Bichloride of Gold Club.

H. W. SHEPARD, REPORTER.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.

An Exceedingly Hot Night, a Large Audience and an Excellent Programme.

One of the largest audiences ever assembled in the treatment hall greeted the performers last Friday night at the club concert...

The programme arranged was a good one, but too long. Profs. Cole and Jaekel's addition to the Dwight orchestra strengthened that organization wonderfully...

- PROGRAMME. Overture: "Enchantment"....Dwight Orchestra Chorus: "The Tar's Song"....Geo. M. Ely...

Tuesday Night. The amusement committee took heed to their recent experience and prepared a short programme for Tuesday night's entertainment...

The friends of our ex-secretary, Mr. Chas. G. McNeill went to work on the strict g. t. this week and purchased an elegant gold-headed cane with the words: "Presented to Chas. G. McNeill by the Bichloride of Gold Club..."

With the retirement of Messrs. McNeill and Kehoe from the offices of secretary of the local club and of the National club respectively, the organization loses two good, earnest workers...

Mrs. Clara Parrish, of Paris, Ill., an active worker in the W. C. T. U. of this country, visited Dwight this week. She attended the club meeting Monday morning and made an excellent talk to the boys...

Mr. Keboe will soon leave for his home in Kentucky, where he will resume his old position with the Louisville Courier-Journal. Mr. Keboe has held the offices of secretary of the Dwight club, the club of the world and the Associated clubs since his treatment and is well posted on club affairs...

Janitor Tom Walls—well, everybody knows Tom. He has made an excellent official and has hosts of friends...

who are sorry to see him leave. Tom always has a kind word for everybody, and has done much toward lightening the weary hours of the boys under treatment by his conversation. Tom is all right.

Mr. Jno. W. Dereen, the new secretary, is well known to the citizens of Dwight, having resided here for almost a year. He was for a time assistant secretary of the club of the world, and is thoroughly acquainted with the duties of his office...

The following letter read at the club a few mornings ago created much amusement. We reproduce it:

DEAR MR. KEBOE—As it is now over three months since I left Dwight, I thought you might possibly be pleased to know that I am one of the four hundred; that is that I belong to the "one" part of the "four hundred and twenty-five"...

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Le' Gage Pratt visited Chicago Monday on business.

Fresh, cool buttermilk for sale at the creamery.

Mr. Cook was among the departures from Dwight this week.

Mr. Burkhardt, of Bloomington, Ill., made a few remarks at the Saturday meeting. He is an old graduate and came with a candidate for Keeley honors.

There are more secret society pins among the patients now than ever before. Almost every one you meet has a pin or watch charm emblematic of some secret order.

The club's charter will be returned in a few days. Mr. Finn has been appointed by the club to petition the executive board of the National Clubs for a return of the same.

Chas. Eugene Banks, of the Banner of Gold, visited Dwight Thursday and attended a meeting of the club. He was called upon for a few remarks which he gave, and recited an original poem entitled "The Years Rolled By."

We would suggest to the Dwight correspondent of the Banner of Gold that when he takes articles bodily from the columns of the STAR AND HERALD the proper credit at least should be given.

Mr. Hogin was re-elected last week to the office of president. His opponent was Mr. Noble who succeeded in making Bro. Hogin's friends hustle. The vote stood 14 to 12. Mr. Noble was elected vice-president.

The Bichloride of Gold Club, of White Plains, N. Y., is also giving entertainments to replenish its treasury. Friday evening of this week the drama, "Ticket of Leave Man" was presented in the opera house to a large audience.

Mrs. Clara Parrish, of Paris, Ill., an active worker in the W. C. T. U. of this country, visited Dwight this week. She attended the club meeting Monday morning and made an excellent talk to the boys.

Miss Parrish's words show that the women of the land are taking an active interest in the Keeley cure.

Warren Jones returned Saturday night from the Keeley Institute at Dwight. He is in the best of health and spirits and says he feels twenty-five years younger. He is full of praise for that institution and pronounces it the grandest thing in the country.

the institute and treatment, and all those who are desirous of being cured and wish to see a description of it should call on him and he will present you with papers on the subject. He says his taste for liquor has been entirely destroyed and he does not even remember the smell of it.

Prominent among the departures from Dwight this week was that of Mr. Noel, who left for his home in Louisiana, Mo., Thursday. Everybody knows Noel and everybody likes him. The club has lost one of its liveliest members, but the world has regained another sober man and an earnest Keeley advocate.

Mr. Wm. L. Bliss, ex-vice-president of the club departed for his home in Chicago Thursday after a stay of four weeks in Dwight. During Mr. Bliss's stay here he has been an active member of the club and made many friends, not only among the patients but the residents of Dwight.

Mr. O. B. Stanton, the general proprietor of the Livingston, has a scheme which he thinks will net the club some money. It is to place two large frames in the club room, similar to those found over desks in hotels, in which will be found advertisements of large Chicago houses, railroads, etc.
