

LOCAL EVENTS.

Miss Sadie Sheldon, who has for several months been in the employ of Misses Lower & Brown, in their dress-making establishment, left for her home at Campus, Wednesday last.

We understand the Eagle soap works of Gardner have a number of agents representing them in a number of the adjoining towns, and are shipping a large amount of soap to outside parties.

The celebrated DePauw Quartette Company, of the school of music, Greencastle, Ind., will give one of their pleasing entertainments at the M. E. church next Thursday evening, the 24th.

The canvasser of the Joliet Daily News, has been saying around town that the STAR and HERALD was no good because it was all plate matter.

A surprise party on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lower last Wednesday evening was attended by a few Dwight and many Campus young people.

Rev. H. M. Cole, the new pastor of the Congregational church arrived Thursday and took charge of the work at once. Rev. Cole has been connected with Brookfield College as lecturer on history and literature for the past year.

It is natural with all piano pupils, particularly those who have had lessons from eight months to one year, to sometimes find their music lessons and exercises dry, get discouraged as well as their parents and then want to give them up.

Town clerks should bear in mind that the STAR and HERALD will print all instructions necessary regarding the new election law in poster form for putting up in public places.

We also have all the necessary outfit for printing tickets under the new law. Call on us any time for information.

The republican town caucus will be held at the town house Saturday, March 19, at 3 p. m., to place in nomination candidates for the following offices: supervisor, for two years; town clerk, one year; assessor, one year; collector, one year; two commissioners, one for one year to fill vacancy, and one for two years; school director, one year.

The subscriber offers for sale two fine high grade Red Poll bull calves coming a year old. Also one full-blood bronze Tom turkey, eight months old over twenty pounds weight. Call and examine this stock at my place one-half mile south of town. Prices low.

John Stewart has five lots for sale. Also two lots and one house, one road cart and one buggy. Reasonable terms.

The first fact of what might be called "a preliminary survey" of this important question, brings out this: That there is a woeful and fearful amount of inaction and total indifference on this subject. I cannot illustrate this better than by relating an incident that came under my own personal observation the past week.
