

FORMALLY NOTIFIED.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS TOLD OF THEIR NOMINATION.

House Meeting of the Democracy at the New York Madison Square Garden—Thousands Witness the Ceremonies in Madison Square—Candidates Applauded.

Accept the Party's Call.

Grover Cleveland and Adlai E. Stevenson were formally notified by the Convention Committee at Madison Square Garden, in New York, that they had been chosen by the Democratic party as its standard-bearers on the national ticket during the campaign which will end Nov. 4 next. The formal duty imposed upon the Notification Committee by the wigwam convention was made the excuse for a free-for-all mass meeting of Tammany and Kings County Democrats. For that purpose President Cleveland's running-mate was brought from Bloomington, Ill., to stand up with his chief and receive the homage of the host. The crowd which surrounded Madison Square Garden was big and unruly and impatiently waiting for the police to clear their hands full, and were glad when the doors were swung open at 7:45 p. m. The body of the theater was free to the public, and the galleries were open to all.

Meantime, members of the reception committee had driven to the home of Mr. Whitney, where they took Mr. Cleveland into a carriage, which was driven to the Manhattan Club-house. The national and notification committees were in waiting there. They were joined by other members of the reception committee who had escorted Mr. Stevenson from the Hoffman House. The three committees, with the nominees, entered carriages and were driven to Madison Square Garden, where their arrival was marked by an elaborate display of fireworks. The party alighted and entered the hall amid cheers.

As the candidates passed inside more than 15,000 people were awaiting them. The admission tickets were confined to the stage and boxes, and the vast amphitheater was occupied by the general public. In many respects the occasion was typical of a national convention. There were the same decorations, the same gay streamers of variegated colors, and from the topmost galleries surrounding the inclosure were suspended the coats of arms of the various States and Territories of the Union. While awaiting the arrival of the party the audience had passed the time cheerfully for Cleveland, Stevenson, and Governor Flower. At 8:20 there was a little commotion in the rear of the stage and a moment later the committee entered, headed by Perry Belmont, who walked arm in arm with Mr. Stevenson. Instantly there was a cry of "Here they come," and as the crowd recognized the Vice Presidential candidate, the vast auditorium trembled with Democratic cheers. The demonstration of the evening was reserved for Grover Cleveland. As he entered the hall and before he had crossed the stage entrance a sharp cry from the rear gallery, 300 feet away, recognized his generous form, and the shrill cry of "Here comes Cleveland" was the signal for a demonstration that he has not witnessed since 1888. The leader received the ovation with his usual stolidity, but his apparent modesty seemed to excite his admirers to make more noise. Then the speech-making began.

Officially notified.

Congressman W. L. Wilson, Chairman of the late late Wigwam convention, made the opening speech. He was followed by Secretary Bell, of the National Committee, who officially notified Mr. Cleveland of his nomination. Mr. Cleveland accepted in a speech of considerable length.

Stephen V. White informed Mr. Stevenson that he was the choice for Vice President, and the nominee accepted in brief words of thanks for the honor conferred.

During Mr. Wilson's address Mrs. Cleveland, who had been detained, tried to enter the hall unobserved, but the audience caught sight of her and went wild with enthusiasm. In the midst of Mr. Wilson's speech three cheers were given for Mrs. Cleveland, and when a voice from the gallery pronounced "Three cheers for Ruth" the enthusiasm reached such a height that the Chairman was obliged momentarily to stop. Mr. Cleveland's face darkened with displeasure, but even his frown was powerless to check the cheering, fully it was only a minute before the enthusiasm for Miss Cleveland ceased.

FATAL SOUTH DAKOTA STORM.

A Woman Killed at Gettysburg and Her Child Injured—Church Destroyed.

Specials from various points in South Dakota give details of a severe storm that did considerable damage to crops and property Wednesday night. At Gettysburg a woman named Herron was killed and her child fatally injured. The storm struck that place at 10 o'clock and destroyed the Methodist and Baptist churches, and nearly every house in the town was more or less damaged. Two heavy freight cars were blown fifty feet from the track. Wires from Gettysburg are all down and the details of the storm are meager.

Abandon Their Reservation.

A large party, presumed to be a majority of the Lower Brule Indians, have abandoned the reservation near Chamberlain, S. D., and gone south of White River into Rosebud Reservation, and declare that they have drawn their last ration at Lower Brule. They will probably be met by the White River coast police if it is possible to do so. For years these Indians have desired to go south of White River, and they are very anxious to fix terms with the Rosebud Indians to reside on their lands.

A VALUED New York contemporary rises to inquire: "Must Dr. Parkhurst go?" Judging from the inconclusive returns, we are forced to the conclusion that the Doctor would better quit going.

FOSTER'S FORECASTS.

WHAT WE MAY EXPECT IN THE WAY OF WEATHER.

A Severe Storm to Cross the Mississippi Valley Between August 10 and 12—September Weather Will Be Favorable to the Farmer.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm waves to cross the continent from July 20 to Aug. 2 and Aug. 4 to 8. The next will reach the Pacific coast about the 8th, cross the Western mountains by the close of the 9th, the great central valleys from 10th to 11th, and the Eastern States about the 13th.

This storm will be quite severe in the Mississippi Valley from 10th to 12th, at Missouri Valley from west weather and severe local storms.

