Professor Schlabach, one of Supt. Foster's corps of able institute instructors, is not only a successful pedagogue, but an expert tennis player as well. The Professor wears with becoming modesty, a neat gold medal, captured at Dwight last Saturday, designating him a champion in the "singles" of a tournament just closed in that city. Mr. Schlabach, during his stay here, has been giving local players pointers on manipulating the unruly racquet and pursuing the elusive ball.--Pontiac Sentinel.

Prof. Schlabach's postoffice address is DeWitt, Iowa. The Professor left Wednesday for Chester, Ill., to take part in a district teachers' institute and will go from there to DeWitt. Mr. Schlabach has been superintendent of the Dwight schools for the past year and has been very successful as an educator, and the scholars and citizens are all his friends. He is socially and intellectual a favorite, and the STAR AND HERALD takes pleasure in joining this community in wishing him success wherever he may locate.
A passenger on the Hummer Sunday night made a slight mistake regarding Dwight and his train. He got off the Hummer with the intention of purchasing a glass or so of beer while he waited. That was one mistake. He wandered over near the laboratory (and by the way, it would have been a good thing for him to have gone in and registered) and failed to find what he wanted and started back to the train. Instead of getting on the Hummer he got on the Accommodation cars on the side track, and the Hummer pulled out without him. He followed the Hummer on the next train in summer attire.

Seventeenth Birthday.
The seventeenth natal day of Miss Gussie Blaine, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Blaine, was celebrated in a fitting manner, by a pleasant party on the beautiful lawn at their residence, Thursday evening. Quite a number of this popular young lady's friends gathered there and wished her many happy returns of the occasion and enjoyed a pleasant evening, which was occupied with games, music and social converse. A very fine lunch was served which all enjoyed.
Among the young friends of Miss Blaine from abroad, Misses Sloane, Stove and Fox, of Chicago, and Miss Sadie Saddler, of Joliet, were present.

Death of Mrs. John Bier.
Died Thursday morning Aug. 7, 1892, after a long and painful illness of eight months, at her home in Sunbury township, Mrs. John Bier. The funeral services were held Wednesday at 1 o'clock p. m., at the residence, Rev. C. J. Moots, of the Methodist church of Odell conducting the same. The remains were interred in McDowell's cemetery.
Mrs. J. Bier was born July 12, 1836, in Brown county, Ohio, where she spent her early life. She was married to Urban Miller in 1854, residing in Ohio about six years. They then moved to Ottawa, Ill. Mr. Miller died in 1872 leaving eight children. In 1873 she was united in marriage to Mr. John Bier. From this union one son was born. She leaves a husband and nine children to mourn her loss. The afflicted family have the sympathy of the public.

Got It In For Us.
The Dwight correspondent of the Odell Gazette and Reporter and the editor of that paper seem to take a delight in ridiculing our city and every thing done in it. The correspondent, last week, took occasion to slur the public meeting that ratified the action of Mayor Romberger in securing the B. C. of G. C. convention. The correspondent is evidently one of the kind who always takes occasion to belittle every home enterprise and try to kill everything that is a benefit to our town. We are glad to state, however, that there are not many of them and the coming convention will be a success and the delegates will be entertained in good shape just the same.
The editor also takes a fling at Dwight which is uncalled for. Dwight can get along without him in the future as it has in the past. Go fishing.

Fire Company Election
At the special meeting of the fire company held at the town house Monday night considerable business was transacted.
The resignation of Asst. Chief Schlabach was received and accepted. Mr. S. resigned on account of his expected removal from Dwight.
V. S. Wright, captain of the hook and ladder company, was elected assistant chief.
J. W. Baker having resigned as captain and J. Williamson, lieutenant, having left town, A. R. Zimmerman was elected captain and Ame Orr lieutenant of the hose company.
Lieut. Rowley, of the hook and ladder, was elected captain, vice Wright, and John Lightholder, first lieutenant.
Hershlag Hagerty was elected secretary and treasurer.
The company cleared over $180 the 4th of July, and decided not to purchase uniforms until the company became more settled and the number of changes were less.
A committee was appointed consisting of Chief Keeley, Messrs. Rowley, Zimmerman, Buffham, Wright and Fenn to secure quarters and look into the matter of organizing a club. The object is to secure a room suitable for reading, writing, etc., and where the members of the fire company may go day or evening, in a social way, and also hold the meetings of the organization. This is a good idea, and will tend to bring about a union of feeling and have a tendency to make the boys more interested in their organization. The company is in a good condition and well officered.
