and business men regarding the reduction of the cotton average 15 per cent.

The railroad wars have gained another important victory over the interstate commerce law in a decision handed down at St. Louis, Ill.

Warren Springer, of Chicago, was indicted by the Grand Jury for manslaughter in the boiler explosion case.

At Freeport, Pa., a church trial of several days' duration was concluded with the expulsion of William Clow, a deacon of the Methodist Episcopal denomination.

At San Antonio, Texas, Alejandro Gonzalez, father of the revolutionist Garza, gave $3,000 bonds to answer charges of aiding and abetting the revolutionists.

The net indebtedness of the world in 1904 was $24,000,000,000.

Eight hundred timbermen from the Ashland, Aurora, Norrie, East Norrie, and Pabst mines at Ironwood are on a strike.

The Union Pacific Road yielded to the demands of its employes at Omaha. The action being stimulated by a strike of the men were preparing for an immediate strike.

The city attorney of Milwaukee has advised the administration to sue its former treasurers for the funds appropriated as interest.

The Diamond Match Company, of Chicago, bought the plant of the Zook (Pa.) Match Company for $290,000.

Representatives of the Anglo-American syndicate have concluded an arrangement whereby the syndicate is to take the Ontario Cotton Mills on the first of April.

The Baltimore Southern Railroad, which Baltimore officials are interested in, has been leased by the Norfolk and Western.

Advices have been received at Minneapolis of an advance in the price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

GIVEN OVER TO MOBS, THE NATIONAL SOLONS, INDIANAPOLIS RULED BY A BAND OF STRIKERS, SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Policemen Unable to Restrain the Mob - Cases Prevented from Running - Drivers and Conductors Heavily Beaten and Many Others Injured.

Culmination of the Strike. The culmination of the street car strike was a disastrous day in the history of Indianapolis.

One hundred strikers met one car at the Grand Opera House. Here a desperate encounter occurred with the police, and when it reached Washington street, the main thoroughfare, the mob had increased in numbers to 1,000.

Warren Springer, of Chicago, was indicted by the Grand Jury for manslaughter in the boiler explosion case.

At Freeport, Pa., a church trial of several days' duration was concluded with the expulsion of William Clow, a deacon of the Methodist Episcopal denomination.

At San Antonio, Texas, Alejandro Gonzalez, father of the revolutionist Garza, gave $3,000 bonds to answer charges of aiding and abetting the revolutionists.

The net indebtedness of the world in 1904 was $24,000,000,000.

Eight hundred timbermen from the Ashland, Aurora, Norrie, East Norrie, and Pabst mines at Ironwood are on a strike.

The Union Pacific Road yielded to the demands of its employes at Omaha. The action being stimulated by a strike of the men were preparing for an immediate strike.

The city attorney of Milwaukee has advised the administration to sue its former treasurers for the funds appropriated as interest.

The Diamond Match Company, of Chicago, bought the plant of the Zook (Pa.) Match Company for $290,000.

Representatives of the Anglo-American syndicate have concluded an arrangement whereby the syndicate is to take the Ontario Cotton Mills on the first of April.

The Baltimore Southern Railroad, which Baltimore officials are interested in, has been leased by the Norfolk and Western.

Advices have been received at Minneapolis of an advance in the price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

The price of blinding twine for the coming season of from 3 to 4 cents a pound.

Doings of Congress. In the Senate, the 24th, after the introduction of several bills, the session was taken up by consideration of the Idaho election case and the reading of President Harrison's special message concerning the World's Fair.

The time of the House was entirely consumed, the 25th, by consideration of the Craig-Stewart election case from Idaho. This question was not settled. It also occupied the attention of the Senate for a while.

In the Senate, also, the report on the rainfall experiments called for by Mr. Sherman's resolution was presented and read. Also, the Committee on Agriculture reported Mr. Hale's resolution of Jan. 19, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for copies of all reciprocal agreements under the last tariff act.

The time of the House was entirely consumed, the 25th, by consideration of the Craig-Stewart election case from Idaho. This question was not settled. It also occupied the attention of the Senate for a while.

In the Senate, the 26th, after several bills were reported and placed on the calendar, the 27th, an election case was again taken up. Mr. Claggett, the contestant, was presented to the Senate by Mr. Stewart and recognized by the presiding officer as the contestant.

After he had spoken about two hours but without finishing his speech, Mr. Claggett yielded the floor, and the case went over without action. After a short recess, the session of the Senate adjourned till the 29th.

In the House, Andrew Stewart, of the Twenty-fourth Pennsylvania District, was introduced on the 26th. He is a Democratic contestant, declared the regularly elected Representative. Nothing else of importance was accomplished.

At the 27th, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed setting apart a tract of land for the use of the Lick Observatory, University of California, and for the use of the Lick Observatory.

At the 28th, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 29th, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 30th, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 31st, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 1st of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 2nd of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 3rd of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 4th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 5th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 6th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 7th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 8th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 9th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 10th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 11th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 12th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 13th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 14th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 15th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 16th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 17th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 18th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 19th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 20th of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 21st of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.

At the 22nd of March, on motion of Mr. Lusk, of California, a bill was passed authorizing the joint Committee on Immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws.