LOCAL EVENTS.

The people of Dwight should patronize home industry. Sorensen & Parker, the popular tailors in Mickelson's block, are doing fine work to order at very reasonable prices, and are doing the work in Dwight under their personal supervision. Be sure and see them before ordering your spring suits. It will pay you.

The BEHNICE Dramatic Club and Quartette, assisted by Prof. Evans' orchestra, will give the last entertainment of the year next Friday evening. The chairs will be so arranged as to give a good view from all parts of the house. They are raising money for much needed improvements and should be well patronized. Admission 15 cts.

"Whisperings of True Love" waltz, by Fischer, is as piquant and dainty a little waltz as we have heard for many a day. We suggest all our musical friends and teachers of piano or organ to try it. Can't help but be pleased and please your friends playing it for them. Price only 50c. Ignaz Fischer, Toledo, Ohio, is the publisher.

The Dwight Pleasur Club gave one of their fine dancing parties again Tuesday evening, which was enjoyed by a large and select crowd. Their parties are a source of much pleasure and will be continued indefinitely. The neat programmes were spoken very highly of. Of course every one knows where they came from.

Rev. Cole, the Congregational pastor, attended the annual meeting of the Illinois Central Association of Congregational churches at Morton, Ill., this week, going Tuesday and returning Thursday. One year ago the meeting was held in Dwight. Mr. Cole reports a very interesting meeting from commencement to finish.

If the improvements promised the Keeley Co. are made there will be from 700 to 1,000 patients in Dwight most of the time. If they are not, we venture to say there will not be any here in six months. Which is the best? Who will make them? The gentlemen on the no-license ticket will make them, and in such a manner that they will be no hardship to any one. Vote the no-license ticket and your prospects will be bright.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.—Jas. Basil, Sohn Criley, Jas. H. Cunningham, S. S. Drinkwater, Bogioli Enrico, Jas. Hanrhan, J. W. Hamilton, Geo. Johnson, Miss Lulu Johnson, Miss Bell Kune, Mr. Willie Kickmister, Alfred Larson, Bert G. Lewis, Geo. J. Lyons, L. Martin, Emsley Merritt, L. R. Nielsen, Jens Petersen, Patrick Shehan, Steven Sweet, J. W. Sherwood, Lars Thomson, Geo. K. Thomas, Geo. Williams, A. E. Young.

Ramsey Johnson, of Graymont, this county, went to Pontiac last Saturday and drew $2,000 in school funds, with which to make a settlement with the trustees. He went home and was aroused by a noise in his barn. He got up to see what the trouble was, and on arriving at the barn was knocked senseless by two men, and while in that condition was robbed of the $2,000. The neighborhood was alarmed, but no trace of the robbers has been found.

A few of the people of Dwight have got mad and say they will not vote the anti-license ticket because the Keeley Co. does not give them roomers. The election of the anti-license, progressive ticket is as much for the benefit of one citizen as another, for they will see that improvements are made, and when they are made, there will be some chance of people getting boarders if they want them and have proper accommodations for them. It is only in the spirit of fairness to presume that if the people expect to be benefited by the influx of patients, the people must do something towards making them comfortable, and protect them from disease.

Goodfarm. Ed Stevens and Jim Swayne were Morris visitors this week.

Mrs. Alice Crocker is on the sick list. Miss Nellie Stevens and a friend, Miss Sarah Drakely, came from Seneca last Monday to visit a week with Miss Nellie's relatives.

"Grandma" Thorpe is improving greatly. We hope it is to continue.

John States' house is all inclosed and nearly ready for the masonry.

Master Eddie Bartholic is visiting with his Grandma Bartholic this week.

M. Cusick and family moved to Morris, where they expect to make the future, and Wm. Cusick has moved on his father's old homestead.

Wm. Stevens and one of his workmen were at R. G. Thompson's Monday.

Mr. and the Misses Terwilliger were guests of George and Miss June Robinson Sunday.
