Baled hay and straw for sale by Jas. Williams. Col. Parsons did business in Gardner Thursday. Homer Rogers visited friends in Calvary last week. Geo. W. Patton was in town Wednesday on business.

Miss Minnie Tewilliger has been sick with grip this week. The boom goes right ahead just as if nothing had happened. Mitt Witt has been at his home in Pontiac this week sick.

Mr. Zimmerman, was a Dwight visitor Thursday. Sam Houston must have been afraid of the special assessment. The Sons of Vets holds a cake sociable at their hall to-night.

Will H. Ketcham has returned from his business trip to Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Baker visited friends in Chicago Monday.

Circuit Clerk Hoover lost a six months' old baby last week. Misses Sadie Sheldon and Lula Cole were Jodel visitors Sunday. Ralph F. Bradford was appointed post master at Pontiac recently.

Fine literary treat at the Congregational church next Friday night. The republican county convention will be held March 29, at Pontiac. States Attorney McDowell, of Pontiac will be a candidate for re-election.

Hon. Jas. H. Funk, of Iowa, made a visit to Livingston county last week. Neatly printed cards, "Furnished Rooms to Rent" for sale at this office. We are indebted to Mr. T. E. Conlin for numerous copies of Montreal papers.

Dwight Mills will take orders for nursery stock up to the 15th of March. Geo. W. Allen, a carpenter of Blackstone, will reside in Dwight in the future. Save money and buy your meats poultry, fish and oysters at Albert Bros.

Jas. Reeder, fireman on the accommodation, is sick and confined to his home. Engineer Philbrick spent several days of this week at his home in Le Grange, Illinois.

Mr. Russell, of Kalamazoo, Mich., was among the graduates and departures Thursday. Dr. Conway is now nicely situated in his new office in the rear of Seymour's drug store.

Don't buy nursery stock until you get prices of Dwight Mills. He will call on you. Girl wanted to do general house work. Enquire of U. Y. Ogg on Renfrew avenue.

The best place to get your watch repaired done at reasonable prices is at Gardener's. The Democrats are wonderfully quiet this year, but its safe to bet they are sawing wood.

with every confidence of his cure and we wish him the success he deserves in the future. Mr. Prickett and son, of Campus, visited friends here a few days this week. They were guests of Mr. Ogg.

Attorney J. A. Brown, of Pontiac, will be a candidate for the republican nomination for states attorney. The democratic county central committee is called to meet at the court house in Pontiac next Tuesday, the 8th.

Novak, the Braidwood murderer, was sentenced for life this week. This is his second trial. The first was for hanging. W. H. Conrad, the lumber man, has everything on hand that is needed in building. He deals fair. Give him a call.

Go to Albert Bros. and get a nice roast for Sunday. Turkey, ducks, geese, rabbit, beef, pork, mutton and veal, all choice. S. T. K. Prime returned from his Washington, D. C., trip Sunday night, having enjoyed a fine trip and a splendid visit.

John Heimer, of Dwight, and Mary Comisky, of Lostant, were granted license to wed this week. We wish them joy. Republican politicians are looking for an available candidate for the legislature in the north part of Livingston county. Who shall it be?

The time of holding the democratic county convention will be decided next Tuesday at Pontiac at the meeting of the county central committee. If you have poultry of any kind to sell, and wish to obtain the best cash market price, call on Palmer & Smith, at the west side meat market.

Save money and keep your house clean by using Indiana block coal. Walter Scott, the coal dealer will supply your wants in that line. Fifty foot lots are now valued at $27.75. A few months ago you could not touch them short of about $27.00. Special assessment is the cause.

The C. & A. railroad lived up to their agreement with our people in grand shape. The new depot will cost more than the whole sewerage system. Hon. Geo. W. Patton passed through Dwight Friday on his way to Marshall county on legal business. He is a prominent candidate for congress.

Lumber and stone of good quality is what everyone wants when building a new house or addition. You can find everything you need at W. H. Conrad's yards. The new firm of Palmer & Smith expect in the near future, as soon as a suitable place can be secured, to put in all necessary machinery used in a first-class meat market.

A Smith and family, who formerly lived three miles south of Dwight, left Tuesday for Jackson, Minn., where he will make his future home. We wish him success in his new home. If you want to be convinced that we have a first-class meat market in town, where all the best and choicest kinds of meat can be procured, give the new firm of Palmer & Smith a call.

On Friday of this week, J. D. Ketcham and F. W. Ford attended the shooting contest at Watson's Park, Chicago, between the champions, E. D. Fulford of New Jersey, and C. W. Budd of Des Moines, Iowa.

