Mrs. Dr. Barr visited with her friends in Wilmington this week. Silk laces, all widths, black and white, very low at E. T. Miller's. Club and board for two. Enquire at Club Store. J. M. Bassett.

Hon. Chris Strawn, of Pontiac, was in town Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Fenn calls attention this week to her annual spring opening. Two or three nice unfurnished rooms to rent. Enquire at this office.

Seymour has a second hand store front for sale remarkably cheap. WANTED.—A good girl for general housework. Apply to Mrs. Watkins. Neatly printed cards, "Furnished Rooms to Rent" for sale at this office.

Look at our ladies' Oxford slippers for $1. Nicest in town. E. T. MILLER. Wall paper almost given away at Mrs. Koehnlein's new furniture store. Dwight Mills will take orders for nursery stock up to the 15th of March.

The new fast trains on the Alton are attractive and present a fine appearance. Call on Thos. Blair for plumbing. Shop at Tock's on East Mazon avenue. Our readers will do well to note the changes in the ad. of Nelson, the tailor. The Y's will meet at the home of Miss Maggie Kern next Friday evening.

All kinds of farm produce wanted at the new grocery house of Harrison & Curtis. Girl wanted for general housework. Good wages. Enquire of Mrs. W. T. Prime. The largest and best assorted stock of hardware in town will be found at Buck's.

The best place to get your watch repairing done at reasonable prices is at Guardenier's. The DWIGHT STAR AND HERALD and the Banner of Gold $2.50 per year IN ADVANCE. WANTED—Girl for general housework. Good wages. Apply to Mrs. Gray Staunton.

They are both thoroughly competent men and we wish them unbounded success. Remember that Walter Schott sells the best hard and soft coal in town, at Ketcham's oldstand. H. T. McLane has a few words to say to our readers this week in relation to his business.

Quite a delegation from Dwight will attend the G. A. R. encampment at Springfield April 6-8. The Indiana block coal lasts longer and is cleaner than any other soft coal. Get it of Walter Scott. A good, solid foundation is a good thing. W. H. Conrad has the best of stone for that purpose.

The Y's of this district will soon hold a convention in Dwight. The program will be published soon. Persons desiring to buy farm implements will do well to call on B. A. Buck before buying elsewhere.

B. A. Buck has some agricultural implement that he will sell very cheap as he is going out of the business. J. Schott, the tailor, makes a specialty of cleaning and repairing of all kinds. Satisfaction guaranteed. Just received, our first invoice of maple sugar and syrup right from the sugar camps of Ohio. BAKER BROS.

Do you wish to buy fresh groceries of every kind? If you do, call on the new grocery firm of Harrison & Curtis. W. H. Conrad, the lumber man, has everything on hand that is needed in building. He deals fair. Give him a call. If you have received an invitation to the masquerade ball, make arrangements to go and have a good time.

Dwight Mills will continue to take orders for nursery stock up to the last of March instead of the 15th as stated before. The Epworth League will give a social in connection with their regular entertainment April 12. A grand time is anticipated.

Eyer Bros., having secured the services of a first-class plumber from Peoria, are now better prepared to do good work than ever. The second quarterly meeting will be held at the M. E. church the first Sunday in April. Presiding Elder Doney will preach at night.

Misses Nora Millay and Innie Nelson, have opened a dressmaking establishment in the room opposite the Dwight Art Company, 4w. In speaking of the injuries received by Mr. Barnhart last week, we omitted the statement that Dr. Conway performed the operation. Major C. J. Judd spent several days this week at Excelsior Springs, Mo., on business connected with the new Keeley institute at that point.

Save money and keep your house clean by using Indiana block coal. Walter Scott, the coal dealer will supply your wants in that line. Thos. Blair, the plumber, is always ready to do anything in his line at short notice. Anyone wanting water put in will do well to call on him. Miss Vesper Shafner, a very estimable young lady from Williamsfield, Ill., who has been visiting here for some time, returned to her home Monday.

Lumber and stone of good quality is what everyone wants when building a new house or addition. You can find everything you need at W. H. Conrad's yards. J. Schott, the tailor, will make you a fine suit for $20 on up. Call and examine his elegant line of samples for spring and summer suits—the latest styles. We copy a letter from the Breeder's Gazette of March 16th in this issue, which will be read with pleasure by our lovers of fancy road and driving horses.

