10 Cents a Line.

We announced in our issue of Jan. 2, that all local reading notices would hereafter be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line. This has been overlooked by some of our patrons. All locals will be printed in the same kind of type as the rest of the paper and scattered through the regular reading matter. Special Yearly Contracts.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Go to the concert. Sewerage or no sewerage? Who is to be the next mayor? New election law outfit at this office. Buy the Indiana block coal at Scott's. Miss Hattie Witt visited in Pontiac this week. Jas. Kelagher will be a candidate for assessor again. Work on the new creamery is progressing rapidly. Our streets should be scraped the first opportunity. Chicago Ideals at Congregational church this evening. The democratic caucus is announced for 8 o'clock to-day. Everett Goodwin left for his home in Macomb Tuesday. Mrs. Chas. Barr, of Nevada, visited in this city this week. Closet paper and fixtures for sale at Seymour's drug store. An interlocking switch tower is being erected at Pontiac. Milt Witt is on duty again at his Little Giant restaurant. John Stewart is courting for the county this week as juror. C. R. Tombaugh, of Odell, was in Dwight Monday on business. Room and board for two. Enquire at Club Store. J. M. Bassett. Two or three nice unfurnished rooms to rent. Enquire at this office. Seymour has a second hand store front for sale remarkably cheap. Conductor McKabe took in the Burdette-Nye lecture Tuesday night. Neatly printed cards, "Furnished Rooms to Rent" for sale at this office. Dwight Mills will take orders for nursery stock up to the 15th of March. Wall paper almost given away at Mrs. Koehnlein's new furniture store. DePaw Quartette Co., at M. E. church, March 24. Admission 25 cents. Chas. L. Romberger has been on the sick list, but is able to be around again. Save money and buy your meats poultry, fish and oysters at Albert Bros. Jas. Kelager will run for assessor. He seems to have a death grip on that office. Electric light poles are being placed in position this week for the arc light system. Dwight party tickets will be run in most of the townships in Livingston county. The telegraphers at the Alton moved into their handsome new quarters Tuesday. Rev. Otto Brose left for Sheffield, Ia., last week where he will remain for the present. Dr. Weld, formerly of the institute staff, visited friends here over the Sabbath. The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardianer's. John L. Semantle sold his fine stable horse, this week, to Chris. Maw, of Goodrich, Ill. DePaw Quartette Company—M. E. church—Thursday evening, 24th—25c pays the bill. Every voter should turn out to the caucuses to-day and assist in nominating good men. WANTED—Girl for general housework. Good wages. Apply to Mrs. Gray Staunton. Messrs. Howard Lodge and Chas. Goodwin of Macomb, Ill., were Dwight visitors Sunday. Walter Scott has just received a car load of new tile, the best in the market. Give him a call. Dr. Palm left Wednesday for Sheakleville, Penn., to join his family. The STAR AND HERALD will keep him posted in the future. Good bye Doctor. God bless you, if you ever come this way, call. J. H. Dunlop, Gilbert Clark, N. Baker and others are in line for the nomination for collector. Frank Smith returned Monday from a business trip of several days to the wilds of Minnesota. Dr. Ubellar, dentist, graduate of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, in McWilliam's block. Remember that Walter Schott sells the best hard and soft coal in town, at Ketcham's oldstand. The Indiana block coal lasts longer and is cleaner than any other soft coal. Get it of Walter Scott. A. Gibbons, school treasurer of Nevada township, has $800 to loan at 6 per cent on real estate. A good, solid foundation is a good thing. W. H. Conrad has the best of stone for that purpose. Messrs. Huey and Clower of Bloomington, were in Dwight Saturday looking over the improvements. Regular preaching services will be held at the Congregational church next Sunday morning and evening. Mr. F. A. Haise has moved into his handsome new residence on Waupansie street. He may well be proud of it. Mrs. Chas. Waters, who has been very sick for some time past is improving rapidly we are glad to announce. A pleasant time is guaranteed to all who attend the Senior Class social next Tuesday evening or money refunded. N. J. Myer, we understand, has signified his intention of not being a candidate for re-election as representative. R. D. Gregg, who recently moved to Dwight, has purchased the old Ford property of John Hughes, east of town. Mrs. F. J. Hohenshell, of Streator, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Davis, visited her people here a week recently. Agent Coole informs us that the new fast train will not stop at Dwight. The new time card will be adopted Saturday. W. H. Conrad, the lumber man, has everything on hand that is needed in building. He deals fair. Give him a call. Contractor Jackson informs us that the front of the new Keeley buildings in course of erection will be very handsome. Go to Albert Bros. and get a nice roast for Sunday. Turkey, ducks, geese, rabbit, beef, pork, mutton and veal, all choice. Dwight Mills will continue to take orders for nursery stock up to the last of March instead of the 15th as stated before. Thomas Blair has moved his plumbing and steam fitting stock on Mazon avenue opposite the Empire steam laundry. The famous college glee club, the DePaw Quartette, at the M. E. church Thursday evening, the 24th. Admission 25 cents. Henry Mc Lane has moved his agricultural warehouse to his lot on Mazon avenue, and will be open for business right away. Eyer Bros., having secured the services of a first-class plumber from Peoria, are now better prepared to do good work than ever. The C. & A. were busily engaged this week in tearing out the old wooden bridge north of town, replacing it with an iron one. "Are you going?" "Where?" "To the High School social next Tuesday evening." "Why, of course—wouldn't miss it for a farm." The new store building of Stevens & Losee, on the corner of Delaware street and Prairie avenue is rapidly nearing completion. John Ahern has redeemed the property on Mazon avenue which was bid in at forced sale last summer by Geo. Kepplinger for $300. The foundation for the new creamery east of this office was laid this week, and work on the building will now be pushed to completion. Wm. Dudgeon, a civil engineer from Charleston, S. C., and formerly of Bloomington, Ill., made this office a pleasant call Wednesday. Save money and keep your house clean by using Indiana block coal. Walter Scott, the coal dealer will supply your wants in that line. Work has commenced filling in on Dr. Keeley's lots, corner of Waupansie street and Prairie avenue, preparatory to erecting an elegant residence. We notice the genial and smiling countenance of Will Stafford, formerly of Campus, behind the counter in Dr.