The weather will average warm for the season till about 24th to 26th, when it will change to very cool weather, with an average of much cooler weather during the balance of the month. September will not be as warm as the same month was last year. Drouth will generally be relieved between 20th and 24th of the month. September, and the fall months will be favorable for farm work, especially fall seeding.

Local Forecasts.

Weather changes move from west to east across the continent, and each local forecast is made for within 250 miles east and west of the magnetic meridian mentioned, and for all the country between 25 and 50 degrees of north latitude. These local weather changes will occur within twenty-four hours before or after sunset of the dates given:

- SANTA FE, DENVER AND BLACK HILLS MERIDIAN.
- August—
- 7—Cooler and clearing.
- 8—Moderating.
- 9—Warmer.
- 10—Storm wave on this meridian.
- 11—Wind changing.

GEN. CARR'S APPOINTMENT.

He Becomes Brigadier General of the Army—His Military Career.

Col. E. A. Carr, who has been made Brigadier General to succeed Gen. Stanley, was born in New York, March 28, 1831. His military career is 1854. He entered West Point Academy in 1848 and was graduated in 1850. At the outbreak of the war he held the position of Captain of cavalry. In August, 1861, he became Colonel of the Third Illinois Cavalry. In March, 1862, he was made Brigadier General of volunteers for distinguished services at Pea Ridge. At the close of the war he was a Major General of volunteers, a Major in the regular army, and had won the following regular army brevets: Lieutenant Colonel for services at Wilson's Creek, Colonel for services at Blak River bridge, Brigadier General for services at the capture of Little Rock, Major General for services during the war. During the ten years before the war he took part in many frontier campaigns against the Indians and assisted in quelling the Kansas border troubles. He bore a very conspicuous part in the battle of Pea Ridge, where he was wounded and where his command lost heavily. He was prominent in the cavalry operations attending the movements leading up to the capture of Vicksburg. Since the war he has held various positions of honor and hard Indian fighting, and has been honored public thanks by various State Legislatures for his work in freeing the frontier of hostiles.

TRAMPS KILLED IN A WRECK.

Two Meet Death in an Accident Near Plattsmouth, Neb.

Train No. 28, a fast Burlington and Missouri River freight, was badly wrecked on the approach to the Missouri River bridge, east of Plattsmouth, Neb., early Wednesday morning. The train was made up of twelve empty cars and twenty-five loaded grain cars. It broke in two going down the grade and the engine applied the air brakes on the front portion and stopped. The rear part crashed into the bridge, which was empty, and killed four tramps who were stealing a ride. Two of the men were killed almost instantly, but the others lived long enough to tell their names.

Southern Minnesota Crops Ruined.

Last week it was predicted that what the vicinity of Albert Lea, Minn., would yield thirty or forty bushels per acre. To-day the prospect is almost totally dispelled, and there is great doubt as to more than a scant harvest. Almost a hurricane has swept across the State, and has done considerable leveling, leveling fields as though rolled, or cut with a mower. Farmers say the grain cannot straighten up, and that therefore it will only partly fill. The damage is very great throughout Southern Minnesota.

"German Syrup."

Just a bad cold, and a hacking cough. We all suffer that way sometimes. How to get rid of them is the study. Listen—"I am a Ranchman and Stock Raiser. My life is rough and exposed. I meet all the weathers in the Colorado mountains. I sometimes take colds. Often they are severe. I have used German Syrup five years for these. A few doses will cure them at any stage. The last one I had was stopped in 24 hours. It is infallible." James A. Lee, Jefferson, Col.

DO YOU COUGH? DON'T DELAY TAKE KEMP'S BALSAM THE BEST COUGH CURE

It acts upon the mucous membrane of the throat, and the lungs, and the chest, and the entire system, and restores the system to its normal state. A large bottle, 50 cents and $1.00.

Hot Weather Maxims.

We are now in midsummer, and these intensely hot days are liable to be followed by cool nights. It is now that people are in the greatest danger. They sit in draughts, they drink large quantities of ice water, and they suddenly check the perspiration. The waste matter is thus thrown on the kidneys and stomach. The result is an attack of cholera morbus or pneumonia. When you are affected in this way get a bottle of REID'S GERMAN COUGH AND KIDNEY CURE and take it. It contains no poison, and you can take it freely. If you will take it in small but frequent doses you will be astonished to find how soon you will be relieved. No other remedy on the market equals it in any way.

A Mother's Gratitude.

Too great for tongue to tell, is the Hood's Sarsaparilla. My daughter, Olive three years ago had dreadful pains, beginning in one knee and extending to almost every joint in her body, caused by a rheumatism of the bowels. She had used all the best medicines, but she, in conformity to Nature's plan has been after man ever since.

The human system needs continuous and careful attention to rid itself of its impurities. Becham's Pills act like magic.

ANAKENSIS VEGETABLE PILLS

FOR SUMMER COMPLAINTS PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.

BARLOW'S INDICO BLUE

THE FAULTY Wash Blue, for sale by Grocers.

USED THEM IN HIS BLOW-GUN.

Doctor—"Well, my fine little fellow, you have got quite well again. I was sure the pills I left for you would cure you. How did you take them, in water or in cake?"

Boy—"Oh, I used them in my blow-gun."

The little fellow put the nasty, great, griping, old-fashioned pills to a good use. At most, all his internal economy needed was a dose of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, easy to take, and are gently aperient, or actively cathartic, according to size of dose. As a laxative, only one tiny Pellet is required.

The Pellets cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all Disorders of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.
