A Good Entertainment.

The enterprise and energy displayed by the amusement committee in preparing the programme for the last concert is to be commended...

Among the many who departed to happy homes this week we find the following, all of whom are prominent club members...

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

Ex-Secretary McNeill visited in Chicago this week.

The number of patients is gradually increasing. So is the club membership.

Mr. F. W. Miehans departed for home Thursday after completing a four weeks course.

The boys find the cool shady grounds of the club much pleasanter than the verandahs of hotels and boarding houses.

Mr. Charles Shepherd, of Virginia, a patient now under treatment at the institute, has been appointed janitor by the board of trustees.

There will be a large reunion of Keeley graduates at Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, on the 21st of August.

Albert E. Hyde, a former graduate, spent Sunday in Dwight. He will always have a warm spot in his heart for our little city.

Dr. C. H. Craddock, of Cavariol, I. T., departed for his home Thursday. Dr. Craddock has made many friends while here who follow him with their good wishes.

Prominent among the departures this week was that of Judge Crumpacker, of Valparaiso, Ind., who left on Monday. Judge was a prominent figure at the Livingston, and has many friends among the patients.

Mr. Irwin, an ex-graduate, made the boys a stirring address at Wednesday morning's meeting. Since his graduation, Mr. Irwin has encountered temptation in all its forms, but says he finds no trouble in resisting.

Chas. Eugene Banks, associate editor of the Banner of Gold, of Chicago, spent Sunday with friends here. Mr. Banks has hosts of friends here who are always glad to see him.

The club meeting opened with a vocal solo by Mr. Hilton Wednesday morning. Thursday the singing of "My Country 'Tis of Thee" closed the meeting. Music is an attractive feature of each session of the club.

The secretary and his assistant are kept very busy straightening up the books and records of the Associated Clubs, which must be in shape for the General Convention. The work will probably occupy a month or more.

Chas. G. McNeill, ex secretary, spent several days in Chicago this week visiting friends. Mack attended a very pleasant entertainment given by the ladies auxiliary of the B. C. of G. C. in Chicago Monday evening in the Riato building.

Daniel B. Vermilye, of Great Falls, Montana, an ex-president of the club, visited his friends here Wednesday. Mr. Vermilye has charge of the institutes at Butte City and Great Falls, and is meeting with great success.

The club meeting was opened Monday morning with some excellent violin music by Mr. J. B. Downing. The old gentleman is here with his son, who is under treatment, and his music pleases not only the club members, but the guests of the Livingston, where he is stopping. His music was an attractive feature of Tuesday evening's programme.

John W. Stratton, of Louisville, Ky., an ex-graduate of some weeks ago, visited his many friends in Dwight Wednesday. He made the boys an interesting talk at the morning meeting, in which he said he had not been so happy for 20 years.

Phil Davis, of Chicago, was prominent among the departures of Friday. Phil has rendered much assistance at our entertainments, and his many Irish character songs have been greatly appreciated. The boys all like Phil, and heartily wish him success.

Gus Rogers, of Chicago, has gone. He left last Friday and with his departure the entertainment committee has lost an active member. Gus has taken a prominent part in club matters and the success of some of our entertainments has been due to his efforts.

C. C. Duff and wife departed for their home in Owasso, Mich., this week. Mr. Duff has been with us for the past four weeks, and his assistance in our entertainments has been invaluable. Both Mr. and Mrs. Duff have many friends and acquaintances in Dwight who hope to see the beneficial results of this sojourn in this city.

Mr. Ringwald, an ex-graduate of the Great Falls, Montana, institute, was among the Dwight visitors this week. He came to see the Dwight institute, and incidentally favored the club with an excellent address Wednesday morning. Mr. Ringwald's remarks show him to be an enthusiastic Keeley advocate.

The present officers of the club, President Tierney and Vice-President Roberts, were unanimously re-elected at Thursday morning's session. Both gentlemen are making excellent officials, and they are now fairly in harness. Dr. Roberts is chairman of the amusement committee, and his hustling qualities, the boys say, are only equaled by his old-time glibness in "talkin' for the drinks."

Among the graduates who addressed the club Thursday morning was Mr. Sweeney, who left on the Denver after a four weeks course of treatment. That Mr. Sweeney sincerely regretted leaving Dwight was plainly evident, both from his actions and his address. Mr. Sweeney's services at our entertainments have been invaluable, and for the same he was the recipient of a vote of thanks. His many friends in the newspaper profession as well as the patients at Dwight heartily wish him success.
