

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked Up at the Club Rooms and Various Parts of the City.

Look out for Missouri. The total membership of the Dwight club up to Sept. 6, was 4,154.

Hon. John J. Flinn of Chicago, was a Dwight visitor Monday and Tuesday.

Judge W. C. Arnold, of South Dakota, was elected chairman, and C. W. Pillars, of Illinois, vice-president.

Twelve state organizations will be represented at the convention, and hundreds of other clubs in the different states.

The alternates to the national club elected by the Dwight club, will serve as the regular delegates to the state convention.

A very interesting letter was read Thursday morning from Colonel W. A. Ewing, of Chicago, who left Dwight last Sunday.

Rev. Cole was called upon for some remarks Thursday, and responded in a manner that certainly brought the house down.

The Kirkwood, Mo. club will send the following delegate to the convention, Messrs Ed McCormick, C. E. Byington, and Wm. B. Hunt.

Alfred D. Merrick, president of the Hagerstown, Maryland club, writes Sec. Dereen that he will represent his club in the national convention.

A Bichloride of Gold club has just organized at Wilmington, North Carolina, and they expect to send a delegate to the national convention.

The convention will be composed of as fine a body of men as there is in the country, representing the leading commercial and professional interests.

J. W. McGahey, who has been employed by the Keeley company since his graduation last December, moved to Marseilles with his family Wednesday.

Jos. E. Pace, editor of the Mt. Vernon, Ill., daily and weekly News, is a newcomer in "the line" and is a very genial gentleman, whom it is a pleasure to meet.

Mr. James T. Hardin who is the state manager of the Keeley institute in Maryland, writes that himself and wife will attend the national convention at Dwight.

Dr. Alex W. Reese of Warrensburg, Mo., a graduate of the class of last February, has been spending a few days in Dwight, and as a matter of course made a good talk to the boys last Friday morning.

The meetings of the Illinois State Convention will be held in the club house next week, while the sessions of the national convention will be held in the new opera house which is rapidly nearing completion.

There seems to be a great lack of histrionic and musical talent among the patients now in Dwight, judging by the club entertainments, or else the entertainment committee is in a state of "innocuous desuetude."

The entertainment committee appointed Thursday morning by Chairman Arnold, is composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. C. W. Pillars, John W. Bremer, Hays, C. G. McNeill and Malcom McKay.

John T. Nixon, a graduate of the December class in Dwight, arrived here Wednesday with a friend. Mr. Nixon is a Notary Public in his city, and is vice president of the Continental Printing Co., at 515, N. 3d Street.

Frank J. Joslin of Cedar Rapids Ia., who arrived here with a friend last week, was by a unanimous vote of the club made an honorary member of the Dwight B. C. of G. C., and returned home wearing the badge upon his coat lapel.

A special car of delegates to the convention, left New York City this morning. They will stop in Pittsburg and be joined there by another special car of delegates from that place. They will probably arrive in Dwight Monday.

National President Moore and some of the board of directors will be on the train. Horace W. Shepard writes from Warrensburg, Mo., that he has decided not to return to Dwight, having accepted the position of City editor of the Johnson County Star, a daily and weekly paper published at Warrensburg. While his numerous friends here will regret to learn that he will not return, they will rejoice over his good fortune at his own home, and will unite with the writer in wishing him unbounded success in his new field of labor.

Mr. Besey delivered a recitation upon the Chicago fire Tuesday. Dr. Barnes was called for and responded with a Dutch recitation given in his own inimitable style, for which he received an encore. Colonel LeGage Pratt was called on for a recitation, but the gallant Colonel had been lost in deep contemplation of the Chicago fire, and he could not respond.

Dr. J. E. Blaine made another splendid talk to the patients last Friday morning and it is only necessary to pass the word along the line that he is expected to address the club, when he is sure to be greeted by a crowd of interested listeners, who pay the closest attention to every word that falls from his lips.

Chairman Arnold has appointed the following committee to solicit contributions for the purpose of decorating the club rooms in which the meetings of the Illinois state convention will be held, and to illuminate the grounds at night: C. W. Pillars, John W. Bremer, H. J. Ahern, James Rathburn, Conrad Halsey.

The club at one of its meetings last week tendered a unanimous vote of thanks to Mrs. Ida Buxton Cole for the splendid address made by her at the club entertainment, and it is expected that she will be invited to address the national convention sometime during its sessions here next week. Mrs. Cole is certainly a very entertaining talker to whom it is a pleasure to listen.

