

A FOOL WITH A GUN.

THE USUAL RESULT FOLLOWS HIS ACTION.

Sent Them Adrift on a Raft—This Hoosier Lass Waded a Husband—Anniversary of Johnston's Memorable Flood—Failure of the May Corn.

At Washington.

In the House, on the 31st, the postoffice appropriation bill was passed. The bill was passed by a majority of 150 yeas and 100 nays.

TOLD IN A FEW WORDS.

Mrs. August Durdock, living two miles north of Brazil, Ill., was accidentally killed by a falling log.

Miss Maggie Burns called upon Melville Tolson, a Cliffland, Ind., farmer who had been courting her for a year.

N. H. Matofsky, a traveling oculist, and Will Hatten, a traveling drummer, have been making insulting remarks on the street to women at Louisa, Ky.

An unknown man was drowned at atoms on the Lake Shore track two miles west of Elkhart, Ind.

At Alliance, Ohio, Miss Margaret Pettit was accidentally killed by a shock from an electric light wire.

At Grand View Cemetery, Johnstown, Pa., the "sun-kissed" was formally dedicated with appropriate ceremonies.

A shooting affray occurred at Haverly's saloon, at Brazil, Ind., in which three persons were wounded.

At Louisville (Ky.), court has decided that the assignment of Theodore S. Schwartz & Co. private bankers, made fourteen months ago, was illegal.

Miss Lillian Norfolk, one of the handsomest young women in Brooklyn, N. Y., committed suicide on Tuesday by strangling herself with her own hair.

The Mayor of Omaha on Tuesday night made an address at a practically licensees gambling in that city.

In a public speech the Hon. J. E. Bush declared that the Hawaiian Minister at Washington was plotting to annex the Islands to the United States.

Colonel Camillo del Cairo, who died in prison in Barcelona, Spain, on March 29, was buried in a military cemetery.

Discordant reports were presented to the Presbyterian General Assembly at Portland, Ore., regarding the Union Seminary question.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

At Lincoln, Neb., C. E. Montgomery, president of the German National Bank, a wealthy and well-known citizen, was shot and instantly killed by W. H. Irvine.

Arthur Bisot, who escaped from the Indiana State Prison twelve years ago under peculiar circumstances, surrendered himself Tuesday.

James Britton, a teamster, was killed by a piece of iron, which either fell or was thrown from the roof of the Y. M. C. A. Building, Chicago.

Joseph Fish, of the Chicago firm of Fish, Joseph & Co., dry goods dealers on State street, was assaulted and nearly killed by Jerry Trumbly.

A terrific storm struck Marshall, Mo. It was a severe wind storm, accompanied by a heavy shower of rain.

A Panhandle passenger train from Chicago had a head end collision with a freight train near Howard's station, Ind.

At Sioux City, Iowa, A. J. Westfall was arrested on a charge of grand larceny. The charge relates to several hundred dollars' worth of property.

Anthony Loked and Joseph Zeletny were instantly killed by a shock from an electric light wire in the Edgar Thomson Steel Sheet Works, at Braddock, Pa.

A cyclone swept through the city of Harper, Kan., destroying many lives, and injuring a large number of people.

At Alliance, Ohio, Miss Margaret Pettit was accidentally killed by a shock from an electric light wire.

At Grand View Cemetery, Johnstown, Pa., the "sun-kissed" was formally dedicated with appropriate ceremonies.

A shooting affray occurred at Haverly's saloon, at Brazil, Ind., in which three persons were wounded.

At Louisville (Ky.), court has decided that the assignment of Theodore S. Schwartz & Co. private bankers, made fourteen months ago, was illegal.

Miss Lillian Norfolk, one of the handsomest young women in Brooklyn, N. Y., committed suicide on Tuesday by strangling herself with her own hair.

The Mayor of Omaha on Tuesday night made an address at a practically licensees gambling in that city.

In a public speech the Hon. J. E. Bush declared that the Hawaiian Minister at Washington was plotting to annex the Islands to the United States.

SCORES ARE SLAIN, THE NATIONAL SOLONS.

WELLINGTON, KAN., OVERCOME BY A CYCLONE.

A Big Section of the Business Portion of the Town Wrecked and One Hundred Private Residences Practically Destroyed—Ruins Take Fire.

Wellington (Kan.) special: This city has had a visitation to-night (Friday) from the funnel-shaped cloud which plowed its devastating track through the business part of the town.

The warm winds of the springtime are starting the usual snowdrifts and avalanches in the Cascade and the Olympic mountains.

The observations of Memorial Day, despite the very stormy weather in many localities, was general at Chicago.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

Henry Desmond, of Chicago, is said to have a mania for stealing books.

Representatives of the natural gas companies of Indiana met at Muncie, and resolved to prevent the product being piped to points outside the State if possible.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

Sanitary experts have pronounced the ventilation of the Capitol at Washington as nearly perfect.

Paraguay has given $3,000 for a display at the Chicago Exposition.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

FINANCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

The New York stock market was active today, with a general upward movement.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

The Chicago Board of Trade has been petitioned to send relief to the flooded districts.

PERSONAL MENTION.

C. W. Butt, of Vernon, was nominated for Governor of Wisconsin at the People's party convention in Milwaukee.

General Turner C. Moorehead, a veteran of the civil and Mexican wars, died on Saturday at Asbury Park, N. J.

The monument to Chief of Police Henry, who was assassinated by the Mafia in October, 1890, was unveiled at Metairie Cemetery in New Orleans Sunday.

The work of piercing the Nishnabour Gorge on the Manly-Assem Road, which was commenced in November, has just been finished.

A copy of the first book prepared in the language used at the south end of Lake Tanganyika has reached England.

Paraguay has given $3,000 for a display at the Chicago Exposition.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

At Portland, Me., a cyclone struck the city, and the streets were filled with water.

SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Our National Lawmakers and What They Are Doing for the Good of the Country—Various Measures Proposed, Discussed, and Acted Upon.

Doings of Congress. In the Senate, the 25th Mr. Morzan's resolution introduced in March, instructing the Finance Committee to examine and report upon the effect of the silver law of 1890.

The 26th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 27th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 28th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 29th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 30th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 31st, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 32nd, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 33rd, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 34th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 35th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 36th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 37th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 38th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 39th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.

The 40th, a bill extending for two years longer the act of March 2, 1889, for the correction of military records.