How about the Lime Kiln club?

We would like to hear from the doctor on the "possum" question.

Mr. Farwell of Chicago was among the graduates who addressed the club Saturday.

An interesting letter from Mr. J. H. Upton, of Rochester, N. Y., was read to the club Saturday by Secretary McNeill.

Mr. Ford of Chicago was among the graduates who addressed the club Saturday. Mr. Ford's many friends at the club wish him the success in life he so richly deserves.

Morris has contributed quite a number of patients to the Keeley institute at Dwight, and all that have returned have shown every evidence that the cure is a success.

Upon retiring from the chair last Thursday morning, Mr. H. E. Porter was presented with a gold-headed cane by the club as a slight token of regard and esteem.

Wm. J. Baker, ex-graduate, and a prominent contractor and builder of St. Louis, made us a pleasant call this week.

The news of the marriage of Miss Norinne Crane was received at the club this week. Miss Norinne visited her brother Harry while he was here under treatment, and became much interested in the club and its workings.

At the election of officers Thursday the names of Mr. Adams and Mr. Skinner were placed in nomination for the office of president.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood, of Chicago were Dwight visitors Saturday. Mr. Wood, it will be remembered was a graduate of the Keeley institute about a year ago, and has accomplished much for his fellow man since then.

Dr. Morrow, of Alexandria, Neb., was a caller at this office this week. The doctor is editor of the Thayer county Herald and is here taking the benefit of the Keeley cure.

Tornado and Cyclones

Tornadoes are becoming more frequent in this state, and to guard against loss by wind storms, Chas. C. Romberger has made arrangements to furnish Tornado Insurance cheaper than ever before.