Special services will be held at the M. E. church Sunday morning March 6th, at 10:45. Mr. S. T. Carr, of Chicago, will deliver the address. A good time is expected and all are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Keeley delivered a lecture in Joliet Wednesday evening to an audience of 1,500 people and many were turned away unable to gain an entrance. The doctor's lectures are very popular wherever he goes. CHAS. RICHARDS, the drayman, is having a 15 barrel water tank made and will soon be ready to fill your orders for SOFT WATER from the Spencer deep well. When you are out or rain water drop him card.

The village election will be held under the new law, and consequently candidates will have to be nominated fifteen days ahead. This will give everyone a chance to give all the candidates a good raking over. The man that has his little home and fifty feet of ground has to pay about $7 a year for four years, for the privilege of having a sewer to carry away slop, slime, filth, etc. One doctor bill would generally cover the whole amount and more too.

J. W. Epperson, the contractor and builder, is gaining an excellent reputation for himself by doing excellent work and being faithful in fulfilling his contracts. Any orders left at E. T. Miller's store will receive his prompt attention.

Robt. Mann Woods has sold the Joliet Republic and Sun to Hayes & Fletcher, formerly of the Morris Herald. Major Wood is a splendid newspaper man, so also are Gen. Hayes and Mr. Fletcher. We understand that Mr. Wood will embark in the real estate business. The new firm of Palmer & Smith, successors to Stevens & Losee, are using every endeavor to give the people first-class meats of every kind. They make a point of selecting their stock, and have it prepared for their trade under their own personal supervision.

Engineer Jones thinks he was slighted when the STAR AND HERALD mentioned everyone one but him for congress a few weeks since. Beg pardon Mr. Jones. If you would run for congress like you run the "accomo" you would be elected by a large majority.

Rev. H. M. Cole, of Brookfield, Mo., held services at the Congregational church Sunday morning and evening. It is probable Rev. Cole will receive the appointment as pastor of the church. Should it so happen we will take great pleasure in welcoming him to our midst.

The Metropolitan Accident Company is making very profitable terms with the members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold club who accept positions with that company. For particulars call upon Dr. C. H. Barr Sargent & Basset or address the company at 169 Jackson street, Chicago.

The beautiful drama entitled, "The Courtship of Miles Standish" and a fine program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, will be given by the Benedicti literary society, Friday evening, March 11, at the high school building. Reserved seats for sale at Barr's drug store.

"Whispering of True Love," Valse Lente, by Fischer, is one of the most pleasing waltzes that has come to our notice for many a day. It is from beginning to end fresh and melodious and has all the features of a bright and sparkling composition. Price $5 cents. Ignaz Fischer, publisher, Toledo, O.

Col. Ben Robinson, postmaster of Fairbury, made us a pleasant call Tuesday. He is chairman of the republican congressional committee of this district, and informs us that the convention will be held at Fairbury on May 2. The representation from each county will be the same as to the state convention. Livingston county will have thirteen delegates.

Mr. John Stack, the butcher who has charge of the Kern meat market has cut meat and purchased cattle longer, than any man in Livingston county. Before he came here he was in business in Pontiac, and is well known as one of the best judges of meat in this section. Any one desiring to purchase meat should call on Mr. Stack, who will give them choice cuts and use them well.

Rev. H. M. Cole who occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church last Sabbath, will preach at the same place next Sabbath, morning and evening. All are invited to attend. A business meeting of the church will be held immediately after the evening services to which all members of the church and society and all who have any special interest in this church, are earnestly invited to attend.

Mrs. R. Ahern, wife of the gentleman who is building a cottage near the STAR AND HERALD office on East Delaware street is not expected to live. She gave birth to a child at their home near Eminston this week, and Thursday it is said that her life was despaired of. We hope the reports may be exaggerated and that the lady may soon recover. Mr. and Mrs. Ahern were about to move to Dwight to occupy their new home.

Two years ago good comfortable houses could be rented for $5 and $6. Most of the owners now want from $12 to $15. That makes a difference in the rent of one house of about $75 a year. Let see, the special assessment for sewerage on that place is $27.75 in four annual payments, and the owner is getting about $300 extra rent in the four years. Not such a hardship after all is it, and the landlords are doing more kicking than anyone.

To Rent. Two nicely furnished rooms for rent. Enquire at this office. Another Paid. The benefits of a policy in the old Metropolitan Accident company are again illustrated by the payment of $112.75 to Lot Beeks, who was injured by a fall at the institute on Jan. 20th last. The company has paid him in advance of his entire recovery. Mr. Beeks is well pleased with his treatment.

W. H. KETCHAM, FRANK L. SMITH, ATTORNEY AT LAW, NOTARY PUBLIC.