Everything new in watches, clocks, jewelry, spectacles, etc., carefully selected for this spring's trade. Low prices at McCaulley's, at the BRICK CORNER. Do not try to clean house without Thatcher's Gilt Edge Soap. It will save you paint and it will save you labor. EAGLE SOAP WORKS, Gardner, Ill.

The Pontiac paper mill has shut down again. It has been in the hands of a receiver for some time, and it seems that the receiver lost more money than the company. Subject of sermon at Congregational church to-morrow morning, "The Great Victory." In the evening a printed vesper service consisting of chants and responsive reading will be used. The choir will be assisted by a violin, clarinet, bass viol and flute. Evening subject, "Help from the Hills." The canned goods kept by Harrison & Curtis are the best, and fresh from the wholesale house. You will do well to call and be convinced. Four doors south of the M. E. church. There is a paper published in this county that is carrying an advertisement contrary to the lottery law. It had better be careful or it will run against the government end of the law.

NEW MAN, new goods, new prices. All the newest and latest spring styles in watches, jewelry, etc., at the lowest living prices at which a square dealer can live. McCaulley, at the BRICK CORNER. The artist who drew the alleged portraits of the lawyers, judge and prisoners and spectators in the Dr. McAdams case for the Joliet News, recently tried in Morris, should surely get as much as Dr. McAdams.

The entertainment at the M. E. church, under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary society, Thursday night, was largely attended. An enjoyable time was had by all and it was a success financially. Albert Bros. have closed their meat market, owing to the fact that it was impossible to get a suitable place for their store. They intend to open a first-class meat market and grocery store about the first of September.

KEELEY PATIENTS can find the very thing they want in spectacles, etc., specially selected by an ex-patient who knows from experience just what they require. McCaulley, watchmaker and jeweler at the BRICK CORNER. If you are going to paint your house or barn buy the J. W. Masury & Sons celebrated prepared paint. The Metropolitan Accident Company is making very profitable terms with the members of the Bi-Chloride of Gold club who accept positions with that company. For particulars call upon Dr. C. H. Barr Sargent & Bassett or address the company at 169 Jackson street, Chicago. Miss Erminie Ahern returned from Valparaiso, Ind., Saturday, where she has been studying short-hand and type-writing. She accepted a position with the Leslie E. Keeley Co., and commenced her duties Tuesday morning. Her many friends are pleased that she will remain among them again.

Dwight lodge, No. 513, I. O. O. F. meets in their hall over the Keeley treatment room every Thursday at 8 p. m.; 1st Thursday, initiatory degree; 2d, First degree; 3d, Second degree; 4th, Third degree. Eight candidates at present. Installation of officers will occur Thursday, April 7. Visiting brothers cordially invited. Mr. S. T. K. Prime was in Springfield this week, where he had the honor of addressing the Hard Roads convention Wednesday, which was in session at that city. Mr. Prime is well versed upon this important question, and there is no doubt he gave them good points which, if heeded, might accomplish much toward the desired end.

"Whisperings of True Love," waltz, by Fischer, is a composition belonging to the better class of pieces published recently. We say among a hundred new pieces you will find perhaps five which are as taking with one and all as the above named one. Take our advice and order a copy. Price only 50c Ignaz Fischer, publisher, Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Bertie Kaylor took the Denver for Chicago yesterday with her little son Corrie, who has been very sick for the past three weeks. He is troubled with a complication of diseases, and does not seem to be improving. Mrs. Kaylor will take him to a hospital in the city. It is hoped that the little fellow will soon recover his good health.

Next Thursday night will take place at the Congregational church a stereopticon lecture on the world's fair. Rev. Cole will deliver the lecture. The new pastor seems to be a very fine Christian gentleman and made of the right sort of material, and we believe he will instill new life into the congregation. His family will remove here shortly from their former home in Missouri. "A Trip Around the World" is the subject of the lecture to be given at Congregational church Friday night, April 8, by Rev. H. W. Cole. The lecture will be illustrated by the calcium light stereopticon; 85 views will be used and some of the most beautiful photographic effects will be seen. The large cities of the world will be visited and the trip made in one hour. Admission 25c; scholars of school, 10c.

A couple of our young men who are quite prominent among the fair sex, had a bloodless encounter on East street Wednesday last. We heard the cry of terror uttered by George Flagler, and with bated breath turned in horror away from what we supposed would be a scene of disfigured faces and shattered limbs. But nothing like that occurred, as they were separated by friends before any damage was done, with the exception of muddy faces and clothes.