Many interesting letters from graduates have been read during the past week, among the rest one from Dr. S. Fillmore Bennett, of Richmond, Ill., the author of the Sweet Bye and Bye, who writes that he has no more doubt of his own cure than that the sun will rise on the morrow. These letters coming from graduates who have returned home are productive of much good.

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley addressed the members of the club at a special meeting Saturday afternoon and the room was crowded to its utmost capacity. When Dr. Keeley arrived he was greeted with a round of applause that fairly made the building tremble. His address though brief was full of interest and was listened to with the closest attention. At the conclusion of his remarks an opportunity was given to all to come forward and take him by the hand.

The following are the delegates elected by the Bloomington, Ill. Club, to attend the national convention at Dwight: Messrs. H. A. Doty, George W. Wetzel and Ben. W. Mason; alternates, Messrs. John Doonan, I. N. Ives and George Alexander. Those from the ladies auxiliary are: Mrs. T. N. Ives, Mrs. George Alexander and Mrs. H. A. Doty; alternates, Mrs. George Silby, Mrs. Otto Kadghin and Mrs. George W. Wetzel.

Chairman W. E. Long of Fayetteville, Ark., was presented by the club with a silk umbrella last Saturday morning. John W. Bremer of Monticello, Ill., making the presentation speech, to which Mr. Long responded in a few well chosen words. It is these acts of courtesy and kindness daily occurring among the patients at Dwight that tends to make a few weeks stay so pleasant, and which will always make the recipients think with pleasure of their many pleasant acquaintances made while here.

Colonel Wm. A. Ewing of Chicago, departed for home Monday morning bearing the best wishes of numerous friends made during his five weeks stay in Dwight. A very pleasing affair occurred at the club room last Saturday morning when the gallant Colonel was presented by the club with an elegant silk umbrella, John W. Bremer of Monticello, Ill., acting as spokesman for the club. Col. Ewing responding in a graceful manner. Colonel Ewing was one of the most active and efficient chairmen the club has ever had.

At the Tuesday morning meeting of the club five delegates and five alternates were elected to represent the Dwight club, at the national convention to be held in this city, commencing next Tuesday, Sept. 13, and continuing until Thursday, Sept. 15. The delegates were chosen from among the club members now taking treatment, as were the alternates with the exception of Messrs. Stanton and McNeill. The delegates chosen were as follows: W. C. Arnold, South Dakota. Malcom McKay, St. Paul, Minn. John H. Pierce, Omaha, Neb. Dr. Geo. Stuart, North Henderson, Ill. Frank Crosby, Chicago. Alternates.—J. W. Bremer, Monticello, Ill. Chas. Clay, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. E. C. Frentrop, Pekin, Ill. C. G. McNeill, Chicago. O. B. Stanton, Dwight. The number of delegates selected are based upon a club membership of one hundred persons.

The entertainment committee seems to have got lost in the shuffle in some way this week, and had it not been for Mr. Collins, who is connected with the musical house of Lyon & Healy, Chicago, and who came down to Dwight upon a special invitation of Mr. O. B. Stanton, the Tuesday evenings entertainment would have been a most complete failure and the large audience that had assembled would have been sadly disappointed. Mr. Collins proved to be a dead ringer and he fairly captivated his audience by his excellently rendered piano solos, sentimental and comic songs, and he deserves to be made an honorary member of the Dwight Bichloride of Gold club, and he should be entitled to a seat in the national convention next week.

Delegates From Colorado Springs.

A letter from Colonel Harry Insley, manager of The Keeley Institute of Colorado Springs, says among other things, the following regarding the convention: We purpose to send a strong, if not a stronger delegation than any other Club in the United States that travels as far as we do. We will be there on the morning of the 13th inst., with colors flying, with good speakers and with Keeley songs, unknown to the Mississippi Valley Keeleyites.

Sensible Resolutions.

The following preamble and resolutions, presented by John H. Pierce of Omaha, Neb., were adopted by the club Saturday Sept. 3.

WHEREAS, We recognize the fact that the use of slang phrases in designating the treatment, the medicine or the buildings of the Leslie E. Keeley Co., and in characterizing the patients of the Institute, is without warrant of good sense, and unworthy of the respect in which we should hold the "Bichloride of Gold cure." Be it

RESOLVED, That we will individually, and collectively as a club, both refrain ourselves, and do all in our power to discourage others from their use.