Barr's drug store. Mr. Stafford has become a Dwightite, and we extend a welcome to him. Capt. John McWilliams, of Odell, was in town on Tuesday. One of the Pontiac papers thinks the Captain is a candidate for congress. Is it so? Mrs. A. Bovik wishes to secure the services of a girl about 14 or 15 years of age who understands housework and wishes a good home. Good wages. We print handsome horse cards with cuts, just large enough to carry in the inside pocket. Remember the place. The only printing office in Dwight. Lumber and stone of good quality is what everyone wants when building a new house or addition. You can find everything you need at W. H. Conrad's yards. Mr. E. T. Miller is mentioned for supervisor. Mr. Miller is an excellent business man, and would make a splendid representative of Dwight on the board. Its about time the question of good material for the new board be talked up by our citizens. The nominations have to be made fifteen days before election. Everything new in watches, clocks, jewelry, spectacles, etc., carefully selected for this spring's trade. Low prices at McCaulley's, at the BRICK CORNER. Anyone wanting any painting or paper hanging done will do well to consult Richmond & Green, of Joliet, who are now here. Leave orders at C. M. Baker's store. The family of Chas. Crandall have nearly all been quite sick recently. We understand that they are somewhat better. Their many friends hope for their speedy recovery. Mazon was stirred up last week by the discovery of a dead child within its limits. The coroner's inquest did not discover anything that would bring to light the brutal murderers. Miss Florence Thompson graduated last week from the American Dental College in Chicago. She stood high in her class. Mayor John Thompson attended the graduating exercises. Mr. Weaver, of Kankakee, stopped in Dwight while enroute home from Streator. He was surprised at the great developments of Dwight, and said it was far beyond his expectations. NEW MAN, new goods, new prices. All the newest and latest spring styles in watches, jewelry, etc., at the lowest living prices at which a square dealer can live. McCAULLEY, at the BRICK CORNER. That genial, sleek, sly old button-holer, Mr. Politics, is abroad in the land. His bland smile and handshake are well known, and if you escape him for the next six months you are a first class escaper. The election of school trustees does not necessarily come under the the new election law, but as the election comes on the same day it has been decided to place the names on the tickets with the town officers. We will send to any subscriber paying in advance $1.05, the STAR AND HERALD one year and Opie Read's new book, "Emmett Bonlore." This is the celebrated book that Mr. Read dedicated to Dr. Leslie E. Keeley. KEELEY PATIENTS can find the very thing they want in spectacles, etc., specially selected by an ex-patient who knows from experience just what they require. McCAULLEY, watchmaker and jeweler at the BRICK CORNER. The Metropolitan Accident Company is making very profitable terms with the members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold club who accept positions with that company. For particulars call upon Dr. C. H. Barr Sargent & Bassett or address the company at 169 Jackson street, Chicago. B. P. Gower, of Sunbury, it is understood among republicans, is a candidate for the nomination of representative. Everyone seems to have a good word for Mr. Gower. He is an old acquaintance of Hon. O. W. Pollard, and that gentleman says Mr. Gower is one of the best men he knows. Our genial friend John Pettett, of the railroad postoffice department, has been fortunate to have his run changed, so that he stops in Chicago at the end of each run, his former one being ended every other night in St. Louis. John says this will give him about forty-eight hours more of home life. The new tonsorial parlor and bath rooms of A. J. Diefenbach & Co., were opened to the public last Saturday. It goes without saying that it is the finest equipped barber shop in this section of the state. One elegant feature connected with the institution is the finely arranged system of bath rooms for the exclusive use of lady patrons. Mrs. Thos. Hartford had the misfortune to fall on the sidewalk near her residence about two weeks ago and broke one of her arms. The sidewalk was frosty and slippery at the time. The fracture was quite painful, but it was not until a week later that she discovered it was really broken. A physician was called and the fracture reduced. The operation was very painful, having gone so long before setting. She is getting along as well as could be expected.
