Bichloride of Gold Club.

H. W. SHEPARD, REPORTER.

Tuesday Evening.

Tuesday evening's entertainment was a good one, as, in fact are all entertainments given by the Bichloride of Gold Club of Dwight.

No entertainment will be given at the club room next Tuesday evening, as it was thought best to devote all energies toward preparing the programme for the grand concert next Friday evening.

Another Entertainment.

Many citizens of Dwight will remember with pleasure the excellent entertainment given last February at the treatment hall by the Bichloride of Gold Club of this city.

From Mr. Tevis.

The following letter was received by Mr Falkenberg from his friend Mr. Tevis this week.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 3, 1892. MY DEAR SAM:—As I leave this city to-morrow to be absent several days, I hasten to reply to yours of the 25th, which you sent me by mail.

vs. Weakness and Failure, Reason & Ambition, attorneys for plaintiffs; Memory & Horrors, attorneys for defendants.

Col. Will L. Visscher.

What congress lost in the death of Sunset Cox, the witty New Yorker, will be reclaimed if the republicans of Washington shall send Col. Will L. Visscher of Tacoma to represent them in that body.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

Grand club concert Friday evening. Ed. Payne is now localizing for the Banner of Gold.

Mr. Tutt, of Chattanooga, Tenn., visited a friend under treatment in Dwight last week.

Mr. McCorkle left for his home Tuesday evening, having finished his course of treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. LeGage Pratt are Dwight visitors this week. Mr. Pratt is doing good work among the boys.

Messrs. J. D. Coulter and J. C. Duke, of St. Louis, former patients and club members, spent Sunday in Dwight renewing old acquaintances.

After several weeks of waiting, the strings for the double bass have arrived. That instrument will now be of great assistance to the orchestra.

Mr. Hawley, of Chicago, was among the departures of Tuesday. He has made many friends in Dwight, who look forward to his future success.

Will D. Hay, of Fairfield, Ill., writes: "I am getting along tip top, and feel safer than ever before. I never miss a chance to give Dr. Keeley's treatment a send off."

Mr. Early, of North Carolina, left for home Tuesday evening. He told Secretary McNeill to say good-bye for him, and that he should ever remember the B. C. of G. of Dwight.

A box to receive subscriptions will be placed in the club room soon, and all who wish to contribute to a poor but worthy subject are respectfully invited to contribute a dime occasionally.

Mr. E. V. Williams has held the presidential chair the past week in place of Mr. Coleman, resigned. Mr. Williams is a very popular young man, and has filled the office with credit to himself and the club.

Prof. Jaekel, of South Chicago, a pianist of great ability and teacher of music in that city, is now a patient at Dwight and member of the club. We are hearing from the professor at club entertainments.

Mr. Hopkinson of Chicago, an ex-graduate, came down and visited the club Thursday. He made a ringing talk to the boys at the morning meeting and cheered them not a little by his reassuring words.

Mr. Bliss of Chicago was elected vice president Wednesday morning in place of Mr. Early resigned. Although the honor was unexpectedly conferred upon him he replied in a graceful speech, and will fill the office to the best of his ability.

Jas. Farrell of Louisiana, Mo. writes: "I am still a cured man, although while at Dwight I was so skeptical regarding the cure, and thought the doctors could not reach me. If I always feel as I do now I shall never drink another drop of liquor."

Mr. Archer, of Chicago, left for home Thursday morning. Before leaving he made an excellent talk to the club, in which he stated that whisky and he had parted company forever. Mr. Archer was a prominent member of the executive committee and has many friends in Dwight.

Mr. T. E. Connor, of Chicago, departed for home Tuesday evening, cured forever, he says, of the liquor habit. He left his address in the hands of Secretary McNeill, which was read to the club at its meeting Wednesday morning. Mr. Connor's many friends wish him much success in life.

Brother Lyman H. Lyon is with us again. This time he brought along his better half, which he has taken unto himself since his recent visit to Dwight. Mr. Lyon is an earnest worker for the good of the club and devotes much of his time to its interests. His many friends in this city are always pleased to greet him.

Judge A. DeLacy Wood, of Grand Marais, Minn., departed for home Monday morning. Mr. Wood has been with us the past four weeks, and to say that the improvement in his condition is wonderful would be putting it mildly. Mr. Wood is a prominent man in his section, being judge of the probate court of Cook county, Minn., and editor of the Pioneer. He was at one time secretary of the Minnesota State Editorial Association. Mr. Wood has made many friends here who will be pleased to hear of his future success.

Mr. Smithers, of Delaware, an old graduate and former president of the club, visited in Dwight Wednesday. He made a few remarks of encouragement to the boys at the morning meeting, and says in his case the Keeley treatment has been a success.

Messrs. J. R. Oughton, O. B. Stanton and Le'Gage Pratt visited the Bloomington club last week and were entertained in grand style. Speeches were made by the trio. J. R. Oughton took occasion to compliment the Woman's Auxiliary for the grand work of reformation they were doing.

We stated in a recent issue that the salaries of Secretary McNeill and Janitor Tom Walls had been lowered. We should have stated that when Maek and Tom saw that the club was running behind they voluntarily lowered their salaries, thus giving the club the benefit of quite an amount.

Mr. J. J. Coleman, of Toledo, Ohio, resigned the office of president Saturday morning, his course of treatment being finished, and left for home Sunday. Mr. Coleman has been an active worker in the club, and much has been due to his services on the executive committee the past few weeks.
