Bichloride of Gold Club.

H. W. SHEPARD, REPORTER.

Daily Star and Herald.

The daily STAR AND HERALD, to be issued during the great Bichloride of gold club convention, will be profusely illustrated. Besides all the principal buildings in Dwight, including the laboratory, new Keeley block, passenger station, etc., portraits of many of our principal citizens. It will contain many views of the branch institutes and prominent members of the club. It will be printed on fine paper and 5,000 a day will be printed at least, and will be sent to all parts of the country. It will be the greatest effort in the newspaper line ever undertaken in Dwight.

The Great Convention.

Dwight will see great times this September. Three of the largest gatherings ever held in our little city will convene the same week, and from the outlook at present our accommodations will be taxed to the utmost capacity. The conventions we refer to are: The Second Annual Convention of the Associated Keeley Bichloride of Gold Clubs; The State Convention of Bichloride of Gold Clubs, and the First Annual Convention of the Women's Auxiliary Bichloride of Gold Clubs. There is no doubt but that some 3000 or 4000 people will be here, and the people of Dwight must make every preparation to entertain them. The great importance of the work must be conscientiously kept in view, and let all aid in making these three great meetings a credit mark in the history of our town and the Gold cure.

Tuesday Night's Entertainment.

The club house was jammed to the doors Tuesday evening. The program had been hurriedly prepared but every number was good. An address by Judge Darling occupied the greater portion of the time. The Mazon colored Quartette were present and rendered several very nice selections. Mr. Richards, a new arrival in Dwight, amused the audience with several comic selections. Below is the program.

Address "The Keeley Cure" Judge Darling.
Selection "When the Leaves Turn Red" Mazon Quartette.
Song "Chas. Augustus Brown" Mr. Richards.
Address "Sociomom Levi" Mr. Dunson.
Selection "Down Yonder in the Corn Field" Club Quartette.
Selection "Down Yonder in the Corn Field" Mazon Quartette.

Messrs. Sweeney, Noble and Hilton entertained the club with some excellent music at the club Saturday morning.

Mr. Myers packed his valise and silently stole away from Dwight and the club Tuesday. He might, at least, have said good-by.

Phil Murphy, a patient of some four weeks ago, brought down two friends Saturday night who will enter upon a course of treatment.

Mr. Gregory left for his home Tuesday, but without bidding the boys good-by. Mr. Pratt was sent after him but was not strong enough to bring him.

Tom Walls has graduated from the club and another is in his place. We will miss Tom's warm hand-clasp; his cheery smile, and most of all his deep baso-profundo voice. Good-by Tom.

Mr. Bial, of Decatur, took his departure Wednesday. Mr. Bial took treatment here a year ago and has been back for a few weeks' reinforcement. His many friends here wish him success.

Mr. Steve J. Madden was prominent among the departures from Dwight this week. He was a prominent member of the amusement committee and his services to the club were of great value.

Ex-President Hogan was called away to St. Paul very suddenly Saturday evening. He had intended to remain in Dwight until after the September convention, and had made his arrangements to that effect, but was compelled to leave. Mr. Hogan's many friends in Dwight join with the STAR AND HERALD in wishing him much success in the future.

Mr. F. W. Niehaus, of Peoria, graduated Wednesday night and left for home the next morning. Mr. Niehaus has been a prominent figure around the club house, and will be remembered by all.

The office furniture of the secretary of the Associated Clubs was moved to the club house from the old office on Mazon avenue. The reception parlor and room just back will be used for secretary's office.

Mr. L. A. Mueller, who has been testing the merits of the Keeley cure for the past four weeks, departed for home Monday. Mr. Mueller didn't make a parting address to the club but will write them on his arrival home.

Dr. C. H. Craddock, of Cavauol, I. T., was among the departures from Dwight Thursday. Dr. C. has made quite a number of friends while here and his many friends at the Strufe house are sorry to lose their genial companion.

Geo. W. Hoopav, Villa Ridge, Ill., left for home Monday. Mr. Hoopav has been one of the jolly Strufe house boys who have made life so enjoyable in Dwight the past four weeks. He says he is sure of his cure, and has no desire for liquor.

Dr. Van Buren, a graduate of several months ago, is visiting friends in this city. He attended the club meeting Wednesday morning and made quite an interesting address to the boys. The Dr. looks well and says he never felt better in his life.

Prof. Carl Jaekel, of South Chicago, who has entertained so many Dwight audiences with his music the past four weeks, left for his home Saturday. Prof. Jaekel has added much to our entertainments and has been an active member of the club.

Ex-Secretary Kehoe departed from Dwight Wednesday for Chicago. He will "do" the world's fair city in proper style before returning to the shades of Henry Watterson's Courier-Journal. Good-by Brother Kehoe, may the gods prosper you.

Mr. J. E. Richards, of Cleveland, O., an ex-graduate, arrived here Monday, bringing with him a brother who will undergo a course of treatment. Mr. Richards was an active member of the amusement committee while here, and rendered the club much assistance.

Among the visitors to Dwight this week was James Lowe Pilling, of Chicago, who was universally known as the "Shipwrecked Sailor" during his treatment here several months ago. He is looking well and says he has never once had a return of the old desire since he left Dwight.

Thomas W. Noble, of Elk Rapids, Michigan, was elected president last Saturday morning, and Mr. J. E. McDonald, of Pittsburg, Pa., Vice President. The club could not have made a better selection for the two important offices, and both gentlemen will have the hearty co-operation of the members in the discharge of their duties.

Mr. Noble, who retired from the chair Thursday, was the recipient of a unanimous vote of thanks from the club at their morning meeting. Mr. Noble thanked the club members and said he had received nothing but kindness since he arrived in Dwight. Tom is a good fellow and has many warm friends.

At the election of officers Thursday morning, Mr. Davies nominated Mr. T. F. Tierney, of Clinton, Iowa, for President. There being no other nomination the election of Mr. Tierney was made unanimous, the secretary casting the ballot. Mr. King placed the name of Dr. T. S. Roberts, of Chicago, in nomination for the office of vice-president, who was unanimously elected. Both gentlemen will make good officers.

The club was most pleasantly entertained Tuesday morning by a piano recital from Mr. H. E. Arnold of New York City.
