

A Happy Wedding.

[From the Lafayette, Ind., Daily Courier.]
 Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shriver, on East Main street, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Maud, and Mr. Wm. Sterne, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Rick Younger played a pretty wedding march, to which the bridal party came into the parlor, where, in the presence of about fifty of the young people's relatives and friends, the ceremony was performed which made them husband and wife. It was a pretty home wedding, with surroundings congenial and happy. Both parties are most estimable young people, and are equally worthy of each other, the bride being a charming and sweet dispositioned young lady, and the groom an honest, trustworthy young man, whose occupation is that of telegraph operator for the L. E. & W. railroad at Ottobain.

Miss Gertrude Headrick and Mr. Wesley Vencillere were the attendants, and Rev. H. Vencill, of Stockwell, grandfather of the bride, performed the ceremony. They were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents. The wedding festivities lasted until a late hour, and consisted of delicious refreshments and the chats and congratulations of a house full of young people. Accompanied by Miss Younger the young couple left this morning for Dwight, Ill., to visit with the groom's parents, after which they return to Ottobain to reside.

Mr. Lee Potter, a cousin of the groom met them at the depot at Dwight, and conveyed to the groom's home, where an elegant supper was served. The many relatives and friends of the young couple wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

News From Dwight.

The correspondent in Dwight who sends items to the Pontiac F. T. and Observer, furnishes the following bits of news:

The people as a rule do not indorse the diatribe of the editor of the Herald about the clock which is to be put in the court house. In all probability the editor fears it might disclose the cheap time-piece he carries.

The attendance of patients at the Keeley establishment has fallen off very much this summer and many who expected our town to double its population this year are grievously disappointed.

We fail to see how the clock would disclose the editors cheap time-piece. It would be the other way, but cuts no figure. The editor considers himself in big luck to have a cheap, very cheap, watch.

Daily Star and Herald.

The daily STAR and HERALD, to be issued during the great Bichloride of Gold club convention, will be profusely illustrated. Besides all the principal buildings in Dwight, including the laboratory, new Keeley block, passenger station, etc., portraits of many of our principal citizens. It will contain many views of the branch institutes and prominent members of the club. It will be printed on fine paper and 5,000 a day will be printed at least, and will be sent to all parts of the country. It will be the greatest effort in the newspaper line ever undertaken in Dwight.

Gone to Iowa.

S. T. K. Prime will address a hard roads convention at Des Moines, Iowa, Monday evening next.

Removed.

Mr. C. L. Romberger, proprietor of the Dwight Land and Loan office, and attorney-at-law, is now nicely located in the new Keeley block on West street opposite the depot, in the north front room up stairs. Anyone desiring to purchase or sell property, insure life or property, or legal business to attend to, will do well to call at his office.
