J. C. Lewis spent several days in Chicago last week searching the wholesale houses for fine selections of goods for his jewelry and stationery and book store.

There was quite a wreck on the 31 about four miles west of Kankakee Thursday, several cars were derailed, and a car-load of dressed beef badly damaged.

Look out for the daily commencing Sept. 12. A large number will be printed and as an advertising medium it cannot be beaten. It will be handsomely illustrated.

Miss Bessie Baker is now employed in the book and stationery department of J. C. Lewis large establishment on West street, and will take pleasure in greeting her many friends.

Please bear in mind that there is no necessity of sending any printing outside of Dwight to be done. Its the duty of every man to stand by his home and his home institutions.

Mrs. Walter Weese has been in Joliet for the past two weeks under the care of a physician. We are pleased to announce that she is gaining in health, Mr. Weese visited her Sunday.

Parties from Dwight and Odell that visited Pontiac Thursday, got badly left on No. 33, the evening freight. They found out that it did not carry passengers on and after Sept. 1.

Ketcham & Smith have moved their office from Mickelson's block to the Roeder block on East street, the quarters recently occupied by C. L. Romberg, and have pleasant quarters.

No. 33, the night freight on the Alton does not carry passengers any more. This is surely a great inconvenience to Dwight and Odell people as they cannot get back from Pontiac until morning.

Misses Addie Fenn and Kittie Martin left Wednesday morning for Henry Ill., to attend the district meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U. They represent the Dwight Y's., and are expected home today.

There is a People's party paper in the county. Its name is "Liberty." If there is one thing that we need more than a clock in the steeple, it is a few more newspapers in Livingston county. There should be one for each family.

Rev. Cole delivered an address at a Sunday school picnic last Wednesday six miles west of Odell. His address was "on the Normal Method of Bible teaching." There were about 1,000 people present and a splendid time was enjoyed.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jacobsen died at their residence in Dwight Wednesday morning, and the funeral was held Thursday afternoon. The little one was only seven months old and the parents have the sympathy of many friends.

The Republicans at Dwight are wide-awake, and propose to open the campaign on the 10th of September. It is the intention to get the Pontiac Harrison and Reid Marching Club fully organized by that time to attend in force.—Pontiac Sentinel.

The republican county central committee met at Pontiac, Thursday. It was decided to hold a rally in Reading township the 14th. Hon. H. K. Wheeler and other speakers will be present in the afternoon, who will also speak at Long Point in the evening of the same day.

Prof. Sanford of Chicago, is in Dwight organizing an art class, anyone interested in oil or pastel painting or drawing is requested to call at the Dwight Art Co., where full information can be obtained. Prof. Sanford is a thorough student of color, and comes to us highly recommended.

Mr. Hayes is willing to sacrifice his farm for $100 an acre. The sewer seems to have raised the price instead of lowered it. The farm cost him $12,750 and he wants only $21,000. It is probably not necessary to say that the poor man has not yet found any one that is willing to become a party to such a sacrifice.

The Congregational missionary society was largely attended at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cole. Twenty-seven were present. Mr. Sanford, whose sister was a teacher among the Mormons, made a short address. Mrs. Cole read the scriptures and a missionary lunch was served. A missionary motto was found in each plate which was read. $3.05 was taken as collection for missions.

Jan. B. Austin returned from his western trip Sunday, and is what the boys say "stuck" on the country. So much so that he will leave for there with his family in a couple of weeks. He will go into partnership with his brother in the grain and live stock business. They have already three elevators in course of construction. J. B. reports the crops as being very fine in that part of the country.

Gone To Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Oughton and Jimmie and Johnie left Dwight last Saturday for a two months visit across the sea. In Ireland they will visit relatives at Courton Harbor, Gorey, Co. Wexford.

Their many friends in Dwight wish them a pleasant voyage and visit and safe return.

Worlds Fair.

Program of Ceremonies Attending the Dedication of the Buildings of the World's Columbian Exposition, October 20.

When the Congress of the United States authorized the commemoration of the Four Hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by an International Exposition to be held in Chicago during the summer of 1893, it also provided that the Exposition buildings should be dedicated on the twelfth day of October, 1892 with "appropriate ceremonies." Subsequently by act of Congress, this date was changed to October 21, 1892.

The evening of Wednesday, October nineteenth, a grand reception will be tendered the President of the United States, his cabinet and other distinguished guests at the Auditorium. After the close of the ceremonies on each of the three succeeding evenings, there will be magnificent pyrotechnic displays.

THURSDAY, OCT. 20, THE CIVIC CELEBRATION

The first day will witness an imposing procession, indicative of peace, contentment and prosperity, participated in by civic organizations, which will be reviewed by the President of the United States, his cabinet, the Congress and other honored guests.

In the evening, at Jackson Park, amid myriads of electric lights and other displays, a water pageant, "The Procession of the Centuries," will move through the beautiful water-ways of the Exposition grounds, illustrating with beauty and historic accuracy some of the great facts of history connected with the discovery of America, such as the condition of this country prior to the landing of Columbus; striking events in the life of the great discoverer; important epochs in American history and the world's progress in civilization. The vessels upon which these tableaux will be represented vary from 40 to 53 feet in length, modeled after the naval architecture of the period represented; for example, "Columbus before the Court of Spain" will be represented upon a vessel modeled after the lines of the "Santa Maria."

The following subject will be illustrated:

1st. Aboriginal Age; representing the American Indians.

2d. The Stone Age; representing the Cliff Dwellers.

3rd. The Age of metal; representing the Aztecs, their religious rites, manners and customs.

4th. Columbus at the Court of Ferdinand and Isabella.

5th. Departure of Columbus from Palos.

6th. Discovery of America.

7th. Columbus before the Court of Ferdinand and Isabella, presenting natives and the strange products of the new country.

8th. English Cavaliers and the settlement of Jamestown.

9th. Hendrick Hudson; discovery of the Hudson river; Dutch settlement of New Amsterdam.

10th. Landing of the Pilgrims, and illustrations of early Puritan life.

11th. Ferdinand de Soto; discovery of the Mississippi.

12th. The great explorers, Pierre Marquette, Chevalier La Salle and the Northwest.

13th. Washington and his Generals.

14th. Signing of the Declaration of Independence.

15th. Union of the colonies; the thirteen original states; the sisterhood of the Great Republic; welcoming the territories to the constellation of the states.

16th. "Westward be course of empire takes its way."

17th. The genius of invention; application of steam, etc.
